Please note: these notes are an amalgamation of various textbooks and websites. I have included a List of References at the end of the document. Some of the sources have been used verbatim and some paraphrased to suit the style of these notes. All poems are reproduced as they appear in "Imagined Worlds" (An Anthology of Poetry) by C. McIntyre, S-J Olivier and E. Varga. Feel free to amend and use these notes as you see fit.

I have added sets of questions which appeared in 2023 and 2024 examinations (from various provinces and the National paper) after most question sets. These can be used as consolidation AFTER the general questions are answered.

Damske, 2014-07-15 Death a perennial problem for philosophers and theologians is especially crucial in the thought of Martin Heidegger This penetrating commentary presents the concept of death as a unifying motif that illuminates many of the difficulties and obscurities of Heidegger's philosophy Heidegger comes to see death as revealing the ultimate meaning not only of human existence but of being itself He thus confers upon the concept a force and sharpness an ontological depth which is found in perhaps no other philosopher This study corroborates the much debated turning in Heidegger's philosophy Damske finds death to be the key not only to Heidegger's treatment of man and being but also the key to his shift of focus from man to being All Heidegger's various approaches to the theme of death are considered his existential phenomenological analysis of Dasein his discussions of art poetry history and language and his new phenomenological approach to the ordinary things of life The author approaches Heidegger on his own terms allowing the philosopher to speak for himself The present reading of Heidegger grows smoothly out of Heidegger's own intentions The result is a revealing study of Heidegger's philosophy in its entirety which answers some persistently perplexing questions about this difficult modern philosopher The Complete Poetical Works of William Wordsworth William Wordsworth, 1837 Literary Theories in Praxis Shirley F. Staton, 1987 Literary Theories in Praxis analyzes the ways in which critical theories are transformed into literary criticism and methodology To demonstrate the application of this analysis critical writings of Roland Barthes Harold Bloom Cleanth Brooks Jacques Derrida Northrop Frye Norman Holland Barbara Johnson Jacques Lacan Adrienne Rich and Robert Scholes are examined in terms of the primary critical stance each author employs New Critical phenomenological archetypal structuralist semiotic sociological psychoanalytic reader response deconstructionist or humanist The book is divided into nine sections each with a prefatory essay explaining the critical stance taken in the selections that follow and describing how theory becomes literary criticism In a headnote to each selection Staton analyzes how the critic applies his or her critical methodology to the subject literary work Shirley F Staton s introduction sketches the overall philosophical positions and relationships among the various critical modes
