Man Sigmund Lichter, 1970-01-01 Screening the Male Steve Cohan, Ina Rae Hark, 2012-09-10 Screening the male re examines the problematic status of masculinity both in Hollywood cinema and feminist film theory Classical Hollywood cinema has been theoretically established as a vast pleasure machine manufacturing an idealized viewer through its phallocentric ideological apparatus Feminist criticism has shown how difficult it is for the female viewer to resist becoming implicated in this representational system But the theories have overlooked the significance of the problem itself of the masculine motivation at the core of the system The essays here explore those male characters spectators and performers who occupy positions conventionally encoded as feminine in Hollywood narrative and questions just how secure that orthodox male position is Screening the Male brings together an impressive group of both established and emerging scholars from Britain the United States and Australia unified by a concern with issues that film theorists have exclusively linked to the feminine and not the masculine spectacle masochism passivity masquerade and most of all the body as it signifies gendered racial class and generational differences The Renaissance Nude Thomas Kren, Jill Burke, Stephen J. Campbell, 2018-11-20 A gloriously illustrated examination of the origins and development of the nude as an artistic subject in Renaissance Europe Reflecting an era when Europe looked to both the classical past and a global future this volume explores the emergence and acceptance of the nude as an artistic subject It engages with the numerous and complex connotations of the human body in more than 250 artworks by the greatest masters of the Renaissance Paintings sculptures prints drawings illuminated manuscripts and book illustrations reveal private sometimes shocking preoccupations as well as surprising public beliefs the Age of Humanism from an entirely new perspective This book presents works by Albrecht Dürer Lucas Cranach and Martin Schongauer in the north and Donatello Raphael and Giorgione in the south it also introduces names that deserve to be known better A publication this rich in scholarship could only be produced by a variety of expert scholars the sixteen contributors are preeminent in their fields and wide ranging in their knowledge and curiosity The structure of the volume essays alternating with shorter texts on individual artworks permits studies both broad and granular From the religious to the magical and the poetic to the erotic encompassing male and female infancy youth and old age The Renaissance Nude examines in a profound way what it is to be human De caelo et ejus mirabilibus et de inferno ex auditis et visis Emanuel Swedenborg, 1900 Concerning Heaven and its wonders, and concerning Hell: tr.
