Shadows Of Africa:

Africa's Shadow Rise Pádraig Carmody, Peter Kragelund, Ricardo Reboledo, 2020-09-17 For years economists have spoken of Africa rising and despite the global financial crisis Africa continues to host some of the fastest growing economies in the world Africa's Shadow Rise however argues that the continent's apparent economic rise is essentially a mirage driven by developments elsewhere most particularly the expansion in China's economy While many African countries have experienced high rates of growth much of this growth may prove to be unsustainable and has contributed to environmental destruction and worsening inequality across the continent Similarly new economic relationships have produced new forms of dependency as African nations increasingly find themselves tied to the fortunes of China and other emerging powers Drawing on in depth fieldwork in southern Africa Africa's Shadow Rise reveals how the shifting balance of global power is transforming Africa's economy and politics and what this means for the future of development efforts in the region

Shortlisted for the Business Council for Africa's African Business Book of the Year 2023 The Modern African State Godfrey Mwakikagile, 2001 This book examines the modern African State as a fragile institution because of its structural flaws It focuses on a number of African countries whose combined analyses provide a focal point for looking at the whole continent as one giant place with crumbling state institutions whose fragility threatens the very existence of several African countries Even in rich African countries peace and stability is threatened and rampant corruption and dictatorship Nothing better demonstrates the weakness and cruelty of the modern African State than its willingness to instigate tribal violence in a number of African countries and its inability to contain such hostilities in many others In an attempt to put such weakness in proper perspective the author focuses on analyses of case studies as the context for a better understanding of the modern African State as the most dominant institution on the African continent South Asia and Africa After Independence

Bernard Waites, 2012-01-17 Post colonial South Asia and Africa invite comparison along with their political boundaries they inherited from colonial regimes administrative languages a cluster of sovereign state institutions and modern economic nuclei When they became independent South Asian and African states were for all their diversity thrust into a common position in the international system and embarked on a common history as emergent non aligned developing nations This is the first book to offer a single volume comparative history of postcolonial South Asia and sub Saharan Africa in the first generation since independence South Asia and Africa After Independence draws together the political and economic history of these two regions assessing the colonial impact establishing breaks and continuities and highlighting their diversity and interplay Waites sets out a framework for analysing the first generation of post colonial history offering an interpretation of post colonialism as a historical phenomenon and provocatively challenging us to re think this term in relation to South Asian and African history This book is an important reference for the study of global world African and South Asian history

South Africa Pushed to the Limit Hein Marais, 2013-07-04 Since 1994 the democratic government in South Africa has worked hard at improving the lives of the black majority yet close to half the population lives in poverty jobs are scarce and the country is more unequal than ever For millions the colour of people s skin still decides their destiny In his wide ranging incisive and provocative analysis Hein Marais shows that although the legacies of apartheid and colonialism weigh heavy many of the strategic choices made since the early 1990s have compounded those handicaps Marais explains why those choices were made where they went awry and why South Africa s vaunted formations of the left old and new have failed to prevent or alter them From the real reasons behind President Jacob Zuma s rise and the purging of his predecessor Thabo Mbeki to a devastating critique of the country s continuing AIDS crisis its economic path and its approach to the rights and entitlements of citizens South Africa Pushed to the Limit presents a riveting benchmark analysis of the incomplete journey beyond apartheid The Palgrave Handbook of Islam in Africa Fallou Ngom, Mustapha H. Kurfi, Toyin Falola, 2020-09-26

