Establishing Dress History will appeal not only to students and academics but all those with an interest in the history of dress and fashion. The title fuses together two areas of current academic interest: dress design and history and current museum studies approaches. Self and World Bruin Carleton Christensen, 2008-12-18

This book draws upon the phenomenological tradition of Husserl and Heidegger in order to provide an alternative elaboration of John McDowell's thesis that in order to understand how self-conscious subjectivity relates to the world, perception must be understood as a genuine unity of spontaneity, concept and receptivity, intuition. This alternative elaboration permits clarification of McDowell's critique of Donald Davidson and development of an alternative conception of perceptual experience, giving clear sense to McDowell's claim that self-conscious subjectivity is so inherently in touch with its world that scepticism about the latter must be incoherent. It also permits development of a more accurate, historically oriented critique of the metaphysics constraining one to construe perceptual experience in ways which misrepresent how self-conscious subjectivity bears upon the world. It shows that many of McDowell's meta-philosophical views are implicitly Husserlian and that had McDowell developed them further, he would have avoided the paradoxical meta-philosophy he adopts from Wittgenstein. In conclusion, it intimates the central weakness in Husserl's position which takes one from Husserl to Heidegger. The book is written in terms accessible to analytic philosophers and will thus enable them to see the central differences between analytic and phenomenological approaches to intentionality and self-consciousness. The Language of Fashion Roland Barthes, 2013-10-24

Roland Barthes was one of the most widely influential thinkers of the 20th Century and his immensely popular and readable writings have covered topics ranging from wrestling to photography. The semiotic power of fashion and clothing were of perennial interest to Barthes and The Language of Fashion, now available in the Bloomsbury Revelations series, collects some of his most important writings on these topics. Barthes' essays here range from the history of clothing to the cultural importance of Coco Chanel, from hippy style in Morocco to the figure of the dandy, from colour in fashion to the power of jewellery. Barthes' acute analysis and constant questioning make this book an essential read for anyone seeking to understand the cultural power of fashion.

Japanese Fashion Designers Bonnie English, 2013-08-15

Over the past 40 years, Japanese designers have led the way in aligning fashion with art and ideology as well as addressing identity and social politics through dress. They have demonstrated that both creative and commercial enterprise is possible in today's international fashion industry and have refused to compromise their ideals, remaining autonomous and independent in their design, business affairs and distribution methods. The inspirational Miyake, Yamamoto and Kawakubo have gained worldwide respect and admiration and have influenced a generation of designers and artists alike. Based on twelve years of research, this book provides a richly detailed and uniquely comprehensive view of the work of these three key designers It outlines their major contributions and the subsequent impact that their work has had upon the next generation of fashion and textile designers around the world Designers discussed include Issey Miyake Yohji Yamamoto Rei Kawakubo Naoki Takizawa Dai Fujiwara Junya Watanabe Tao Kurihara Jun Takahashi Yoshiki Hishinuma Junichi Arai Reiko Sudo the Nuno Corporation Makiko Minagawa Hiroshi Matsushita Martin Margiela Ann Demeulemeester Dries Van Noten Walter Beirendonck Dirk Bikkembergs Alexander McQueen Hussein Chalayan and Helmut Lang

Fashioning the Afropolis Kerstin Pinther, Kristin Kastner, Basile Ndjio, 2022-07-14 A revelation Reclaiming fashion from its European history Shane White With a focus on sub Saharan Africa Fashioning the Afropolis provides a range of innovative perspectives on global fashion design dress photography and the body in some of the major cities with a focus on Lagos Johannesburg Dakar and Douala It contributes to the ongoing debates around the globalization of fashion and fashion theory by exploring fashion as a genuine urban phenomenon on the continent and among its diasporas To date fashion and city have not been systematically related to each other in the African context and for too long a western centric gaze has dominated scholarship resulting in the perception of Africa as provincial and its visual arts and textile cultures as static and folkloristic This perspective is all the more distorted given Africa's rich sartorial past With a huge number of tailors ready to adapt and renew clothing reshaping garments into contemporary styles and many cities in Africa becoming hot spots for a steadily growing and well connected scene of fashion designers in the past 20 years the time is ripe for a reevaluation and reconsideration of the fashionscapes of Africa Leading scholars offer an updated empirical and theoretical foundation on which to base new and exciting research on sub Saharan fashion challenging perceptions and offering new insights

Radical Theology Ingolf U. Dalferth, 2016-07-01 Ingolf U Dalferth develops a radical theology that unfolds the orienting strength of faith for human life from the event of God's presence to every present In a concise and clear manner Dalferth outlines the theological and philosophical approaches to hermeneutics in the modern era in order to promote a convincing and defensible theology for the twenty first century critically carrying on Martin Heidegger and Rudolf Bultmann without forgetting Karl Barth The result of his reconstruction is a radical theology that neither glorifies premodern theology in an antimodern attitude nor seeks a mystical deepening of the secular but argues for a radical change in theological perspective of the possible In doing so theology unfolds limit concepts that restrict the claims of science and philosophy critically and develops ideas of orientation that illumine the ways in which human life is understood and lived in radically new ways in faith From here Dalferth unfolds the reality of revelation and the Christian sense of an unconditional hope that fundamentally transcends all beliefs based on mundane realities and orients the world on something beyond its own temporal horizon its loving Creator
