MY AUTOBIOGRAPHY

I am Alea Mae D. Benitez, I was born on May 7, 2000 in Pasay City, Philippines. We are two siblings in the family, I am the second child. My mother's name is Divina D. Benitez from Sorsogon, Bicol. My father's name is Nelson D. Benitez. And he is from Camarines Sur, Bicol.

During weekends, we usually spend our days in the family. We always go to church. We helped each other in our activities. My family was a happy and loving family. I had a happy childhood living with my parents and my siblings. I completed my elementary education at Don Carlos Velez Elementary School. During my junior high school, I completed my junior high school at President Corazon Aquino National High School and I usually spend my time with my friends. Since the lockdown, I have a daily routine with my friend for a Google meet until dawn, and we do various things when we do, such as talk about what is going on in our lives and watch movies that have been shown several times. We have been watched pitch perfect all seasons. I finished it several times. When I am not with them, I watch shows like Mr. Queen and Ghost Doctor. And I am a senior at Pasay City South High School, I will do everything I can to get into a good university where I can go to college.

Stirring of Soul in the Workplace Alan Briskin, 1998-12-28 This deeply lyrical book offers perspective for those struggling to hear the quiet voice of the soul over the din of the contemporary workplace Alan Briskin shows how the modern organization has gradually increased its demands on us beginning with our bodies then our minds and now our souls But through the moving personal stories of people fighting to reclaim their souls he also sends a message that encourages individuals to keep their spiritual integrity and values alive In The Stirring of Soul In the Workplace Briskin weaves together lessons from history psychology and management theory with numerous real life examples to tell the story of how the modern workplace has evolved to value technology and productivity over soulfulness and relationship From the Industrial Revolution's marriage of mechanization and efficiency to the management theories of the early 20th century Briskin traces the emergence of the quest for efficiency and control in the workplace He questions the corporate concept of individual personality that asks us to check our emotions fantasies imaginations and souls at the door He describes the history of the soul as a dynamic force that continues to influence our behavior and shows how excluding it from our work life actually flattens our potential and dampens our creativity Rather than solve the conventional question organizations have been asking for years how can we change people Alan Briskin examines how organizations can better reflect personal and human values in the workplace For organizations that too often have sacrificed the well being of the individual for the goals of the organization the author suggests a more active way of taking up our work roles that can bring more of our experience and imagination into play He points out that meaning cannot come from corporate mission statements or reengineering programs Instead it needs to be nurtured through dialogue and reflection the courage to ask troubling questions and a willingness to face the consequences of our collective and individual actions When we learn to honor the contradictions uncertainties and interconnections inherent in the workplace the energies of the soul will begin to stir with revitalizing results
