Art in Literature, Literature in Art in 19th Century France Emilie Sitzia, 2011-12-08 The traditional relationship between painting and literature underwent a profound change in nineteenth century France Painting progressively asserted its independence from literature as it liberated itself from narrative obligations whilst interrogating the concept of subject matter itself Simultaneously the influence of art on the writing styles of authors increased and the character of the artist established itself as a recurring motif in French literature This book offers a panoramic review of the relationship between art and literature in nineteenth century France By means of a series of case studies chosen from key moments throughout the nineteenth century the aim of this study is to provide a focused analysis of specific examples of this relationship revealing both its multifaceted nature as well as offering a panorama of the development of this on going and increasingly complex cultural relationship From Jacques Louis David's irreverence for classical texts to Victor Hugo's graphic works from Edouard Manet's illustrations to Vincent Van Gogh's paintings of books from Honoré de Balzac's Unknown Masterpiece to Joris Karl Huysmans's A Rebours this interdisciplinary investigation of the links between literature and art in France throws new light on both fields of creative endeavour during a critical phase of France's cultural history

The Mediated Mind Susan Zieger, 2018-06-05 How did we arrive at our contemporary consumer media economy Why are we now fixated on screens imbibing information that constantly expires and longing for more direct or authentic kinds of experience The Mediated Mind answers these questions by revisiting a previous media revolution the nineteenth century explosion of mass print Like our own smartphone screens printed paper and imprinted objects touched the most intimate regions of nineteenth century life The rise of this printed ephemera and its new information economy generated modern consumer experiences such as voracious collecting and curating fantasies of disembodied mental travel and information addiction Susan Zieger demonstrates how the nineteenth century established affective psychological social and cultural habits of media consumption that we still experience even as pixels supersede paper Revealing the history of our own moment The Mediated Mind challenges the commonplace assumption that our own new media lack a past or that our own experiences are unprecedented

Representational Strategies in Les Misérables and Selected Drawings by Victor Hugo James M. Phillips, 1999 This book considers the interplay between art and literature by comparing representation techniques in passages from Les Misérables with artistic techniques in selected drawings by Victor Hugo In both his artistic and literary production Hugo uses a composite representational strategy that blends verbal and visual elements attempting to break free of textual and pictorial media constraints His dual interest in text and image foreshadows contemporary expressive production which now dominates communication The Films of Eric Rohmer L. Anderst, 2014-03-13 Eric Rohmer was a key figure in French New Wave cinema Contributors to this volume revisit complicate and upend accepted readings and interpretations of perennial Rohmerian topics including the important role of language in his films the influence of the arts depictions of gender and class and the roles played by space and place in his films Painting and the Turn to Cultural Modernity in Spain Andrew Ginger, 2007 Cultural modernity has habitually been defined as a focus on the means of representation themselves as opposed to art that imitates external reality or expresses its maker's inner life The crucial moment is usually considered the emergence of Edouard Manet in mid nineteenth century France and the features of French developments have been seen as defining terms in the theory of modernity However recent art and cultural history have often spoken of plural modernities distinct from the pattern set in France For the first time this study in cultural history explores how Spanish culture took a radical turn toward the medium of representation itself in the 1850s and early 1860s It argues that this happened in a way that is critically at odds with many fundamental theoretical suppositions about modernity

