Radiance Of The King:

The Radiance of the King Laye Camara, 2001 At the beginning of this masterpiece of African literature Clarence a white man has been shipwrecked on the coast of Africa Flush with self importance he demands to see the king but the king has just left for the south of his realm Traveling through an increasingly phantasmagoric landscape in the company of a beggar and two roguish boys Clarence is gradually stripped of his pretensions until he is sold to the royal harem as a slave But in the end Clarence s bewildering journey is the occasion of a revelation as he discovers the image both shameful and beautiful of his own humanity in the alien splendor of the king The Facts on File Companion to the World Novel Michael Sollars, Arbolina Llamas Jennings, 2008 The Radiance of the King Camara Laye, 1965 Le Regard Du Roi. The Radiance of the King. Translated ... by James Kirkup. A Novel. Laye Camara, James Kirkup, 1956 Encyclopedia of the Novel Paul Schellinger, 2014-04-08 The Encyclopedia of the Novel is the first reference book that focuses on the development of the novel throughout the world Entries on individual writers assess the place of that writer within the development of the novel form explaining why and in exactly what ways that writer is important Similarly an entry on an individual novel discusses the importance of that novel not only form analyzing the particular innovations that novel has introduced and the ways in which it has influenced the subsequent course of the genre A wide range of topic entries explore the history criticism theory production dissemination and reception of the novel A very important component of the Encyclopedia of the Novel is its long surveys of development of the novel in various regions of the world The Radiance of the King Drew Middleton, 1965 A Prose Course for 'A' Level English - E.A. , Camara Laye's Symbolism J. A. Ramsaran, 1972 The Radiance of the King Laye Camara, 1965 Obumsele on African Literature Isidore Diala, 2019-02-13 This compendium brings together in one volume for the first time Obumsele s highly celebrated work on African literature With the dialectic of cultures as the presiding preoccupation of his work and appraising the place of African literature in the universal scheme of cultural interchange his critical speciality Obumsele espoused a scholarship with a necessarily indispensable comparative dimension as the articles anthologised in this volume as African literature reveal The expertise with which he explores the oeuvres of many Western writers because of the light they shed on the creative endeavours of African writers is offset only by the rigour with which he explores the transformative impact of indigenous African literature on the craft of many distinguished African writers Obumsele s discovery of a tradition of the African novel almost entirely rooted in the poetics of African folklore which began with Mofolo and Plaatje and blossomed in Camara Laye and Ben Okri is a highlight of his incisive scholarship and reverberates through many of the works here The originality of his insights his analytic rigour the catholicity of his tastes and competences and the power and grace of his expression make this volume compelling Relations of Power in Early Neo-Assyrian State Ideology Mattias Karlsson, 2016-03-07 This volume examines the state ideology of Assyria in the Early Neo Assyrian period 934 745 BCE focusing on how power relations between the Mesopotamian deities the Assyrian king and foreign lands are described and depicted It undertakes a close reading of delimited royal inscriptions and iconography making use of postcolonial and gender theory and addresses such topics as royal deification religious imperialism ethnicity and empire and gendered imagery The important contribution of this study lies especially in its identification of patterns of ideological continuity and variation within the reigns of individual rulers between various localities and between the different rulers of this period and in its discussion of the place of Early Neo Assyrian state ideology in the overall development of Assyrian propaganda It includes several indexed appendices which list all primary sources present all divine and royal epithets and provide all of the royal visual representations and incorporates numerous illustrations such as maps plans and royal iconography The Aesthetics of Violence in the Prophets Julia Myers O'Brien, Chris Franke, 2010-04-08 At the 2006 annual meeting of the Society of Biblical Literature the Prophetic Texts in their Ancient Contexts section devoted a session to the theme The Aesthetics of Violence Participants were invited to explore multiple dimensions of prophetic texts and their violent rhetoric The results were rich engaging discussion of violent images in ancient Near Eastern art and in modern film as well as advancing our understanding of the poetic skill required for invoking terror through words This volume collects those essays as well as others especially commissioned for its creation As a collection they address questions that are at once ancient and distressingly modern What do violent images do to us Do they encourage violent behavior and or provide an alternative to actual violence How do depictions of violence define boundaries between and within communities What readers can and should readers make of the disturbing rhetoric of violent prophets Contributors include Corrine Carvahlo Cynthia Chapman Chris Franke Bob Haak Mary Mills Julia O'Brien Kathleen O'Connor Carolyn Sharp Yvonne Sherwood and Daniel Smith Christopher Greek Myths and Mesopotamia Charles Penglase, 2003-10-04 Examines the Mesopotamian influence on Greek mythology in literary works of the epic period concentrating in particular on journey myths A major contribution to the understanding of the colourful myths involved
