Creatures of Darkness Gene D. Phillips, 2021-03-17 An exhaustively researched survey of Raymond Chandler s thorny relationship with Hollywood during the classic period of film noir Alain Silver film producer and author Raymond Chandler s seven novels including The Big Sleep 1939 and The Long Goodbye 1953 with their pessimism and grim realism had a direct influence on the emergence of film noir Chandler worked to give his crime novels the flavor of his adopted city Los Angeles which was still something of a frontier town rife with corruption and lawlessness In addition to novels Chandler wrote short stories and penned the screenplays for several films including Double Indemnity 1944 and Strangers on a Train 1951 His work with Billy Wilder and Alfred Hitchcock on these projects was fraught with the difficulties of collaboration between established directors and an author who disliked having to edit his writing on demand Creatures of Darkness is the first major biocritical study of Chandler in twenty years Gene Phillips explores Chandler s unpublished script for Lady in the Lake examines the process of adaptation of the novel Strangers on a Train discusses the merits of the unproduced screenplay for Playback and compares Howard Hawks s director s cut of The Big Sleep with the version shown in theaters Through interviews he conducted with Wilder Hitchcock Hawks and Edward Dmytryk over the past several decades Phillips provides deeper insight into Chandler s sometimes difficult personality Chandler s wisecracking private eye Philip Marlowe has spawned a thousand imitations Creatures of Darkness lucidly explains the author s dramatic impact on both the literary and cinematic worlds demonstrating the immeasurable debt that both detective fiction and the neo noir films of today owe to Chandler s stark vision

Lesley Henderson,1991 Cited in Sheehy and BCL3 The foremost reference in the field completely revised and updated and now covering about 600 authors mainly English language writers whose work appeared during or since the time of Conan Doyle The entry for each writer consists of a biography a bibliography and a signed critical essay Living authors were invited to add a comment on their work many of them accepted and their remarks are both entertaining and enlightening Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR True to the Spirit Colin MacCabe,Kathleen Murray,Rick Warner,2011-01-26 Fifty percent of Hollywood productions each year are adaptations films that use an already published book dramatic work or comic as their source material If the original is well known then for most spectators the question of whether these adaptations are true to the spirit of the original is central The recent wave of adaptation studies dismisses the question of fidelity as irrelevant mistaken or an affront to the unstable nature of meaning itself The essays gathered here mixing the field s top authorities Andrew Gunning Jameson Mulvey and Naremore with fresh new voices take the question of correspondence between source and adaptation as seriously as do producers and audiences Spanning examples from Shakespeare to Ghost World and addressing such notable directors as Welles Kubrick Hawks Tarkovsky and Ophuls the contributors write against the grain of recent adaption studies by investigating the question of what fidelity might mean in its broadest and truest sense what it might reveal of the adaptive process and why it is still one of the richest veins of investigation in the study of cinema