Courbet's Landscapes Paul Galvez,2022-01-01 A groundbreaking insight into Gustave Courbet and his bold experiments in landscape painting Between 1862 and 1866 Gustave Courbet embarked on a series of sensuous landscape paintings that would later inspire the likes of Monet Pissarro and C zanne This series has long been neglected in favor of Courbet s paintings of rural French life Courbet s Landscapes The Origins of Modern Painting explores these astonishing paintings staking a claim for their importance to Courbet s work and later developments in French modernism Ranging from the grottoes of Courbet s native Franche Comt to the beaches of Normandy Paul Galvez follows the artist on his travels as he uses a palette knife to transform the Romantic landscape of voyage into a direct visceral confrontation with the material world The Courbet he discovers is not the celebrated history painter of provincial life but a committed landscapist whose view of nature aligns him with contemporary developments in geology history linguistics and literature Paris in Ruins Sebastian Smee,2024-10-17 Pulitzer winner Sebastian Smee relives the remarkable birth of Impressionism from the ashes of war Enjoyable a fine portrait not only of impressionism but the society that made it possible THE SUNDAY TIMES Paris January 1871 the final agonising days of the Franco Prussian War As the German army cements its advantage shells rattle through the Left Bank It is a bitterly cold winter there is no fuel no medicine no food The city s poorer citizens have long turned to eating rats cats and dogs France has been brought to its knees douard Manet Berthe Morisot and Edgar Degas are trapped in the besieged city Renoir and Bazille have joined regiments outside of Paris while Monet and Pissarro fled the country just in time Out of the Siege and the Commune these artists developed a newfound sense of the fragility of life A feeling for transience reflected in Impressionism s emphasis on fugitive light shifting seasons glimpsed street scenes and the impermanence of all things would change art history forever This is the extraordinary account of the Terrible Year in Paris and its monumental impact on the rise of Impressionism Vigorous and enjoyable DAILY TELEGRAPH Smee has a gimlet eye a seductive style and a novelist s feel for character and incident NEW YORK TIMES Detailed lively and at times richly novelistic LITERARY REVIEW Amateur Craft Stephen Knott, 2015-08-27 Amateur Craft provides an illuminating and historically grounded account of amateur craft in the modern era from 19th century Sunday painters and amateur carpenters to present day railway modellers and yarnbombers Stephen Knott's fascinating study explores the curious and unexpected attributes of things made outside standardised models of mass production arguing that amateur craft practice is differential a temporary moment of control over work that both departs from and informs our productive engagement with the world Knott's discussion of the theoretical aspects of amateur craft practice is substantiated by historical case studies that cluster around the period 1850 1950 Looking back to the emergence of the modern amateur he makes reference to contemporary art and design practice that harnesses or exploits amateur conditions of making From Andy Warhol to Simon Starling such artistic interest elucidates the mercurial qualities of amateur craft Invaluable for students and researchers in art and design contemporary craft material culture and social history Amateur Craft counters both the marginalisation and the glorification of amateur craft practice It is richly illustrated with 41 images 14 in colour including 19th century ephemera and works of contemporary art Zustände des Fließenden Andrea Haarer, 2022-11-22 Zwischen den 1830er und 1870er Jahren zeichnete kritzelte und kleckste der französische Schriftsteller Victor Hugo auf tausenden kleinformatigen Papieren So entstand eine Fülle von Bildern die in die Bildkultur dieser Zeit passen bis auf eine Handvoll Ausnahmen Vier Bilder fallen heraus Sie lassen sich wegen ihrer rudimentären oder sogar unmöglichen Identifizierbarkeit von Motiven wegen ihrer komplexen Gemachtheit und wegen ihrer ausschließlich fluiden Faktur weder durch Hugos eigene noch durch andere gängige Bilder des 19 Jahrhunderts kontextualisieren und interpretieren Ganz anders als die bisherige Forschung nimmt dieses Buch die Bilder nicht schon wie Abstraktionen des 20 Jahrhunderts wahr Vielmehr werden die Bilder als historisch und kulturell spezifische Artefakte untersucht Folgt man Hugos Machen der fluiden Formationen seinen malwssrigen mal viskosen Tintenmischungen und seinen Handgriffen des Fließens lassen sich seine künstlerischen Inspirationsquellen sichtbar Als Hugo diese Bilder machte lebte er am Meer las zum Meer und schrieb zum Meer Seine Lektüren und Berlegungen zu den Entstehungsprozessen im Meer inspirierten ihn diese Bilder zu machen vom Zustandekommen von Wesen Gestein und Lumineszenz aus Meerwasser bis zum Zustandekommen von Bildern aus Tinte Dabei lassen sich die Bilder nie als Illustrationen von Texten lesen Sie bewahren immer einen nur ihnen eigenen Sinn Hugos Bildermachen erscheint somit als eine vom Schreiben eigenständige Praxis der Andrea Haarer auf den Grund geht Wozu fertigte Hugo diese Bilder an Zu welchen Erkenntnissen konnte er nicht im Schreiben kommen sondern nur im Machen dieser Bilder Was für ein Zusammenhang von Bild und Meer oder Kunst und Natur wird in künstlerischen Prozessen erprobt und in Bildern manifest die nichts darstellend aufnehmen Was sagt das über Kunst im 19 Jahrhundert aus Each Wild Idea Geoffrey Batchen, 2002-02-22 Essays on photography and the medium's history and evolving identity In Each Wild Idea Geoffrey Batchen explores a wide range of photographic subjects from the timing of the medium's invention to the various implications of cyberculture Along the way he reflects on contemporary art photography the role of the vernacular in photography's history and the Australianness of Australian photography The essays all focus on a consideration of specific photographs from a humble combination of baby photos and bronzed booties to a masterwork by Alfred Stieglitz Although Batchen views each photograph within the context of broader social and political forces he also engages its own distinctive formal attributes In short he sees photography as something that is simultaneously material and cultural In an effort to evoke the lived experience of history he frequently relies on sheer description as the mode of analysis insisting that we look right at rather than beyond the photograph being discussed A constant theme throughout the book is the question of photography's past present and future identity
