Californian The Los Angeles House, 2005 Arranged chronologically this stylish and elegant book presents the cream of Los Angeles's houses from all periods and styles from Frank Lloyd Wright to Frank Gehry and from Delores del Rio to Madonna Lucid text provides an intelligent explanation of the houses presented From the author of Freestyle 376 color photos National ads media California Modern Neil Jackson, 2002 In the 1950s a series of dramatic open and elegant homes made him a media star and interest in the work of his atelier has only increased over time Directory of Halfway Houses for the Mentally Ill and Alcoholics National Institute of Mental Health (U.S.), 1973 Daydream Houses of Los Angeles Charles Jencks, 1978 Tremaine Houses Volker M. Welter, 2019-11-19 This volume analyzes the extraordinary patronage of modern architecture that the Tremaine family sustained for nearly four decades in the mid twentieth century From the late 1930s to the early 1970s two brothers Burton G Tremaine and Warren D Tremaine and their respective wives Emily Hall Tremaine and Katharine Williams Tremaine commissioned approximately thirty architecture and design projects Richard Neutra and Oscar Niemeyer designed the best known Tremaine houses Philip Johnson and Frank Lloyd Wright also created designs and buildings for the family that achieved iconic status in the modern movement Focusing on the Tremaines houses and other projects such as a visitor center at the meteor crater in Arizona this volume explores the Tremaines architectural patronage in terms of the family's motivations and values exposing patterns in what may appear as an eclectic collection of modern architecture Architectural historian Volker M Welter argues that the Tremaines patronage was not driven by any single factor rather it stemmed from a network of motives comprising the clients practical requirements their private and public lives and their ideas about architecture and art Study and Investigation of Housing United States. Congress. Joint Committee on Housing, 1948 Housing and Urban Development Legislation--1971 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Banking and Currency. Subcommittee on Housing, 1971 Swatt | Miers The Images Publishing Group, Swatt | Miers Architects, 2017-03-01 This new monograph of the work of Bay Area based internationally acclaimed Swatt Miers Architects features 30 exciting new projects including 20 new homes covering the prolific decade between 2006 and 2016 This 10 year period has seen the work of Swatt Miers expand into different regions of California including the Central Valley the Northern California wine country and Los Angeles different states including Hawaii and Colorado and other regions of the world including Canada India and Spain Designed from the inside out the constant threads that pervade the work include strong relationships of architecture to land open planning for informal living and dissolving the boundary between inside and outside all designed to be as beautiful to live in as to behold This volume showcases this firm's award winning projects and recent accomplishments in glorious full color and is replete with insightful and engaging commentary across the monograph's extraordinary collection of international works Generation Priced Out Randy Shaw, 2020-04-07 Generation Priced Out is a call to action on one of the most talked about issues of our time how skyrocketing rents and home values are pricing the working and middle classes out of urban America Randy Shaw tells the powerful stories of tenants politicians homeowner groups developers and activists in over a dozen cities impacted by the national housing crisis From San Francisco to New York Seattle to Denver and Los Angeles to Austin Generation Priced Out challenges progressive cities to reverse rising economic and racial inequality Shaw exposes how boomer homeowners restrict millennials access to housing in big cities a generational divide that increasingly dominates city politics Shaw also demonstrates that neighborhood gentrification is not inevitable and presents proven measures for cities to preserve and expand their working and middle class populations and achieve more equitable and inclusive outcomes Generation Priced Out is a must read for anyone concerned about the future of urban America Housing Betterment ,1912 Richard Neutra and the Making of the Lovell Health House, 1925-35 Edward Dimendberg,2025-09-02 This absorbing volume reveals the impact of the Lovell Health House from its inspiration through its construction to its impact This book tells the story of the Lovell Health House designed and built by Austrian American architect Richard Neutra 1892 1970 Perched on a steep hillside with panoramic views of Los Angeles the home pioneered the use of concrete and steel radically advanced the ideals of hygienic carefree and open air living and explored new relationships between space structure the natural world and physical and psychological well being It was widely documented and written about in leading architectural journals when it was erected and these publications elevated the house to the status of an icon in the history of modernism and an essential work of the international modern movement It also helped to launch the global career of one of the central figures of twentieth century architecture The book is framed with an introduction by Edward Dimendberg and includes new texts by Crosby Doe and Thomas Hines At the heart of this project are six portfolios on the background design making circulation reception and resonance of this seminal residence by curator and archivist Nicholas Olsberg Featuring historical photography by Willard Morgan and contemporary photography by Grant Mumford this volume will help bring Neutra s masterpiece to an entirely new audience

Outside In Jocelyn Gibbs,Debi Howell-Ardila,Anthony Denzer,Lilian Pfaff,Alan Hess,2015-03-01 From 1946 to 1973 Whitney Rowland Smith and his partner Wayne Williams designed more than 800 projects from residential commercial and public buildings to housing tracts multi use complexes and parks and master plans for cities Working in the wake of the first generation of avant garde architects in Southern California and riding the postwar building boom their firm Smith and Williams developed a pragmatic modernism that through remarkable planning and design integrated landscapes with buildings and decisively shaped the modern vocabulary of architecture in Los Angeles Through a breathtaking array of images Outside In unveils the core of Smith and Williams s architectural practice Their most influential designs the authors show are compositions of balanced opposites shelter and openness private and public restraint and exuberance light and shadow Smith and Williams created spaciousness in their buildings by layering spaces and manipulating the relationship between structure and landscape This spaciousness expressed modern ideas about the relationship of architecture to environment of building to site and ultimately of outside to in Exiled in L. A. Volker M. Welter,2025-11-18 The first

English language volume to explore the work of architect Leopold Fischer and the inaugural study of his California legacy In 1936 Leopold Fischer 1901 1975 in exile from Nazi Germany arrived in California where he created a small but distinct oeuvre of mostly domestic architecture In contrast to his famous peers Rudolph Schindler and Richard Neutra immigrants whose Southern California buildings are frequently examined and who like Fischer studied with the modernist architect Adolf Loos Fischer and his California structures have until now escaped the attention of architectural history Exiled in L A examines Fischer s important yet overlooked contributions to Southern California architecture As the whereabouts of Fischer s archives remain unknown Volker M Welter grounds the designer s California works in comparison with his pre exile projects and the compositions of fellow architects in California In the 1920s Fischer created experimental working class housing estates in Germany that pioneered ecological construction and living practices Comparable to their predecessors Fischer s California buildings revolve around the functioning the organization of a home as he defined domestic architecture in 1926 Featuring new photography and detailed architectural plans this book is an original contribution to the literature on Southern California s built heritage
