Last Chance Tourism Harvey Lemelin, Jackie Dawson, Emma J. Stewart, 2013-03 Concerns over vanishing destinations such as the Great Barrier Reef the Everglades of Florida the ice cap on Mt Kilimanjaro and the Maldives have prompted some travel operators and tour agencies to recommend these destinations to consumers before they disappear This is the first book to empirically examine and evaluate this contemporary tourism development providing a new angle on the effects of global change and pressures of visitation on tourism destinations It aims to develop the conceptual definition of last chance tourism examine the ethics surrounding this type of travel and provide case studies highlighting this form of tourism in different regions. In particular, it critically reviews the advantages of publicizing these vulnerable destinations to raise awareness and promote conservation efforts but also the issue of attracting more tourists seeking to undergo such experiences before they are gone forever, accelerating the negative impacts. It further examines current trends, discusses escalating challenges, and highlights future opportunities.

Living in a Dynamic Tropical Forest Landscape Nigel Stork, Stephen M. Turton, 2009-01-26. This book brings together a wealth of scientific findings and ecological knowledge to survey what we have learned about the Wet Tropics rainforests of North Queensland, Australia. This interdisciplinary text is the first book to provide such a holistic view of any tropical forest environment, including the social and economic dimensions. The most thorough assessment of a tropical forest landscape to date. Explores significant scientific breakthroughs in areas including conservation genetics, vegetation modeling, agroforestry, and revegetation techniques, biodiversity assessment, and modeling impacts of climate change and the integration of science in natural resource management. Research achieved in part due to the Cooperative Research Centre for Tropical Rainforest Ecology and Management, the Rainforest CRC. Written by a number of distinguished international experts, contains chapter summaries and section commentaries.
