Miss Giardino:

Miss Giardino Dorothy Bryant, 1997 A unique psychological portrait of an urban working class teacher and the dynamics of teaching itself

Queen Calafia's Paradise Kenneth Scambray, 2007 In Queen Calafia's Paradise Ken Scambray explains that California offers Italian American protagonists a unique cultural landscape in which to define what it means to be an American and how Italian American protagonists embark on a voyage to reconcile their Old World heritage with modern American society In Pasinetti's From the Academy Bridge 1970 Scambray analyzes the influence of Pasinetti's diverse California landscape upon his protagonist Scambray argues that any reading of Madalena's Confetti for Gino 1959 set in San Diego's Little Italy must take into account Madalena's homosexuality and his little known homosexual World War II novel The Invisible Glass 1950 In his chapters covering John Fante's Los Angeles fiction Scambray explores the Italian American's quest to locate a home in Southern California Ken Scambray teaches courses in North American Italian literature and Los Angeles fiction at the University of La Verne

Those Good Gertrudes Geraldine J. Clifford, 2016-03 This book explores the professional civic and personal roles of women teachers throughout American history Its themes and findings build from the mostly unpublished writings of many women Clifford studied personal history manuscripts in archives and consulted printed autobiographies diaries correspondence oral histories interviews to probe the multifaceted imagery that has surrounded teaching This work surveys a long past where schoolteaching was essentially men's work with women relegated to restricted niches such as teaching rudiments of the vernacular language to young children and socializing girls for traditional gender roles

