Raunion Fascination:

Separation and Reunion in Modern China Charles Stafford, 2000-11-09 In this original and readable book Charles Stafford describes the Chinese fascination with separation and reunion Drawing on his field studies in Taiwan and mainland China he gives a vivid account of raucous festivals of reunion elaborate rituals for the sending off of gods and daughters poetic moments of leave takings between friends and bitter political rhetoric about Chinese national unity The idioms and practices of separation and reunion which are woven into the fabric of daily life help people to explain the passions aroused by the possibility of national division In this book the discussion of everyday rituals leads into a unique and accessible general introduction to Chinese and Taiwanese society and culture Twin Flame: Ways To Reach A Twin Flame Reunion reconciliation of North and South following the Civil War depended as much on cultural imagination as on the politics of Reconstruction Drawing on a wide range of sources Nina Silber documents the transformation from hostile sectionalism to sentimental reunion rhetoric Northern culture created a notion of reconciliation that romanticized and feminized southern society In tourist accounts novels minstrel shows and popular magazines northerners contributed to a mythic and nostalgic picture of the South that served to counter their anxieties regarding the breakdown of class and gender roles in Gilded Age America Indeed for many Yankees the ultimate symbol of the reunion process and one that served to reinforce Victorian values as well as northern hegemony was the marriage of a northern man and a southern woman Southern men also were represented as affirming traditional gender roles As northern men wrestled with their nation's increasingly global and aggressive foreign policy the military virtues extolled in Confederate legend became more admired than reviled By the 1890s concludes Silber northern whites had accepted not only a newly resplendent image of Dixie but also a sentimentalized view of postwar reunion Lakeside Reunion Lisa Jordan, 2011-11-01 Bed and breakfast owner Lindsey Porter prays she won't run into Stephen Chase when she returns to Shelby Lake Five years ago the cop jilted her to marry another woman and
