Digital Culture & Society (DCS) Anna Näslund, Ramón Reichert, 2025-02-27 Since the full scale Russian attack on Ukraine on February 24 2022 warfare on social media and online platforms has introduced a new way of mediatizing war A constant war related newsfeed on social media and online platforms has emerged Against this background the war in Ukraine represents a fractal war where you choose to subscribe to your own tailored version of warfare in your feed This makes it the most personalized war in history Andrew Hoskins This special issue investigates smartphone use online media platform politics and the impact of the crowdsourced war New forms of digital participation collective witnessing and web archiving by media users and media providers are linked with new methodological and empirical challenges for source analysis of digital forensics jurisdiction and collective memory The contributors analyze digital society and its relationship to war violence genocide witnessing practices and cultural appropriation in a critical and reflective manner Boris

Mikhailov Boris Michailov, 2004 Rarely has anyone photographed reality in such an unprettified way as Boris Mikhailov He captures the unadorned and the natural in pictures devoid of aesthetic exhaltation he concentrates on people and their living conditions On his journeys through Russia Germany and his Ukrainian homeland Mikhailov has equally observed the poor the well to do the outcasts and the homeless Look at Me I Look at Water was composed in 1999 at the suggestion of the Heiner Mller Society when Boris Mikhailov s name was found in one of Heiner Mller s notebooks With this book Mikhailov is continuing thematically and conceptionally what he began with his artist s book Unfinished Dissertation in 1985 The photographs are accompanied by handwritten Russian commentaries which together give the impression of a private album which narrates stories from a chapter in the artist s life Camerawork ,2003 Image Makers, Image Takers

Anne-Celine Jaeger, 2007 This essential guide draws on in depth interviews with established photographers from the fields of fashion art portraiture documentary photography and advertising as well as comments from picture editors curators agency directors and publishers who reveal what they look for when choosing an image The book first focuses on photographers working practices What made the photographer start taking pictures How did he or she develop a signature style What is the process involved in going from concept to shoot How important is postproduction Then the book turns to selection How does a picture editor decide which photographer to commission for the next fashion spread What kind of photograph is worthy of being hung in a gallery What advice would an art book publisher give a budding photographer Whether it is the question of what to look for in an image views on cropping or the pros and cons of color versus black and white the shapers of taste give acute and useful accounts of their methods This updated edition includes five new interviews Pascal Danguin who pioneered a revolutionary digital scanning technique Fabrice Dall Anese a celebrated French portrait photographer for Vanity Fair GQ Elle and others J rg Colberg creator of the photography blog Conscientious Jihad Nga a self taught photographer whose focus has recently shifted from photojournalism to fine art photography and Tim Barber who launched tinyvices com in 2005
