Man Outside The Prose Works Of Wolfgang:

The Man Outside Wolfgang Borchert, 1971 Collection of short stories and a one act play The Man Outside Wolfgang Borchert, 1966 Time's Covenant William Clancy, 2010-11-23 Time's Covenant offers a collection of the sermons and essays of William Clancy one of the most vehement opponents of McCarthyism who was also an ardent civil libertarian and literate commentator on the changing times of the 1950s and 1960s The articles originally appeared in Commonweal dubbed the journal of liberal Catholics as well as the New York Times Saturday Review and Worldview Clancy reflects on authors Ignazio Silone Arnold Toynbee Walter Lippman as well as American poets the Dreyfus Affair and liberal Catholicism The man outside: the prose works of Wolfgang Borchert; translated from the German by David Porter Wolfgang BORCHERT, David Porter, 1966 The Fortunes of Everyman in Twentieth-century German Drama Brian Murdoch, 2022 Death still comes to Everyman but this study of three twentieth century German plays shows the harder challenge of living without salvation in an age of war and unprecedented mass destruction Death comes to everyone and in the late medieval morality play of Everyman the familiar skeleton forces the universalized central figure to come to terms with this Only his inner resources in the forms of Good Deeds and Knowledge ensure that he repents and is redeemed Three important twentieth century German plays echo Everyman Toller's Hinkemann Borchert's The Man Outside and Frisch's The Arsonists Firebugs but the unprecedented scale of killing in the First and Second World Wars changed the view of death while in the Cold War the nuclear destruction literally of everyone became a possibility Brian Murdoch traces the heritage of Everyman in the three plays in terms of dramatic effect changes in the image of Death and especially the problem of living with existential guilt Death now overfed still has to be faced but Everyman has the harder problem of living with the awareness of human wickedness without the possibility of salvation All three plays have tended to be viewed in their specific historical contexts but by viewing them less rigidly and as part of a long dramatic tradition Murdoch shows that all present a message of lasting and universal significance They pose directly to the theater audience questions not just of how to cope with death but how to cope with life Hölderlin After the Catastrophe Robert Ian Savage, 2008 In each case Holderlin is examined as the occasion for salvaging that legacy after from and in view of the catastrophe This first full length study of Holderlin's postwar reception will be of interest to students and scholars working in the fields of German literature European philosophy the politics of cultural memory and critical theory BOOK JACKET Music and Exile, 2023-03-06 How did exiled musicians from Germany and Austria who reached safety at Kitchener Camp in Britain find themselves in an Australian internment camp in New South Wales in 1940 What were the institutions that helped Jewish refugee musicians survive in wartime Shanghai What happened to Austrian musicians who were trapped in the Netherlands after the German occupation These and other questions and the larger stories they refer to form the compelling content of this book Other topics include the struggle of the Vienna operetta composers Granichstaedten and Katscher in USA the relationship of migr composer Berthold

Goldschmidt to his native Hamburg and the reception of his exile opera Beatrice Cenci Studies of Mischa Spoliansky's music for the movie Mr Emmanuel 1944 and Franz Reizenstein's radio opera Anna Kraus form part of the fourteen essays on exile musical history in Britain Europe USA Australia and the Far East based on cutting edge archival research and interviews by leading scholars Encyclopedia of Literary Translation Into English: A-L O. Classe,2000 West Germans Against The West C. Müller,2010-05-13 An exploration of how the theme of Anti Americanism was employed by influential sections of the West German media to oppose the modernisation of the Federal Republic of Germany during the long 1950s In the public battle over the future direction of Germany America stood as a symbol of social political and economic corruption In the Shadow of the Holocaust & Other Essays Constantin V. Ponomareff,2023-12-14 The main thrust of this collection of essays excluding those on Russian literature is to visualize the European Holocaust from a number of different vantage points the historical and cultural the political and individual the psychological and social and the critical and literary This wider perspective especially as it relates to the range and extent of human suffering suggests that a redefinition of the twentieth century Holocaust is now timely Rhetoric and Hermeneutics Carol A. Newsom,2019-06-03 This collection of essays by Carol A Newsom explores the indispensable role that rhetoric and hermeneutics play in the production and reception of biblical and Second Temple literature Some of the essays are methodological and programmatic while others provide extended case studies Because rhetoric is as Kenneth Burke put it a strategy for encompassing a situation the analysis of rhetoric illumines the ways in which texts engage particular historical moments shape and reshape communities and even construct new models of self and agency The essays in this book not only explore how ancient texts hermeneutically engage existing traditions but also how they themselves have become the objects of hermeneutical transformation in contexts ranging from ancient sectarian Judaism to the politics of post World War I and II Germany and America to modern film criticism and feminist re reading Limping But Blessed Ton van Prooijen,2004 For Jurgen Moltmann theological anthropology must be liberating It should take a stand against dehumanizing images and concepts of human life and point out ways to true humanity In his view a theologian can develop such a liberating anthropology only if he speaks explicitly from the perspective of God's kingdom as conceived in the Bible and the Christian tradition and if he speaks to and in his context as one who experiences contemporary sufferings and hopes But how This book analyzes the development of Moltmann's theology in the light of this quest for a liberating view on human life It examines the anthropological concerns in the different stages of his theological enterprise his post war Trummertheologie the loose theological threads of the 1950s his theology of hope and promise in the 1960s his theology of the cross human rights and play in the 1970s and his ecological and charismatic theology of the 1980s and 1990s Moltmann's theological thinking has taken place consciously at the intersection of personal experiences historical challenges biblical testimony and the fundamentals of the Christian tradition Analyzing his quest for a liberating anthropology in a chronological way this study therefore gives an impression of the frictions and fault lines of Christian anthropology in the context of the societal changes during the second half of the twentieth century A concluding chapter discusses some of the problems accentuated in the course of this analysis and evaluates some valuable leads for a Christian anthropology today TON VAN PROOIJEN submitted this study as his doctoral dissertation at the Free University of Amsterdam His current research interests include anthropology and politics particularly the concept of humankind in Christian Democratic political thought