This handbook generates new insights that enrich our understanding of the history of Islam in Africa and the diverse experiences and expressions of the faith on the continent The chapters in the volume cover key themes that reflect the preoccupations and realities of many African Muslims They provide readers access to a comprehensive treatment of the past and current traditions of Muslims in Africa offering insights on different forms of Islamization that have taken place in several regions local responses to Islamization Islam in colonial and post colonial Africa and the varied forms of Jihad movements that have occurred on the continent The handbook provides updated knowledge on various social cultural linguistic political artistic educational and intellectual aspects of the encounter between Islam and African societies reflected in the lived experiences of African Muslims and the corpus of African Islamic texts Neoliberalism and the State of Belonging in South Africa Derick A. Becker, 2020-02-17 This book explains the making of the South African state and thereby contributes to the development theory by analyzing the concept of the embedded neoliberal state The author offers a theoretical exploration of state formation as an inherently interconnected international and domestic social process as applied to the history and development of South Africa A genuine social science that eschews disciplinary boundaries this will appeal to a wide audience of scholars in the fields of political development political science African and development studies

China's Belt and Road Initiative in Africa R. Mireille Manga Edimo, Julien Rajaonson, 2025-05-19 This book provides insight into the economic partnerships between African governments and China offered by the Belt and Road Initiative It examines the Belt and Road Initiative from a macro and microeconomic perspective to present a detailed understanding of the transformation of African development policies since the initiative began Particular attention is given to the historical context behind the Belt and Road Initiative the financing of infrastructure and public services in Africa the spread of technology from China to Africa China s position within the global political order African energy markets and the development of special economic zones This book grounds analysis of the Belt and Road Initiative within specific policies and case studies from Africa It will be relevant to students researchers and practitioners interested in development economics and the political economy Governance and the Crisis of Rule in Contemporary Africa Ebenezer Obadare, Wale Adebani, 2016-02-09 This volume advances the discussions of leadership in Africa's specific history, culture, economy and politics. The book promotes an understanding of leadership and its paradoxes and illuminates the conditions under which political leadership has been produced and how those conditions have shaped leaders Africa and the World's Peace Sterling M. Means, 1925 Scrambling for Africa Johanna Tayloe Crane, 2013-09-15 Countries in sub-Saharan Africa were once dismissed by Western experts as being too poor and chaotic to benefit from the antiretroviral drugs that transformed the AIDS epidemic in the United States and Europe. Today, however, the region is courted by some of the most prestigious research universities in the world as they search for resource-poor hospitals in which to base their international HIV research and global health programs. In Scrambling for Africa, Johanna Tayloe Crane reveals how in the space of merely a decade, Africa went from being a continent largely excluded from advancements in HIV medicine to an area of central concern and knowledge production within the increasingly popular field of global health science. Drawing on research conducted in the U.S. and Uganda during the mid-2000s, Crane provides a fascinating ethnographic account of the transnational flow of knowledge, politics and research money, as well as blood samples, viruses and drugs. She takes readers to underfunded Ugandan HIV clinics as well as to laboratories and conference rooms in wealthy American cities like San Francisco and Seattle, where American and Ugandan experts struggle to forge shared knowledge about the AIDS epidemic. The resulting uncomfortable mix of preventable suffering, humanitarian sentiment and scientific ambition shows how global health research partnerships may paradoxically benefit from the very inequalities they aspire to redress. A work of outstanding interdisciplinary scholarship, Scrambling for Africa will be of interest to audiences in anthropology, science and technology studies, African studies and the medical humanities The State in Africa Tatah Mentan, 2010 Introduction Framing the problem of the state in Africa: Historical and theoretical context. The state in Africa in an era of capitalist globalization: a theoretical exploration. Slavery and capitalist globalization. Colonial globalization or the extension of European Westphalian state to Africa. Decolonizing imperial state in Africa, 1945-60 plus a change plus c'est la même chose. African developmentalist nationalist state. From welfare developmentalist to neo-liberal nation state in Africa. Neo-liberal assault on the state in Africa: roots of state weakness, failure and collapse. The state in Africa and civil society in historical perspective. Future of the state in Africa in an era of neoliberal globalization. An African state is possible: looking back in order to look ahead Hollywood's Africa after 1994 MaryEllen Higgins, 2012-11-01 Hollywood's Africa after 1994 investigates Hollywood's colonial film legacy in the post-apartheid era and contemplates what has changed in the West's representations of Africa. How do we read twenty-first century projections of human rights issues: child soldiers, genocide, the exploitation of the poor by multinational corporations, dictatorial rule, truth and reconciliation within the contexts of celebrity humanitarianism, new military humanitarianism and Western support for regime change in Africa and beyond. A number of films after 1994 such as Black

