Marvelous Encounters Willard Bohn, 2005 The concept of poeisie critique poetry that possesses both a poetic and a critical function has an extensive history in modern literature Written in response to another work of art be it a painting a film a poem or a piece of music the critical poem comments on the latter in various ways but refuses to abandon its poetic mission Marvelous Encounters examines surrealist poets writing in French Spanish and Catalan who experimented with this intriguing genre The first three chapters are concerned with the French surrealists who began to cultivate critical poetry toward the end of World War I Chapter 2 considers how Louis Aragon and Philippe Soupault appropriated the critical poem as they reviewed books of poetry and films starring Charlie Chaplin Chapter 3 which examines how Benjamin Peret and Paul Eluard conceived of critical poetry analyzes their response to poems by Tristan Tzara and paintings by Giorgio de Chirico and Joan Miro Chapter 4 is devoted entirely to Andre Breton

Plaited Arts from the Borneo Rainforest Bernard Sellato, 2012 One of the richest basketry traditions in the world the plaited objects produced in Borneo are created from plant materials gathered in the rainforest and worked by hand using techniques passed from generation to generation Unrivaled in their combination of beauty form and function they provide a unique window on the way of life of Borneo s inhabitants Plaited Arts from the Borneo Rainforest recognizes this plaiting tradition as the primary creative expression of the peoples of Borneo producing the most ingenious and aesthetically appealing material goods found on the island Using a contextual and interdisciplinary approach that connects botanical and technical features with economic social and ritual elements the book explores how people in Borneo rely on plaited articles whether for daily use or in the ritual sphere The sophisticated sense of design rich iconography and complex social and ceremonial efficacy of these objects are unsurpassed Elaborately patterned mats from the Ngaju people of southern Borneo for example portray the cosmos and are the most prominent decorative features of the Ngaju ceremonial cycle The sun hats of the Kenyah using a unique resist dye technique display patterns that were once taboo to all but the nobility The exquisite plaited designs of Iban seed baskets stained red with the prized dragon s blood pigment show the importance of the planting ritual for the vital and sacred rice crop The contributors to this volume are among the world s leading authorities of the arts of Borneo These twenty scholars and artisans are from ten different nations including Indonesia and Malaysia and from Borneo itself Sarawak Sabah and Kalimantan Their original work is supplemented by a selection of texts written by three pioneer authors that describe Borneo basketry before the Second World War The volume is divided into twelve parts that cover the complex role of basketry in Borneo societies the ethnobotanical and technical aspects of basketry the distribution of plaited arts by region the past and current market for Borneo s plaited arts and style and identity The abundantly illustrated Appendix surveys the relation between the tropical environment and the material culture Illustrated with more than 1 250 color photographs newly commissioned maps rare historical photographs and detailed line drawings Plaited Arts from the Borneo Rainforest is an essential addition to the libraries of universities collectors and scholars alike Publication of this book is supported by Total E P Indonesie as part of its Corporate Social Responsibility program for preserving Indonesian cultural heritage AQA Key Stage 3 Science Pupil Book 2 Neil Dixon,Carol Davenport,Nick Dixon,Ian Horseywell,2018-03-05 Ensure that every student develops the maths literacy and working scientifically skills they need to succeed with this skills focused Pupil Book that contains a variety of activities questions and real world examples that are tailored to the Big Ideas and mastery goals of the AQA KS3 Syllabus Develop conceptual understanding with a variety of questions that require students to apply their knowledge to real world scenarios Build working scientifically skills with various Enquiry activities matched to the AQA syllabus Test understanding and measure progress with factual recall questions developed around the ideas of Generalisations Principles and Models Stretch knowledge and understanding with extend tasks linked to higher order thinking skills Compare Evaluate and Predict Bridge the gap between Key Stages 2 and 3 with a focus on maths and enquiry skills and understanding scientific terminology Provides comprehensive support for non specialist or less confident teachers when used in conjunction with the online Teaching Learning resources Written in association with Sheffield Hallam University The Science Education Team within Sheffield Institute of Education SIOE is one of the leading STEM education groups in Europe with a worldwide reputation for knowledge exchange and research SIOE leads national and international STEM education programmes covering curriculum and pedagogical design and development widening participation to traditionally under represented groups and research in science education The World of Tattoo Maarten Hesselt van Dinter,2005 An amazing collection of images and information on the tattooing customs of all cultures that ever practised tattooing Tribes of Timeless Tradition MD Sharr,101-01-01 Tribes of Timeless Tradition explores the lives of 51 indigenous tribes worldwide celebrating their unique cultures rituals and enduring wisdom Set in forests mountains and plains these communities have preserved their identities despite global pressures toward uniformity The book offers rich authentic stories about their origins social structures spiritual beliefs and ceremonies like the Sun Dance and Rambu Solo It highlights how tribes balance tradition and change with insights into gender roles leadership and family life Written in an accessible style the book invites readers to understand and empathize with these cultures beyond stereotypes revealing their resilience amid modern challenges such as globalization and climate change By showcasing the deep connection between people and nature the book emphasizes the importance of protecting indigenous heritage as living wisdom It serves as both a cultural celebration and a call to action urging respect preservation and advocacy for these vibrant communities Foundations of the Earth H.H. Shugart,2014-07-08 Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth God asks Job in the Whirlwind Speech but Job cannot reply This passage which some environmentalists and religious scholars treat as a green creation myth drives H H Shugart s extraordinary investigation in which he uses verses from God s speech to Job to explore the planetary system animal domestication sea level rise evolution biodiversity weather phenomena and climate change Shugart calls attention to the rich resonance between the Earth s natural history and the workings of religious feeling the wisdom of Bible scripture and the arguments of Bible ethicists The divine questions that frame his study are quintessentially religious and the global changes humans have wrought on the Earth operate in not only the physical chemical and biological spheres but also the spiritual realm Shugart offers a universal framework for recognizing and confronting the global challenges humans now face the relationship between human technology and large scale environmental degradation the effect of invasive species on the integrity of ecosystems the role of humans in generating wide biotic extinctions and the future functioning of our oceans and tides Wings of Memory Anna Kyss,2013-11-15 When Kiernan leaves England he hopes to unlock the secrets that could save his people from extinction But the path to answers is fraught with danger He never imagines what lay hidden in the Costa Rican rainforest Shortly after arriving Kiernan encounters the human girl that he spent months yearning for Kiernan must decide between his love for Meghan and his budding loyalty to his brother Avery He tries to place his brother first until faced with an impossible decision Kiernan needs to tap into magic to save his people The only problem unleashing his magic involves breaking his vow to his brother What if the only way to help Avery is to choose Meghan
