

The book cover features a sepia-toned photograph of a desert landscape. In the background, a hillside is visible with the word 'HOLLYWOOD' partially visible in large letters. The foreground shows a sandy, arid area with three people: one sitting on the ground on the left, and two others standing or kneeling in the lower center. The overall tone is historical and evocative.

Lost in Transition Yiu-Wai Chu, 2013-05-13 In this timely and insightful book Yiu Wai Chu takes stock of Hong Kong's culture since its transition to a Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China in 1997 Hong Kong had long functioned as the capitalist and democratic stepping stone to China for much of the world Its highly original popular culture was well known in Chinese communities and its renowned film industry enjoyed worldwide audiences and far-reaching artistic influence Chu argues that Hong Kong's culture was lost in transition when it tried to affirm its international visibility and retain the status quo after 1997 In an era when China welcomed outsiders and became the world's most rapidly developing economy Hong Kong's special position as a capitalist outpost was no longer a privilege By drawing on various cultural discourses such as film popular music and politics of everyday life Chu provides an informative and critical analysis of the impact of China's ascendancy on the notion of One Country Two Cultures Hong Kong can no longer function as a bridge between China and the world writes Chu and must now define itself from global local and national perspectives Lost in Chaos Tate Connors, 2015-08-10 Loosely based and exaggerated on my move from NYC to Los Angeles My first 6 months in LA and my first trip back to NYC It is about trading a way of life for another After changing to your New Life it is very difficult to go back to your Old Life without further bumps in life It is about learning how different NYC is from LA and how to adapt in each while pursuing your dreams Lost in Space Greg Klerkx, 2005-01-11 The daring revolutionary NASA that sent Neil Armstrong to the moon has lost its meteoric vision says journalist and space enthusiast Greg Klerkx NASA he contends has devolved from a pioneer of space exploration into a factionalized bureaucracy focused primarily on its own survival And as a result humans haven't ventured beyond Earth orbit for three decades Klerkx argues that after its wildly successful Apollo program NASA clung fiercely to the spotlight by creating a government sheltered monopoly with a few Big Aerospace companies Although committed in theory to supporting commercial spaceflight in practice it smothered vital private sector innovation In striking descriptions of space milestones spanning the golden 1960s Space Age and the 2003 Columbia tragedy Klerkx exposes the real NASA and envisions exciting public private cooperation that could send humans back to the moon and beyond Lost in the Fifties, Wheeler Dixon examines the lost films and directors of the 1950s Contrasting traditional themes of love marriage and family the author's 1950s film world unveils once taboo issues and television shows such as Captain Midnight are juxtaposed with the cheerful world of I Love Lucy Czechs Won't Get Lost in the World, Let Alone in America Miloslav Rechcigl Jr., 2018-05-02 This book features a panorama of the lives of selected personalities whose roots had origin in the Czech lands and who in the US reached extraordinary success and who with their activities substantially influenced the growth and development of their new homeland It is a saga of plain as well as powerful people whose influence and importance often exceeded the borders of the US A great portion of included individuals may be unknown to readers since it concerns persons whose Czech origin was usually not known The book covers the total period from the times of the discovery of New World to the end of the twentieth century During the selection little concern was given to nationalistic or ethnographic criteria the only prerequisite was that the respected individuals were either born on the territory of the Czech lands or were descendants of emigrants from the Czech lands The image on the front cover is a portrait of Augustine Herman Lord of Bohemia Manor the first documented Czech immigrant in the United States The portrait comes from his famous Map of Maryland and Virginia dated 1670 The colorful story of his life would be unbelievable if made into a movie Pioneer merchant explorer surveyor map maker patriot rebel diplomat and finally Lord Read more about him in the book Our Navy, the Standard Publication of the U.S. Navy
