Cities Made Differently David Graeber, Nika Dubrovsky, 2024-11-26 Full of playful graphics provocative questions and curious facts this book asks what makes a city and how we might make them differently What makes a city a city Who says Drafted over decades out of a dialogue between artist and author Nika Dubrovsky the late anthropologist David Graeber and Nika's then four year old son this delightful and provocative book Cities Made Differently opens a space for invention and collaboration Fusing anthropology literature play and drawing the book is essentially a visual essay that asks us to reconsider our ideas about cities and the people who inhabit them Drawing us into a world of history and myth science and imagination Graeber and Dubrovsky invite us to rethink the worlds we inhabit because we can and nothing is too strange or too wonderful to be true With inspired pictures and prompts Cities Made Differently asks what a city is or could be or once was Sleeping at the bottom of the ocean Buried in lava What were those cities of long ago and what will the cities of the future be They might be virtual ruled by AI or islands of beautiful architecture afloat in seas of greenery They might be utopian places of refuge or refugee camps as far as the eye can see On land underground or aloft excavated or imagined cities this book tells us in provocative and funny ways can be anything we want them to be and what we want them to be can tell us something about who we are what it is to be human and what's possible when we make way for wonder Cities Made Differently exists in two versions one for reading and thinking the other downloadable at a4kids.org for drawing and dreaming

ATONUS L PERRY has always been fascinated with tales of fantasy and wonder Being the son of a librarian he spent many of his weekends and summers reading books The only thing he loved more than reading was indulging in creative writing As he matured he began to take an interest in Japanese animation comic books and role playing video games After immersing himself in the media storylines he loved so much he discovered that there was not enough action in most of the stories he loved So he vowed to one day write a story that was not lacking in action One day after an assignment in one of his college English classes called for an outline of an epic adventure he made good on that vow and began writing stories that deliver page turning action He writes for the people who feel dissatisfied with the stories they love so much Atonus L Perry lives in Shreveport Louisiana with his son Isaiah Alexander Perry
