Raiding The Icebox Reflections On Twentieth Century Culture:

Raiding the Icebox Peter Wollen, 2020-05-05 Raiding the Icebox is a kaleidoscopic review of the avant garde and radical subcultures of the twentieth century and explains how the most powerful artistic statements of the era redrew the line between high and low art Beginning with an analysis of the role of Diaghilev and the Russian Ballet Wollen argues that modernism has always had a hidden suppressed side which cannot easily be absorbed into the master narrative of modernity Wollen reviews the hopes fears and expectations of artists and critics such as the Bauhaus movement as fascinated by Henry Ford s assembly line as they were by the Hollywood dream factory concluding with Guy Debord s caustic dystopian vision of an all consuming Society of the Spectacle Finally Wollen chronicles the emergence of a subversive sensibility as he explores some of the unexpected new cultural forms which non Western artists are taking as modernism enters into crisis at the beginning of a new century reversing the rules of the game and raiding the icebox of the West Raiding the Icebox.

Reflections on Twentieth-century Culture Peter Wollen, 2008 Raiding the Icebox Peter Wollen, 1993 Raiding the Icebox presents an alternative history of 20th century art and culture focusing especially on the rise and fall of modernism

J.G. Ballard's Surrealist Imagination Jeannette Baxter, 2016-12-05 Making the case that J G Ballard s fictional and non fictional writings must be read within the framework of Surrealism Jeannette Baxter argues for a radical revisioning of Ballard that takes account of the political and ethical dimensions of his work Ballard s appropriation of diverse Surrealist aesthetic forms and political writings Baxter suggests are mobilised to contest official narratives of postwar history and culture and offer a series of counter historical and counter cultural critiques Thus Ballard s work must be understood as an exercise in Surrealist historiography that is politically and ethically engaged Placing Ballard s illustrated texts within this critical framework permits Baxter to explore the effects of photographs drawings and other visual symbols on the reading experience and the production of meaning Ballard s textual spectacles raise a variety of questions about the shifting role of the reader and the function of the written text within a predominantly visual culture while acknowledging the visual contexts of Ballard s Surrealist writings allows a very different historical picture of the author and his work to emerge Designs on

Modernity Tag Gronberg, 2003 Tag Gronberg here presents the 1925 Paris Exhibition as a key moment in updating the image of Paris as capital of the 19th century He focuses on the Exhibition as a set of contesting representations of the modern city stressing the importance of consumption and display for concepts of urban modernity The Old Bridge of

Mostar and Increasing Respect for Cultural Property in Armed Conflict Jadranka Petrovic, 2012-11-08 Although it is precious to all humanity including future generations cultural property is targeted wilfully during armed conflict In the litany of other war crimes the wilful destruction of cultural property is pushed from centre stage The deliberate destruction of the Old Bridge of Mostar is emblematic of tragedies wrought on priceless cultural objects internationally Drawing on the relevant rules of international humanitarian law and the jurisprudence of the International Criminal Tribunal for the former

Yugoslavia this book analyses the normative implications of the deliberate targeting and destruction of the Old Bridge and also examines enforcement efforts in order to identify issues relating to international legal protection of cultural property arising from this incident

The Oxford Handbook of Science Fiction Rob Latham, 2014 The Oxford Handbook of Science Fiction attempts to describe the historical and cultural contours of SF in the wake of technoculture studies Rather than treating the genre as an isolated aesthetic formation it examines SF's many lines of cross pollination with technocultural realities since its inception in the nineteenth century showing how SF's unique history and subcultural identity has been constructed in ongoing dialogue with popular discourses of science and technology The volume consists of four broadly themed sections each divided into eleven chapters Section I Science Fiction as Genre considers the internal history of SF literature examining its characteristic aesthetic and ideological modalities its animating social and commercial institutions and its relationship to other fantastic genres Section II Science Fiction as Medium presents a more diverse and ramified understanding of what constitutes the field as a mode of artistic and pop cultural expression canvassing extra literary manifestations of SF ranging from film and television to videogames and hypertext to music and theme parks Section III Science Fiction as Culture examines the genre in relation to cultural issues and contexts that have influenced it and been influenced by it in turn the goal being to see how SF has helped to constitute and define important sub cultural groupings social movements and historical developments during the nineteenth twentieth and twenty first centuries Finally Section IV Science Fiction as Worldview explores SF as a mode of thought and its intersection with other philosophies and large scale perspectives on the world from the Enlightenment to the present day

Strangers at Home Rita Keresztesi, 2005-01-01 Strangers at Home reframes the way we conceive of the modernist literature that appeared in the period between the two world wars This provocative work shows that a body of texts written by ethnic writers during this period poses a challenge to conventional notions of America and American modernism By engaging with modernist literary studies from the perspectives of minority discourse postcolonial studies and postmodern theory Rita Keresztesi questions the validity of modernism's claim to the neutrality of culture She argues that literary modernism grew out of a prejudiced racially biased and often xenophobic historical context that necessitated a politically conservative and narrow definition of modernism in America With the changing racial ethnic and cultural makeup of the nation during the interwar era literary modernism also changed its form and content Contesting traditional notions of literary modernism Keresztesi examines American modernism from an ethnic perspective in the works of Harlem Renaissance immigrant and Native American writers She discusses such authors as Countee Cullen Nella Larsen Zora Neale Hurston Anzia Yezierska Henry Roth Josephina Niggli Mourning Dove D Arcy McNickle and John Joseph Mathews among others Strangers at Home makes a persuasive argument for expanding our understanding of the writers themselves as well as the concept of modernism as it is currently defined