Hawk Down Hotel Rwanda Blood Diamond The Last King of Scotland The Constant Gardener Shake Hands with the Devil Tears of the Sun and District 9 construct explicit and implicit arguments about the effects of Western intervention in Africa Do the emphases on human rights in the films offer a poignant expression of our shared humanity Do they echo the colonial tropes of former civilizing missions Or do human rights violations operate as yet another mine of sensational images for Hollywood s spectacular storytelling The volume provides analyses by academics and activists in the fields of African studies English film and media studies international relations and sociology across continents This thoughtful and highly engaging book is a valuable resource for those who seek new and varied approaches to films about Africa Contributors Harry Garuba and Natasha Himmelman Margaret R Higonnet with Ethel R Higonnet Joyce B Ashuntantang Kenneth W Harrow Christopher Odhiambo Ricardo Guthrie Clifford T Manlove Earl Conteh Morgan Bennetta Jules Rosette J R Osborn and Lea Marie Ruiz Ade Christopher Garland Kimberly Nichele Brown Jane Bryce Iyunolu Osagie Dayna Oscherwitz

A Companion to the Anthropology of Africa Roy Richard Grinker, Stephen C. Lubkemann, Christopher B. Steiner, Euclides Gonçalves, 2019-02-06

An essential collection of scholarly essays on the anthropology of Africa offering a thorough introduction to the most important topics in this evolving and diverse field of study The study of the cultures of Africa has been central to the methodological and theoretical development of anthropology as a discipline since the late 19th century As the anthropology of Africa has emerged as a distinct field of study anthropologists working in this tradition have strived to build a disciplinary conversation that recognizes the diversity and complexity of modern and ancient African cultures while acknowledging the effects of historical anthropology on the present and future of the field of study A Companion to the Anthropology of Africa is a collection of insightful essays covering the key questions and subjects in the contemporary anthropology of Africa with a key focus on addressing the topics that define the contemporary discipline Written and edited by a team of leading cultural anthropologists it is an ideal introduction to the most important topics in the field both those that have consistently been a part of the critical dialogue and those that have emerged as the central questions of the discipline s future Beginning with essays on the enduring topics in the study of African cultures A Companion to the Anthropology of Africa provides a foundation in the contemporary critical approach to subjects of longstanding interest With these subjects as a groundwork later essays address decolonization the postcolonial experience and questions of modern identity and definition providing representation of the diverse thinking and scholarship in the modern anthropology of Africa

Violence in Rural South Africa, 1880-1963 Sean Redding, 2023-02-21

Violence was endemic to rural South African society from the late nineteenth century to the mid twentieth century But acts of violence were not inherent in African culture rather violence resulted from the ways in which Africans navigated the hazardous social and political landscape imposed by white rule Focusing on the Eastern Cape province Sean Redding investigates the rise of large scale lethal fights among men increasingly coercive abduction marriages violent acts resulting from domestic troubles and witchcraft accusations within families and communities and political violence against state policies and officials Many violent acts attempted to reestablish and reinforce a moral social and political order among Africans However what constituted a moral order changed as white governance became more intrusive land became scarcer and people reconstructed their notions of traditional culture State policies became obstacles around which Africans had to navigate by invoking the idea of tradition using the state's court system alleging the use of witchcraft or engaging in violent threats and acts Redding's use of multiple court cases and documents to discuss several types of violence provides a richer context for the scholarly conversation about the legitimization of violence in traditions family life and political protest

