It is bad enough that the beautiful Celesta Wroxley and her brother Sir Giles are alone after their mother had scandalously left their father and ran off with her lover to the disapproval and outrage of Society To make matters worse Sir Giles has seriously gone off the rails in London drinking heavily and gambling away what little money they have And he has come heavily under the influence of the sinister Lord Crawthorne who appears to be encouraging him to new excesses To her horror Celesta finds that her brother has lost their delightful home The Priory at the gaming tables And that their estate including the Garden Cottage that they have made their home are now owned by the mysterious Earl of Meltham When she meets the new owner it is not in the best of circumstances He comes upon her in the estate peach house where she is picking the fruit Sardonicly accusing her of stealing the handsome but cynical Nobleman forcefully takes her in his arms and kisses her Celesta has never before been kissed and she hates the Earl for his arrogance But when Sir Giles ends up in the debtors prison the Earl saves the day in more ways than one and she starts to see him in a whole new light Will this light of love finally bring Celesta out of the shadow of her mother s sin The Indian Calendar Robert Sewell, Śaṅkara Bālakṛṣṇa Dīkṣita, 1896 The American Architect and Building News ,1889 The crown of Christ, spiritual readings for the liturgical year Reginald Ernest Hutton, 1900 A Doorway Into Thanks Tim Vivian, 2023-04-07 Poetry should be transitive and deal with something other Thus a doorway offers transition liminal space an invitation a going across into possibly numerous somethings other We can t assume however that the door is always open if closed we need to open it A doorway can confront us Have we the courage to reach for the handle Given the horrors of 2020 and 2021 we must open the door both to grieving and thanksgiving The poems here are midrashim Midrash is a reflection on scripture These poems first imagine passages and stories from the Bible and then reimagine them they build stages create and breathe life into characters and landscape biblical passages with new often challenging backgrounds Many of the poems here have religio political subtexts The poems speak of darkness the things that darken our country and our hearts but they also speak of the life giving lights of mystery wonder and thanksgiving the things that give us hope As writer and poet Louise Erdrich tells us This is how our lives complete themselves as effortless as weather circles blaze in ordinary days and through our waking selves they reach to touch our true and sleeping speech English Mechanic and Mirror of Science and Art ,1893 The Encyclopædia Britannica ,1905