Literature, Cinema and Politics

1930-1945 Lara Feigel,2010-07-16 This book tells the story of a generation of writers who were passionately engaged with politics and with cinema exploring the rise and fall of a distinct tradition of cinematic literature Dismayed by the rise of fascism in Europe and by the widening gulf separating the classes at home these writers turned to cinema as a popular and hard hitting art form Lara Feigel crosses boundaries between high modernism and social realism and between high and popular culture bringing together Virginia Woolf with W H Auden Elizabeth Bowen with John Sommerfield Sergei Eisenstein with Gracie Fields The book ends in the Second World War an era when the bombs and searchlights rendered everyday life cinematic Feigel interrogates the genres she maps drawing on cultural theories from the 1920s onwards to investigate the nature of the cinematic and the literary While it was not possible directly to transfer the techniques of the screen to the page any more than it was possible to go over to the working classes the attempts nonetheless reveal a fascinating intersection of the visual and the verbal the political and the aesthetic In reading between the frames of an unexplored literary tradition this book redefines 1930s and wartime literature and politics

Narrative as Counter-Memory Reiko Tachibana,1998-01-01 A pioneering study of German and Japanese postwar fiction providing a broad cultural basis for understanding a half century of responses to World War II from within the two societies

The Artist ,1952 Bombing, States and Peoples in Western Europe 1940-1945 Claudia Baldoli,Andrew Knapp,Richard Overly,2011-06-30 This is the first book to treat bombing during WWII as a European phenomenon and not just the Blitz on Britain and Germany With Western Europe now at the heart of a united continent it is even more difficult to explain how only 70 years ago European states destroyed much of the urban landscape from the air There were many blitzes between 1940 and 1945 with an estimated 700 000 people killed The purpose of this book is to provide the basis for a comparison of the experience of western states under the impact of bombing In particular it considers the political cultural and social responses to bombing rather than the military strategic and social dimensions which have formed the core of the discussion hitherto This book will correct the popular perception of the British Blitz as the key bombing experience by exposing the reality of life under the bombs for communities as far apart as Brest Palermo and Rostock An international panel of historians consider the issues raised amidst the bombing of human rights and protection of civilians in this seminal event in C20th history

German Short Stories 1945-1955 H. M. Waidson,2011-01-20 This collection draws together eight short stories from major figures in German literature from 1945 to 1955

War Stories Robert G. Moeller,2003-04-18 Moeller conveys the complicated story of how West Germans recast the past after the Second

World War He demonstrates the selective remembering that took place among West Germans during the postwar years in particular they remembered crimes committed against Germans

The History of German Literature on Film Christiane Schönfeld, 2023-06-15 A 2024 CHOICE OUTSTANDING ACADEMIC TITLE This book tells the story of German language literature on film beginning with pioneering motion picture adaptations of Faust in 1897 and early debates focused on high art as mass culture It explores analyzes and contextualizes the so called golden age of silent cinema in the 1920s the impact of sound on adaptation practices the abuse of literary heritage by Nazi filmmakers and traces the role of German language literature in exile and postwar films across ideological boundaries in divided Germany in New German Cinema and in remakes and movies for cinema as well as television and streaming services in the 21st century Having provided the narrative core to thousands of films since the late 19th century many of German cinema s most influential masterpieces were inspired by canonical texts popular plays and even children s literature Not being restricted to German adaptations however this book also traces the role of literature originally written in German in international film productions which sheds light on the interrelation between cinema and key historical events It outlines how processes of adaptation are shaped by global catastrophes and the emergence of nations by materialist conditions liberal economies and capitalist imperatives political agendas the mobility of individuals and sometimes by the desire to create reflective surfaces and perhaps even art Commercial cinema s adaptation practices have foregrounded economic interest but numerous filmmakers throughout cinema history have turned to German language literature not simply to entertain but as a creative contribution to the public sphere marking adaptation practice at least potentially as a form of active citizenship
