Radical Thought In Italy A Potential Politics:

Radical Thought in Italy Paolo Virno, Michael Hardt, 1996 Provides an original view of the potential for a radical democratic politics today that speaks not only to the Italian situation but also to a broadly international context First the essays settle accounts with the culture of cynicism opportunism and fear that has come to permeate the Left They then proceed to analyze the new difficulties and possibilities opened by current economic conditions and the crisis of the welfare state Finally the authors propose a series of new concepts that are helpful in rethinking revolution for our times Contributors include Giorgio Agamben Massimo De Carolis Alisa Del Re Augusto Illuminati Maurizio Lazzarato Antonio Negri Franco Piperno Marco Revelli Rossana Rossanda Carlo Vercellone and Adelino Zanini Deleuze, Marx and Politics Nicholas Thoburn, 2003-09-02 A critical and provocative exploration of the political conceptual and cultural points of resonance between Deleuze's minor politics and Marx's critique of capitalist dynamics engaging with Deleuze's missing work The Grandeur of Marx This book explores the core categories of communism and capital in conjunction with a wealth of contemporary and historical political concepts and movements from the lumpenproletariat and anarchism to Italian autonomia and Antonio Negri's immaterial labour and the refusal of work This book will serve as an introduction to Deleuze's politics and the contemporary vitality of Marx for students and will challenge scholars in the fields of social and political theory sociology and cultural studies The Italian Difference Lorenzo Chiesa, Alberto Toscano, 2009 This volume brings together essays by different generations of Italian thinkers which address whether in affirmative problematizing or genealogical registers the entanglement of philosophical speculation and political proposition within recent Italian thought Nihilism and biopolitics two concepts that have played a very prominent role in theoretical discussions in Italy serve as the thematic foci around which the collection orbits as it seeks to define the historical and geographical particularity of these notions as well their continuing impact on an international debate The volume also covers the debate around O'Connell's weak thought O'Connell's pensiero debole the feminist thinking of sexual difference the re-emergence of political anthropology and the question of communism The contributors provide contrasting narratives of the development of post-war Italian thought and trace paths out of the theoretical and political impasses of the present O'Connell's against what Negri in the text from which the volume takes its name calls O'Connell's the Italian desert O'Connell's Experimental Politics and the Making of Worlds Anja Kanngieser, 2016-04-15 Creative strategies have been central to global social movements From the theatrics of the 1999 Seattle protests to the rebel clowns at the 2005 G8 summit in Gleneagles and the antics of the Yes Men the crossovers between art and politics have increasingly become more visible and prolific This book explores an innovative form of creative and communicative politics the performative encounter as a strategy for facilitating new ways of being relating and making worlds Unlike existing scholarship that frames such encounters in artistic or cultural terms this book analyzes performative encounters through an organizational lens to accentuate their social political potential engaging a wealth of material from autonomist philosophy political science performance studies geography and social movement texts Intertwining conceptual and ethnographic research it uniquely maps out one narrative of the encounter tracing a line through the twentieth century from the Berlin Dadaists to the Situationist International to several contemporary German collectives and campaigns showing how performative encounters intervene in global and local issues such as the privatization of public space and resources human mobility and the corporatization of education

The Mask and the Flag Paolo Gerbaudo, 2017-05-15 From the Arab Spring to the Spanish Indignados from Occupy Wall Street in New York to Nuit Debout in Paris contemporary protest bears the mark of citizenism a libertarian and participatory brand of populism which appeals to ordinary citizens outraged at the arrogance of political and financial elites in the wake of the Great Recession This book draws on 140 interviews with activists and participants in occupations and demonstrations to explore the new politics nurtured by the movement of the squares of 2011 16 and its reflection of an exceptional phase of crisis and social transformation Gerbaudo demonstrates how in waging a unifying struggle against a perceived Oligarchy today's movements combine the neo anarchist ethos of horizontality and leaderlessness inherited from the anti globalisation movement and a resurgent populist demand for full popular sovereignty and the reclamation of citizenship rights He analyses the manifestation of this ideology through the signature tactics of these upheavals including protest camps in public squares popular assemblies and social media activism And he charts its political ramifications from Podemos in Spain to Bernie Sanders in the US revealing how the central square occupations have been foundational to current movements for radical democracy worldwide

