Woman and the Infinite Violla Hartfield-Méndez,1996 Woman and the Infinite demonstrates how Pedro Salinas's poetry and frequently overlooked narrative and theater reveal a preoccupation with the nature of time especially extraordinary moments that transcend space and time Many of these moments are intimately connected with the man woman yo tu relationship Salinas's exploration of this theme is best understood in the context of other modern literary evocations of epiphanic moments Such literary phenomena as William Wordsworth's spots of time and James Joyce's epiphanies are among the precursors of Salinas's moments of eternity as are moments of timelessness in works by Marcel Proust and the French Symbolist poets Salinas's reception of the Symbolists was direct but also refracted through his reading of the Latin American modernistas especially Ruben Dario In his well known commentary on Dario Salinas connects the perception of woman with a visionary moment of extraordinary lucidity a connection found in his own works Woman is elusive for Salinas She has a multiplicity of forms and varying identities that are expressed with mirrors and shadows or Classical and Biblical mythological archetypes All of these are found in Aurora de verdad from Vispera del gozo a narrative piece which can be read as representative of Salinas's work as a whole Specific images in the story including mirrored figures and references to mythological goddesses are also key elements in a trajectory in Salinas's works in general toward an all encompassing absolute and infinite moment

Sol-Edades Marco Antonio Domínguez,2010-04-30 Sol edad es una antología poética cuyo lirismo nos invita a reflexionar sobre la existencia el amor las presiones sociales los efectos de la tecnología el comportamiento humano ante la crisis económica la pérdida el deterioro del medioambiente la deshumanización del hombre la violencia la discriminación el estrés y la pérdida de valores Sol Edad es un retorno a las raíces del mexicano revela experiencias sobre el chicanismo e intenta rescatar el idioma español las tradiciones mexicanas y la cultura hispana The Double Strand Frank Dauster,2014-07-15 Two strands one indigenous the other imposed produce the poetic and cultural tensions that give form to the work of five contemporary Mexican poets All Chumacero Efrain Huerta Jaime Sabines Ruben Bonifaz Nuno and Rosario Castellanos Although all five are significant figures only Castellanos has yet been widely studied in the United States primarily for her novels and her relations with the feminist movement In spite of a number of rather basic differences in their work these poets share and write within a complicated culture rooted in both the pre Hispanic and the European traditions Their poetry reflects this in its emphasis on death as a constant presence and in the echoes of both Aztec ritual poetry and European poetry Although apparently very different formally and thematically the five share a number of concerns Each of them writes out of a contradictory inner tension each is preoccupied with the effort to shape language as part of a personal voyage of discovery each is haunted by death and seeks realization or plenitude through love of some kind And each of them ultimately finds there is no escape As Frank Dauster concludes The poetry of Mexico like its people and its society reflects the fusion of two worlds and these complex poets of the double strand operate freely and imaginatively within it Although addressed primarily to specialists in Latin American literature The Double Strand also speaks to those interested in the complex interaction between two widely differing cultural heritages and in the rich fusion this blending produces in Mexican letters
