Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress. Cataloging Policy and Support Office, 2009 Man in God's World Helmut Thielicke, 2016-11-24 Helmut Thielicke's lectures first spoken in defiance of the Nazi regime are recorded here He covers a wide range of topics including ethics politics the state war atomic power economics sex and art Revolutionary in their time they offer an example of how Christian faith can provide a strong ground to stand on when living in the constant danger of death Delivered during World War II when one after another of Thielicke's meeting places were bombed the lectures were aimed at people who were not conventional churchgoers and were not accustomed to the language and premises of the church They were people who had to be met on their own ground and then introduced to the Christian faith Thielicke had a unique gift for finding the point of contact and addressing the Gospel to this point Relevant even to this day his words remind us what it means to be a Christian Library of Congress Subject Headings: P-Z Library of Congress. Subject Cataloging Division, 1988 The Origin of the Races and Destruction of Man By Man Edwin Sammy Achala, 2011-10-08 Mary Magdalene Maurice Maeterlinck, 2021-04-11 In Mary Magdalene Maurice Maeterlinck explores the complexities of faith redemption and the female experience through a profound philosophical lens This work stands out for its lyrical prose and rich symbolism characteristic of Symbolist literature reflecting Maeterlinck's affinity for blending poetry with narrative depth The narrative navigates the spiritual journey of Mary Magdalene often considered a controversial figure in religious texts inviting readers to reassess their perceptions of sin grace and the transformative power of love Set against the backdrop of religious and philosophical discourse prevalent in the early 20th century this book engages deeply with existential themes while maintaining an aura of mystical beauty Maurice Maeterlinck a Belgian playwright poet and essayist was a leading figure of the Symbolist movement influenced by his own background in mystical beliefs and psychology His intimate understanding of the human condition and spirituality is evident in his portrayal of Mary Magdalene suggesting a yearning to illuminate the often overlooked voices in religious narratives Maeterlinck's profound insights into the psyche and spirit were shaped by both his literary influences and his personal contemplations on suffering and redemption This captivating work is highly recommended for readers seeking a deeper understanding of religious archetypes and the feminine divine Maeterlinck's thoughtful exploration of Mary Magdalene's complex identity not only enriches the reader's grasp of biblical history but also resonates with contemporary themes of empowerment and spiritual awakening Man's Origin, Destiny, and Duty Hugh MacColl, 1909 Medieval and Early Modern Representations of Authority in Scotland and the British Isles Kate Buchanan, Lucinda H.S. Dean, 2016-05-20 What use is it to be given authority over men and lands if others do not know about it Furthermore what use is that authority if those who know about it do not respect it or recognise its jurisdiction And what strategies and language written and spoken visual and auditory material cultural and political did those in authority throughout the medieval and early modern era use to project and make known their power These questions have been crucial since regulations for governance entered society and are found at the core of this volume In order to address these issues from an historical perspective this collection of essays considers representations of authority made by a cross section of society within the British Isles Arranged in thematic sections the 14 essays in the collection bridge the divide between medieval and early modern to build up understanding of the developments and continuities that can be followed across the centuries in question Whether crown or noble government or church burgh or merchant all desired power and influence but their means of representing authority were very different These essays encompass a myriad of methods demonstrating power and disseminating the image of authority including material culture art literature architecture and landscapes saintly cults speeches and propaganda martial posturing and strategic alliances music liturgy and ceremonial display Thus this interdisciplinary collection illuminates the variable forms in which authority was presented by key individuals and institutions in Scotland and the British Isles By placing these within the context of the European powers with whom they interacted this volume also underlines the unique relationships developed between the people and those who exercised authority over them
