Tales of Bluebeard and His Wives from Late Antiquity to Postmodern Times Shuli Barzilai, 2013-01-11 This project provides an in depth study of narratives about Bluebeard and his wives or narratives with identifiable Bluebeard motifs and the intertextual and extratextual personal political literary and sociocultural factors that have made the tale a particularly fertile ground for an author s adaptation of the story Whereas Charles Dickens for example expresses a sympathetic identification with Bluebeard and a discernable strain of misogyny emerges in his recreation of the tale and recurrent allusions to it his contemporary William Makepeace Thackeray uses the tale as a springboard for his critique of avarice hypocrisy pretension and the subjugation of women in Victorian society

The Perturbed Self Mengxing Fu, 2021-08-30 By comparison of late nineteenth century ghost stories between China and Britain this monograph traces the entangled dynamics between ghost story writing history making and the moulding of a gendered self Associated with times of anxiety groups under marginalisation and tensions with orthodox narratives ghost stories from two distinguished literary traditions are explored through the writings and lives of four innovative writers of this period namely Xuan Ding and Wang Tao in China and Vernon Lee and E Nesbit in Britain Through this cross cultural investigation the book illuminates how a gendered self is constructed in each culture and what cultural baggage and assets are brought into this construction It also ventures to sketch a common poetics underlying a literature of the anomaly that can be both destabilising and constructive subversive and coercive This book will be welcomed by the Gothic studies community as well as scholars working in the fields of women s writing nineteenth century British literature and Chinese literature
