Man Of Words In The West Indies:

The Man-of-words in the West Indies Roger D. Abrahams, 1983 Contemporary Caribbean Women's Poetry Denise deCaires Narain, 2003-08-29 Contemporary Caribbean Women's Poetry provides detailed readings of individual poems by women poets whose work has not yet received the sustained critical attention it deserves These readings are contextualized both within Caribbean cultural debates and postcolonial and feminist critical discourses in a lively and engaged way revisiting nationalist debates as well as topical issues about the performance of gendered and raced identities within poetic discourse Newly available in paperback this book is groundbreaking reading for all those interested in postcolonialism Gender Studies Caribbean Studies and contemporary poetry Tap Dancing America Constance Valis Hill, 2014-11-12 Here is the vibrant colorful high stepping story of tap the first comprehensive fully documented history of a uniquely American art form Writing with all the verve and grace of tap itself Constance Valis Hill offers a sweeping narrative filling a major gap in American dance history and placing tap firmly center stage Decolonizing the Stage Christopher B. Balme, 1999 A study of post colonial drama and theatre It examines how dramatists from various societies have attempted to fuse the performance idioms of their traditions with the Western dramatic form demonstrating how the dynamics of syncretic theatrical texts function in performance True Words for Brave Men Charles Kingsley, 1886 Mulatto Outlaw Pilgrim Priest: The Legal Case of José Soller, Accused of Impersonating a Pastor and Other Crimes in Seventeenth-century Spain John K. Moore, Jr., 2020-03-17 In Mulatto Outlaw Pilgrim Priest John K Moore Jr presents the first in depth study critical edition and scholarly translation of His Majesty's Representative v Jos Soller Mulatto Pilgrim for Impersonating a Priest and Other Crimes This legal case dates to the waning days of the Hapsburg Spanish empire and illuminates the discrimination those of black African ancestry could face that Soller did face while attempting to pass freely on his pilgrimage from Lisbon to Santiago de Compostela and beyond This bilingual edition and study of the criminal trial against Soller is important for reconstructing his journey and for revealing at least in part the de facto and de jure treatment of mulattos in the early modern Iberian Atlantic World Sport, Racism And Ethnicity Grant Jarvie, 2003-09-02 First Published in 1991 Over the past decade there has been a notable growth of interest in the study of sport in the contexts of race and ethnicity A number of developments have contributed to stimulate this interest but three sets of considerations appear to have been of decisive importance First black sportsmen and sportswomen have experienced remarkable successes in international sport Second such a disproportionately high level of athletic participation by various ethnic minority cultures has often been used by liberal minded sports enthusiasts to presume that sport enjoys a certain degree of democratisation and equality Third that in certain areas of the world sport itself has been central to struggles of popular resistance against dominant groups The papers in this volume not only consider the racisms experienced by various ethnic minority sportsmen and sportswomen in Britain but also the way in which various racisms have been articulated in South Africa the Caribbean Canada and the United States

The following are indicative of the key issues addressed by this text the extent to which cricket has stimulated the role of nationalist and racial self consciousness in the Caribbean the extent to which young black Afro Caribbean sports people are agents of racialised social control in Britain the contribution of sport to popular struggles in South Africa the experience of young children of South Asian origin of sport in Britain and the extent to which Native American women are accommodated in sport in Canada This book sets out to challenge many of the voluntarist racist cherished beliefs surrounding sport
