Management Accounting in the New Manufacturing Environment Robert A. Howell, 1987 Selection and Evaluation of Advanced Manufacturing Technologies Matthew J. Liberatore, 2012-12-06 Matthew J. Liberatore Department of Management Villanova University Villanova PA 19085 1 BACKGROUND The weakening competitive position of many segments of u s manufacturing has been analyzed debated and discussed in corporate boardrooms academic journals and the popular literature One result has been a renewed commitment toward improving productivity and quality in the workplace The drive to reduce manufacturing related costs while meeting ever changing customer needs has led many firms to consider more automated and flexible manufacturing systems The extent to which these new technologies can support business goals in productivity quality and flexibility is an especially important issue for manufacturing firms in the u s and other Western nations Problems have arisen in developing performance measures and evaluation criteria which reflect the full range of costs and benefits associated with these technologies Some would argue that managerial policies and attitudes and not the shortcomings of the equipment or manufacturing processes are the major impediments to implementation Kaplan 1984

Management Accounting, 1988 Proceedings of Manufacturing International '88: Symposium on management and economics, 1988 Beyond the Bottom Line Carol Jean McNair, William Mosconi, Thomas Norris, 1989 Meeting the Technology Challenge Carol Jean McNair, William Mosconi, Thomas Norris, 1988 Handbook of Management Accounting Research Christopher S. Chapman, Anthony G. Hopwood, Michael D. Shields, 2011-09-14 Volume two of the Handbooks of Management Accounting Research consists of two groups of chapters The first draw together research that has focussed on particular management accounting practices The second set synthesise contributions to the literature that have been focussed within particular organisational contexts Volume two concludes with a review of research on how management accounting practice and research varies around the world Special pricing available if purchased as a set with Volume 1 Documents the scholarly management accounting literature Publishing both in print and online through Science Direct International in scope Cost Management for Today's Advanced Manufacturing Callie Berliner, James A. Brimson, 1988 Economic and Financial Justification of Advanced Manufacturing Technologies Hamid R. Parsaei, W.G. Sullivan, T.R. Hanley, 2013-10-22 Competence in investment analysis is now a basic requirement for most practicing managers engineers and financial analysts in order to avoid possible serious mistakes arising from flawed or inadequate knowledge of the discipline Furthermore individuals who make decisions based on technical economics stake their professional futures in many cases on the accuracy of such evaluations The aim of this volume is to provide a balanced view of the essential components of economic and financial analysis including 1 Strategic and design issues 2 Principles of cost management systems and activity based costing and 3 Tools for developing the financial measures of investment worth with advanced topics and case studies in these three areas This volume provides a refreshing insight into the various methods that engineers managers and financial analysts may need to consider to find good alternatives for the investment of scarce resources Not only are new ventures presented but also improvements within existing facilities that include process modification product design equipment replacement and plant expansion contraction
