Annual Report* National Endowment for the Humanities, City Halls and Civic Materialism Swati Chattopadhyay, Jeremy White, 2014-03-14 The town hall or city hall as a place of local governance is historically related to the founding of cities in medieval Europe As the space of representative civic authority it aimed to set the terms of public space and engagement with the citizenry In subsequent centuries as the idea and built form travelled beyond Europe to become an established institution across the globe the parameters of civic representation changed and the town hall was forced to negotiate new notions of urbanism and public space City Halls and Civic Materialism Towards a Global History of Urban Public Space utilizes the town hall in its global historical incarnations as bases to probe these changing ideas of urban public space The essays in this volume provide an analysis of the architecture iconography and spatial relations that constitute the town hall to explore its historical ability to accommodate the public in different political and social contexts in Europe Asia Australia Africa and the Americas as the relation between citizens and civic authority had to be revisited with the universal franchise under fascism after the devastation of the world wars decolonization and most recently with the neo liberal restructuring of cities As a global phenomenon the town hall challenges the idea that nationalism imperialism democracy the idea of citizenship concepts that frame the relation between the individual and the body politic travel the globe in modular forms or in predictable trajectories from the West to East North to South Collectively the essays argue that if the town hall has historically been connected with the articulation of bourgeois civil society then the town hall as a global spatial type architectural space urban monument and space of governance holds a mirror to the promise and limits of civil society We the People ,1992 We the People Commission on the Bicentennial of the United States Constitution,1992 Describes and illustrates commemorations across the country of the bicentennial of the United States Constitution National Calendar of Bicentennial Events American Revolution Bicentennial Administration,1975 Postage Stamp Catalogue of the Republic of China, 1878-1996 Shuchen Lan,1996 Los Angeles--commemorating 200 Years Brian Berger,1980 Encyclopedia of Latino Culture Charles M.
