Speaking of Earth Alon Tal,2006 A compelling anthology of environmental speeches by prominent and articulate leaders from around the globe This book is required reading for anyone who cares about the future of our planet and especially for those who don't yet care enough Kiwi Heroes Bronwyn Sell,2010-10-06 Kiwi Heroes brings together the tales of 50 of New Zealand's bravest people Some of the people featured are household names some are barely known outside their own households Some have become heroes in a moment some over a lifetime Some are professionals who have gone beyond the call of duty others are ordinary people who have been plunged into terrifying circumstances and responded with astonishing bravery Many have forfeited their lives or their livelihoods for the sake of others All have great stories to tell

Politics of Forgetting Martyn Brown,2019-04-24 Greece was a poor country in turmoil and pain during the 1940s A military dictatorship was followed by invasion and terrifying occupation by Germany and its allies starvation civil war political unrest and mutiny in its free military armed forces New Zealand entered this arena and found a bond with a people that it still celebrates to this day Absent from the New Zealand national storytelling is the complex divisive and sometimes violent and surreal relationship between the two countries and the inescapable influence of Britain The New Zealand Greek story stretches from the mountains and open country of Greece and Crete to Middle East deserts autumn swept plains of Italy and the blood splattered streets of post liberated Athens New Zealand official state memory emphasizes some things and ignores the unpalatable It also conceals its assertiveness with Britain over the latter's Greek policies

Law Breakers and Mischief Makers Bronwyn Sell,2010-11-29 New Zealand was supposed to be a model society at the end of the world a utopia for men and women of good character who were willing to work hard for a better life And for most so it proved But this book is about the others the misfits the swindlers the fallen women the love rats the escaped convicts the hoaxers the charlatans the highwaymen the mass murderers from the earliest days of European settlement to the present day Law Breakers and Mischief Makers gives the scandalous details of those who've made a name for themselves in New Zealand for all the wrong reasons Take for example Charlotte Badger a pistol wielding English thief who launched a mutiny on a Tasmanian convict ship in 1806 and sailed over to hide among the Maori of the Bay of Islands and Amy Bock a con woman who masqueraded as a wealthy man to marry the daughter of her landlady in 1909 Some of the people featured in this book are monsters some are merely rascals but all make fascinating reading A lot of the people featured in it have somewhat disappeared into the mists of time and readers will be surprised at the shady characters in this country's past

The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2002

Chronicles of the First Crusade Christopher Tyerman, 2011-11-03 The story of the First Crusade as witnessed by contemporary writers O day so ardently desired O time of times the most memorable O deed before all other deeds The fall of Jerusalem in the summer of 1099 to an exhausted and starving army of western European soldiers was one of the most extraordinary events of the Middle Ages It was both the climax of a great wave of visionary Christian fervour and the beginning of what proved to be a futile and abortive attempt to implant a new European kingdom of heaven in an overwhelmingly Muslim world This remarkable collection brings together a wide variety of contemporary accounts of the First Crusade including Pope Urban II's initial call to arms of 1095 as well as the first hand writings of priests knights a Jewish pilgrim a destitute noblewoman an Iraqi poet and the historian Anna Comnena Together they provide a vivid and nuanced picture of the First Crusade and the people who were swept up in it Edited with an introduction and notes by Christopher Tyerman

Petitioning for Land Karen O'Brien, 2018-11-15 Petitioning for Land is the first book to examine the extent of First Peoples political participation through the use of petitions Interpreting petitions as a continuous form of political articulation Karen O'Brien considers petitioning for recognition of prior land ownership as a means by which to locate First Peoples petitioning for change within the broader narrative of historical and contemporary notions of justice The book follows the story of First Peoples activism and shows how they actively reform discourse to disseminate a self determined reality through the act of petitioning It discloses how through the petition First Peoples reject colonialism even whilst working within its confines In a reconfiguration of discourse they actively convey a political or moral meaning to re emerge in a self determined world Taking a socio legal and historical approach to petitioning the book questions the state domination of First Peoples and charts their political action against such control in the quest for self determination By uniquely focusing on the act of petitioning which places First Peoples aspirants centre stage O'Brien presents fresh and innovative perspectives concerning their political enterprise From early modern colonial occupation to contemporary society the hundreds of petitions that called for change are uncovered in Petitioning for Land shedding new light on the social and political dynamics that drove the petitions Fairness and Freedom David Hackett

Fischer, 2012-02-10 From one of America's preeminent historians comes a magisterial study of the development of open societies focusing on the United States and New Zealand Mana Maori and Christianity Hugh Morrison, Lachy

Paterson, Brett Knowles, Murray Rae, 2012-06-01 This book examines encounters between the Christian church and Maori Christian faith among Maori changed from Maori receiving the missionary endeavours of Pakeha settlers to the development of indigenous expressions of Christian faith partnerships between Maori and Pakeha in the mainline churches and the emergence of Destiny Church The book looks at the growth development and adaptation of Christian faith among Maori people and considers how that development has helped shape New Zealand identity and society It explores questions of theology historical development socio cultural influence and change and the outcomes of Pakeha interactions with Maori