Arte Programmata Lindsay Caplan, 2022-10-25 Tracing the evolution of the Italian avant garde s pioneering experiments with art and technology and their subversion of freedom and control In postwar Italy a group of visionary artists used emergent computer technologies as both tools of artistic production and a means to reconceptualize the dynamic interrelation between individual freedom and collectivity

Working contrary to assumptions that the rigid structural nature of programming limits subjectivity this book traces the multifaceted practices of these groundbreaking artists and their conviction that technology could provide the conditions for a liberated social life Situating their developments within the context of the Cold War and the ensuing crisis among the Italian left Arte Programmata describes how Italy's distinctive political climate fueled the group's engagement with computers cybernetics and information theory Creating a broad range of immersive environments kinetic sculptures domestic home goods and other multimedia art and design works artists such as Bruno Munari Enzo Mari and others looked to the conceptual frameworks provided by this new technology to envision a way out of the ideological impasses of the age Showcasing the ingenuity of Italy's earliest computer based art this study highlights its distinguishing characteristics while also exploring concurrent developments across the globe Centered on the relationships between art technology and politics Arte Programmata considers an important antecedent to the digital age The Power of Maybes Betti

Marenko, 2025-08-21 In a world of endless predictions and precision algorithms The Power of Maybes offers a daring new way forward What if uncertainty isn't a problem to solve but a gift This book reclaims hesitation ambiguity and not knowing as powerful tools to resist the rigid control of digital systems The Power of Maybes explores the radical idea that embracing uncertainty is essential in our age of planetary computation Where machines seek to lock down knowledge capture potential dictate futures and foreclose possibilities The Power of Maybes argues for the cultivation of doubt ambiguity and unknowing as forms of resistance By reframing the unknown as a powerful resource The Power of Maybes presents a bold approach to living and thinking alongside machines without surrendering to their grip Blending philosophy design and critical tech studies The Power of Maybes challenges dystopian fears and utopian hopes about technology and champions new ways of being open ungridded unscaled It's a call to cultivate the unknown and nurture potential For those ready to reclaim their agency in an algorithmic age this book is a guide to living with oceanic uncertainty and finding power in it Ambiguities of Activism Ingrid M. The Long 1968 Daniel J. Sherman, Ruud van Dijk, Jasmine Alinder, A. Aneesh, 2013-07-16 Delving into a tumultuous year's impact on art culture and politics this book illuminates the often overlooked histories of 1968 The Journal of American History From the mid 1960s to the early 1970s revolutions in theory politics and cultural experimentation swept around the world These changes had as great a transformative impact on the right as on the left A touchstone for activists artists and theorists of all stripes the year 1968 has taken on new significance for the present moment which bears certain uncanny resemblances to that time The Long 1968 explores the wide ranging impact of the year and its aftermath in politics theory the arts and international relations and its uses today Global Perspectives on Critical Architecture Gevork Hartoonian, 2016-03-03 Judging from the debates taking place in both education and practice it appears that architecture is deeply in crisis New design and production techniques together with the globalization of capital and even skilled labour have reduced architecture to a commodified object its aesthetic qualities tapping into the current pervasive desire for the spectacular These developments have changed the architect's role in the design and production processes of architecture Moreover critical architectural theories including those of Breton Heidegger and Benjamin which explored the concepts of technology modernism labour and capital and how technology informed the cultural along with later theories from the 1960s which focused more on the architect's theorization of his/her own design strategies seem increasingly irrelevant In an age of digital reproduction and commodification these theoretical approaches need to be reassessed Bringing together essays and interviews from leading scholars such as Kenneth Frampton Peggy Deamer Bernard Tschumi Donald Kunze and Marco Biraghi this volume investigates and critically addresses various dimensions of the present crisis of architecture It poses questions such as Is architecture a conservative cultural product servicing a given producer-consumer system Should architecture's affiliative ties with capitalism be subjected to a measure of criticism that can be expanded to the entirety of the cultural realm Is architecture's infusion into the cultural the reason for the visibility of architecture today What room does the city leave for architecture beyond the present delirium of spectacle Should the thematic of various New Left criticisms of capitalism be taken as the premise of architectural criticism Or alternatively putting the notion of criticality aside is it enough to confine criticism to the production of insightful and pleasurable texts