Africa's Media Image in the 21st Century Mel Bunce, Suzanne Franks, Chris Paterson, 2016-07-01 Africa's Media Image in the 21st Century is the first book in over twenty years to examine the international media's coverage of sub-Saharan Africa It brings together leading researchers and prominent journalists to explore representation of the continent and the production of that image especially by international news media The book highlights factors that have transformed the global media system changing whose perspectives are told and the forms of media that empower new voices Case studies consider questions such as how has new media changed whose views are represented Does Chinese or diaspora media offer alternative perspectives for viewing the continent How do foreign correspondents interact with their audiences in a social media age What is the contemporary role of charity groups and PR firms in shaping news content They also examine how recent high profile events and issues have been covered by the international media from the Ebola crisis and Boko Haram to debates surrounding the Africa Rising narrative and neo imperialism The book makes a substantial contribution by moving the academic discussion beyond the traditional critiques of journalistic stereotyping Afro pessimism and darkest Africa news coverage It explores the news outlets international power dynamics and technologies that shape and reshape the contemporary image of Africa and Africans in journalism and global culture

China's Resource Diplomacy in Africa M. Power, G. Mohan, M. Tan-Mullins, 2012-07-17 The book seeks to understand China's evolving political and economic role in Africa and assesses what impacts Chinese aid trade and investment have on the politics of specific African countries and the extent to which it excites geopolitical competition

Displacement Economies in Africa Amanda Hammar, 2014-05-08 Large scale displacement whether caused by war state related political or development projects different forms of political violence structural crisis or even natural disasters evokes many stereotyped assumptions about those forcibly displaced or emplaced At the same time there is a problematic lack of attention paid to the diversity of actors strategies and practices that reshape the world in the face and chronic aftermath of dramatic moments of violent dislocation In this highly original volume based on empirical case studies from across sub-Saharan Africa the authors reveal the paradoxical effects both intended and unexpected that displacement produces and that manifest themselves in displacement economies An important contribution to a topic of growing scholarly and policy interest

Images of Africa Julia Gallagher, 2015-05-01 Images of Africa challenges the widely held idea that Africans are powerless

in the creation of self image It explores the ways in which image creation is a process of negotiation entered into by a wide range of actors within and beyond the continent in presidents offices and party HQs in newsrooms and rural authorities in rebel militia bases and in artists and writers studies Its ten chapters written by scholars working across the continent and a range of disciplines develop innovative ways of thinking about how image is produced They ask who controls image how is it manipulated and what effects do the images created have for political leaders and citizens and for Africa s relationships with the wider world The answers to these questions provide a compelling and distinctive approach to Africa s positioning in the world establishing the dynamic relational and sometimes subversive nature of image

The Rise of the BRICS in Africa

Doctor Pdraig Carmody,2013-09-12 A little over a decade ago Africa was being spoken of in the media as the lost or hopeless continent Now it has some of the fastest growing economies in the world largely because of the impact of the BRICS Brazil Russia India China and South Africa In this first book to be written about the BRICS as a collective phenomenon Pdraig Carmody reveals how their engagements with Africa both individually and collectively are often contradictory generating new inequalities and potential for development Crucially Carmody shows how the geopolitics of the BRICS countries involvement in Africa is impacted by and impacts upon their international relations more generally and how the emergence of these economies has begun to alter the very nature of globalization which is no longer purely a Western led project This is a path breaking examination of Africa s changing role in the world

The Violence of Conservation in Africa

Ramutsindela, Maano,Matose, Frank,Mushonga, Tafadzwa,2022-01-11 Offering insights on violence in conservation this timely book demonstrates how and why the state in Africa pursues conservation objectives to the detriment of its citizens It focuses on how the dehumanization of black people and indigenous groups the insertion of global green agendas onto the continent a lack of resource sovereignty and neoliberal conservation account for why violence is a permanent feature of conservation in Africa