Claiming a Tradition Mary Jo Bona, 1999 Mary Jo Bona reconstructs the literary history and examines the narrative techniques of eight Italian American women's novels from 1940 to the present Largely neglected until recently these women's family narratives compel a reconsideration of what it means to be a woman and an ethnic in America Bona discusses the novels in pairs according to their focus on Italian American life She first examines the traditions of Italianità a flavor of things Italian that inform and enhance works of fiction The novelists in that tradition were Mari Tomasi Like Lesser Gods 1949 and Marion Benasutti No Steady Job for Papa 1966 Bona then turns to later novels that highlight the Italian American belief in the family's honor and reputation Conflicts between generations specifically between autocratic fathers and their children are central to Octavia Waldo's 1961 A Cup of the Sun and Josephine Gattuso Hendin's 1988 The Right Thing to Do Even when writers choose to steer away from the familial focus Bona notes their developmental narratives trace the reintegration of characters suffering from a crisis of cultural identity Relating the characters' struggles to their relationship to the family Bona examines Diana Cavallo's 1961 A Bridge of Leaves and Dorothy Bryant's 1978 Miss Giardino Bona then discusses two innovative novels Helen Barolini's 1979 Umbertina and Tina De Rosa's 1980 Paper Fish both of which feature a granddaughter who invokes her grandmother a godparent figure Through Barolini's feminist and De Rosa's modernist perspectives both novels present a young girl developing artistically Closing with a discussion of the contemporary terrain Italian American women traverse Bona examines such topics as sexual identity when it meets cultural identity and the inclusion of Italianity when Italian American identity is not central to the story Italian American women writers she concludes continue in the 1980s and 1990s to focus on the interplay between cultural identity and women's development Report United States. Congress Senate, Beyond the Margin Paolo Giordano, Anthony Julian Tamburri, 1998 The editors goal in this book is to give a critical overview of where Italian American literary and cultural studies are today To this end Beyond the Margin includes three types of essays the characteristics of Italian American literature and culture in a general sense specific writers and film Ella Price's Journal Dorothy Bryant, 1997 A version of The Women's Room Ella Price's Journal presented a re-entry woman before the term was even invented The Pastor Who Learned to Dance Howard S. Fuller, 2007-10-02 Neither ascent nor decline Except for the point the still point here would be no dance and there is only the dance T S Eliot Four Quartets The metaphor of the dance is one I have chosen to describe the movement of the Spirit in my life as pastor in a small Protestant congregation in northern California during 1978 I dance a light and joyful dance when I remember that God in Christ is the still point of the dance around which the various parts of myself arrange themselves As the people of God and I dance together we become a healing energy field in which the Holy Spirit powerfully moves I have written this book in gratitude for the gift of the presence of the Christ as the creator of our dance together with all creation It is a book for pastors and for students in training for church ministry but it is for lovers parents business executives and teachers as well I invite you my brothers and sisters to dance with me From a colleague Your book is very good very readable very insightful and sometimes profound I appreciate your open and courageous description of your personal spiritual journey also your description of Psychosynthesis and its possible manner of application to one's self and to the activity of the Church I think that your work could be particularly helpful as a teaching tool for ministers and Seminarians THE PASTOR WHO LEARNED TO DANCE HOW I LEARNED TO BE MYSELF IN THE CHURCH by Howard S Fuller Italian Americans on the Page Ryan Calabretta-Sajder, Alan J. Gravano, 2025-10-01 Approaches Italian American literature from new critical perspectives and explores contemporary and understudied voices from both the United States and Canada Italian Americans on the Page fills a significant gap in Italian American and Italian diaspora studies particularly literature as it explores four genres fiction poetry memoir and theater from a variety of critical perspectives The first section of the book offers reconsiderations of two canonical authors Helen Barolini and Don DeLillo while the other three sections bring new attention to understudied Italian American and Italian Canadian writers including women and LGBTQIA These include Mary Jo Salter Peter Covino Louise DeSalvo Karen Tintori Juliet Grames Ben Piazza Salvatore Antonio Christopher DiRaddo Michele Linfante Chris Cinque Theresa Carilli Mary Melfi and Michaela Di Cesare Each contribution approaches Italian American and Italian diaspora studies through a unique theoretical lens adding to the richness of what proceeds this publication in the field Ultimately the volume offers rereadings of foundational Italian American works and provides newfound attention to understudied and emerging Italian diasporic voices Italian Immigration in the American West Kenneth Scambray, 2021-12-14 In this carefully researched and engaging book Kenneth Scambray surveys the lives and contributions of Italian immigrants in thirteen western states He covers a variety of topics including the role of the Roman Catholic Church in attracting and facilitating Italian settlement the economic political and cultural contributions made by Italians and the efforts to preserve Italian culture and to restore connections to their ancestral identity The lives of immigrants in the West differed greatly from those of their counterparts on the East Coast in many ways The development of the West with its cheap land and mining forestry and agriculture industries created a demand for labor that enabled newcomers to achieve stability and success Moreover female immigrants had many more opportunities to contribute materially to their family's well being either by overseeing new revenue streams for their farms and small businesses or as paid workers outside the home Despite this success Italian immigrants in the West could not escape the era's xenophobia Scambray also discusses the ways that Italians perceived by many as non White interacted with other Euro Americans other immigrant groups and Native Americans and African Americans By placing the Italian immigrant experience within the context of other immigrant narratives Italian Immigration in the American West provides rich insights into the lives and contributions of individuals and families who sought to build new lives in the West This unique study reveals the impact of Italian immigration and the immense diversity of the immigrant experience outside the East's urban centers Return Narratives Theodora D. Patrona, 2017-08-29 This book is a comparative study of six Italian American and Greek American literary works written in the three last decades of the 20th century and examined in pairs Based on the common theme of the authors' return either metaphorical or literal to the country of origin and its culture Return Narratives explores the common motifs of mythology ritual and storytelling where the third generation writers resort to in their quest for self definition With a common historical and cultural background in the old neighboring countries Greece and Italy and a similar reception in the new world facilitating a comparative approach the ethnic writers of the two literatures clearly envisage ethnic space as a site of resilience and empowerment Undermining Race Phylis Cancilla Martinelli, 2015-10-19 Undermining Race rewrites the history of race immigration and labor in the copper industry in Arizona The book focuses on the case of Italian immigrants in their relationships with Anglo Mexican and Spanish miners and at times with blacks Asian Americans and Native Americans requiring a reinterpretation of the way race was formed and figured across place and time Phylis Martinelli argues that the case of Italians in Arizona provides insight into in between racial and ethnic categories demonstrating that the categorizing of Italians varied from camp to camp depending on local conditions such as management practices in structuring labor markets and workers housing and the choices made by immigrants in forging communities of language and mutual support Italians even light skinned northern Italians were not considered completely white in Arizona at this historical moment yet neither were they consistently racialized as non white and tactics used to control them ranged from micro to macro level violence To make her argument Martinelli looks closely at two white camps in Globe and Bisbee and at the Mexican camp of Clifton Morenci Comparing and contrasting the placement of Italians in these three camps shows how the usual binary system of race relations became complicated which in turn affected the existing race based labor hierarchy especially during strikes The book provides additional case studies to argue that the biracial stratification system in the United States was in fact triracial at times According to Martinelli this system determined the nature of the associations among laborers as well as the way Americans came to construct whiteness

