Warship International , 1981 Ships Monthly , 1985 The Maritime Blockade of Germany in the Great War John D. Grainger, 2020-11-26 The Tenth Cruiser Squadron of the Grand Fleet had the task of patrolling the seas between Scotland and Greenland to intercept enemy ships trying to escape into the ocean and merchant ships who could be carrying goods

destined for Germany This was a task of great political sensitivity since almost all the ships intercepted were neutrals and requiring great physical endurance from ships and men in the violent North Atlantic The Maritime Blockade of Germany in the Great War is a comprehensive collection of the records of the Northern Patrol It consists of regular reports of the admirals in command to which are added other relevant official records and more informal documents There are the chatty letters of Captain Vivian and HMS Patia the appalling experiences of young officers placed in barely seaworthy sailing ships to see that they went into port for examination the pathetic mutiny by a bored distressed and underpaid black gang the diary of Able Seaman Style demonstrating the tedium of the patrol and the self satisfied diary of Dr Shaw There are also the casualties ships overwhelmed by storms sunk by enemy action torpedoed The ships of the Patrol were perhaps the most constantly active Royal Navy vessels in the Great War a barely acknowledged yet vital component in the eventual Allied victory California Outlook, a Progressive Weekly ,1915 Men-of-war names, their meaning and origin Louis Alexander