Writing With An Accent Edvige Giunta, 2016-04-30 Mary Cappello Louise DeSalvo Sandra M Gilbert Maria Mazziotti Gillan Carole Maso Agnes Rossi These are some of the best known Italian American writers today They are part of a literary tradition with mid twentieth century roots that began to develop in earnest in the late 1970s and early 1980s During those decades a number of Italian American women such as Helen Barolini began to publish books that depicted their perspectives on life through the critical lenses of gender class and ethnicity At the end of the twentieth century this literature finally blossomed into a fully fledged cultural movement that also took into account issues of sexuality age illness and familial and societal abuse Writing with an Accent takes a look at this vibrant literary movement by discussing those first writers of the 1970s and 1980s as well as later authors At the center of Edvige Giunta's Writing with an Accent is the literal notion of accent the marker of linguistic and cultural difference that separates and identifies recent immigrants to the United States In this study an accent symbolically embodies the differences and creative strategies through which contemporary Italian American women writers engage Italian American culture in works of fiction poetry and memoir Giunta also looks at the links between the literature and art music film and video produced by contemporary Italian American women The literature of the Italian American women in Writing with an Accent is shaped by the complicated connections these authors maintain with their cultural origins but also and perhaps more importantly by their feminist consciousness and politicized sense of ethnic identity Writing with an Accent celebrates and explores a group of authors who characteristically mix the joy and pain of Italian American life to paint a multifaceted picture of Italian American women and their complex place in U S culture

The Right Thing to Do Josephine Hendin, 1999 The first novel to center on the father daughter relationship in an Italian American family

Confessions of Madame Psyche Dorothy Bryant, 2020-07-08 Describes a life that explores in ways that only fine fiction can the differences between myth and illusion between real psychic gifts and false ones The Denver Post This American Book Award Winner follows the story of the young Mei li Murrow who is dubbed Madame Psyche after she accidentally predicts the San Francisco earthquake of 1906 Although she wins fame and fortune Mei li seeks a truer spirituality and embarks on a pilgrimage that takes her to the death soaked Europe of the First World War to a utopian commune in the Santa Cruz Mountains in the 1920s to the Depression era migrant work camps and cannery strikes and finally to the Napa State Hospital where she finds wisdom and peace among the outcasts of the asylum Mei li's modern day epic is grounded in the history of Northern California in the first half of the

Chen,2010-06-15 Patrizia Chen's childhood was suffused with the scent of simmering pots of cacciucco a local hearty seafood stew and of the pittosporum blooming along the Tuscan coast Her family's house and sumptuous garden in the Italian seaside town of Livorno are at the center of this captivating book that weaves together simple delicious recipes with a love of home family nature custom and above all food The family cook Emilia a feisty temperamental woman from a nearby fishing village dutifully produces bland white dishes for every family meal as dictated by Patrizia's grandfather But behind the kitchen door it's a different story One day seven year old Patrizia is led by a wonderful smell into the kitchen where Emilia is preparing a spicy red sauce bursting with garlic and onion With one bite Patrizia becomes hooked In the spacious sun drenched kitchen and adjoining herb garden Emilia takes Patrizia under her wing disclosing the secrets of her favorite Tuscan dishes Through vivid descriptions and charming anecdotes Chen brings to life the white Carrara marble terraces the coal burning stoves antique roses and sacks of chestnut flour that fill the family house kitchen and garden This delightful and evocative narrative will welcome you into the heart of Patrizia's Tuscan home and allow you to bring the robust flavors of Emilia's cooking into your own kitchen

To be Suddenly White Steven J. Belluscio,2006 To Be Suddenly White explores the troubled relationship between literary passing and literary realism the dominant aesthetic motivation behind the late nineteenth and early twentieth century ethnic texts considered in this study Steven J Belluscio uses the passing narrative to provide insight into how the representation of ethnic and racial subjectivity served in part to counter dominant narratives of difference To Be Suddenly White offers new readings of traditional passing narratives from the African American literary tradition such as James Weldon Johnson's The Autobiography of an Ex Coloured Man Nella Larsen's Passing and George Schuyler's Black No More It is also the first full length work to consider a number of Jewish American and Italian American prose texts such as Mary Antin's The Promised Land Anzia Yezierska's Bread Givers and Guido d Agostino's Olives on the Apple Tree as racial passing narratives in their own right Belluscio also demonstrates the contradictions that result from the passing narrative's exploration of racial subjectivity racial difference and race itself When they are seen in comparison ideological differences begin to emerge between African American passing narratives and white ethnic Jewish American and Italian American passing narratives According to Belluscio the former are more likely to engage in a direct critique of ideas of race while the latter have a tendency to become more simplistic acculturation narratives in which a character moves from a position of ethnic difference to one of full American identity The desire to be suddenly white serves as a continual point of reference for Belluscio enabling him to analyze how writers even when overtly aware of the problematic nature of race especially African American writers are also aware of the conditions it creates the transformations it provokes and the consequences of both By examining the content and context of these works Belluscio elucidates their engagement with discourses of racial and ethnic differences assimilation passing and identity an approach that has profound implications for the understanding of American literary history
