Main Disha Experts,2021-02-04 The Indian Partition in Literature and Films Rini Bhattacharya Mehta,Debali Mookerjee-Leonard,2014-12-17 This book presents an examination of fictional representations in books and films of the 1947 Partition that led to the creation of the sovereign nation states of India and Pakistan While the process of representing the Partition experience through words and images began in the late 1940s it is only in the last few decades that literary critics and film scholars have begun to analyse the work The emerging critical scholarship on the Partition and its aftermath has deepened our understanding of the relationship between historical trauma collective memory and cultural processes and this book provides critical readings of literary and cinematic texts on the impact of the Partition both in the Punjab and in Bengal The collection assembles studies on Anglophone writings with those on the largely unexplored vernacular works and those which have rarely found a place in discussions on the Partition It looks at representations of women s experiences of gendered violence in the Partition riots and how literary texts have filled in the lack of the human dimension in Partition histories The book goes on to highlight how the memory of the Partition is preserved and how the creative arts relation to public memory and its place within the public sphere has changed through time Collectively the essays present a nuanced understanding of how the experience of violence displacement and trauma shaped postcolonial societies and subjectivities in the Indian subcontinent Mapping the diverse topographies of Partition related uncertainties and covering both well known and lesser known texts on the Partition this book will be a useful contribution to studies of South Asian History Asian Literature and Asian Film Blockbuster Secret Codes BradyGames,BradyGames Staff,1998-09 Entertainment Industry Economics Harold L. Vogel,2020-07-23 Fully updated this edition offers a unique integrated approach to the economics and financing of entertainment and media sectors Iranian Cinema Uncensored Shiva Rahbaran,2015-12-18 The New Iranian Cinema is considered by many to be the most fascinating cultural phenomenon produced within the Islamic Republic of Iran Containing twelve first hand interviews with the most renowned film makers living and working in contemporary Iran this book provides insights into film making within a society often at odds with its rulers Reflecting upon the 1979 revolution and its influence on their work as well as the effect of their films on Iranian audiences film makers such as Abbas Kiarostami and Jafar Panahi highlight the key issues surrounding the reception of Iranian cinema in the West and also its role in the development of Iran s global image Through these conversations Shiva Rahbaran reveals that the seeds of the New Iranian Cinema were sown long before the revolution and that Iranian film makers gave rise to a cinema which became a global phenomenon despite censorship sanctions and political isolation Making a Promised Land Paula J. Massood,2013-01-22 Making a Promised Land examines the interconnected histories of African American representation urban life and citizenship as documented in still and moving images of Harlem over the last century Paula J Massood analyzes how photography and film have been used over time to make African American culture visible to itself and to a wider audience and charts the ways in which the Mecca of the New Negro became a battleground in the struggle to define

American politics aesthetics and citizenship Visual media were first used as tools for uplift and education With Harlem s downturn in fortunes through the 1930s narratives of black urban criminality became common in sociological tracts photojournalism and film These narratives were particularly embodied in the gangster film which was adapted to include stories of achievement economic success and later in the century a nostalgic return to the past Among the films discussed are Fights of Nations 1907 Dark Manhattan 1937 The Cool World 1963 Black Caesar 1974 Malcolm X 1992 and American Gangster 2007 Massood asserts that the history of photography and film in Harlem provides the keys to understanding the neighborhood s symbolic resonance in African American and American life especially in light of recent urban redevelopment that has redefined many of its physical and demographic contours Faith and the Zombie Simon Bacon,2023-03-27 Themes of faith and religion have been threaded through popular representations of the zombie so often that they now seem inextricably linked Whether as mindless servants to a Vodou Bokor or as evidence of the impending apocalypse the ravenous undead have long captured something of society s relationships with spirituality religion and belief By the start of the 21st century religious beliefs are as varied as the many manifestations of the zombie itself and both themes intersect with various ideological environmental and even post human concerns This book surveys the various modern religious associations in zombie media Some characters believe that the undead are part of God s plan others theorize that the environment might be saving itself or that zombies might be predicting life and hybridity beyond human existence Timely and important this work is a meditation on how faith might not just be a forerunner to the apocalypse but the catalyst to new kinds of life beyond it

Tradition, Culture and Aesthetics in Contemporary Asian Cinema Peter C. Pugsley,2016-02-24 From the critically acclaimed Malaysian film Sepet to the on going box office successes of the films created by Hong Kong director Wong Kar Wai cinematic texts from the nations of Asia are increasingly capturing audiences beyond their national boundaries Tradition Culture and Aesthetics in Contemporary Asian Cinema explores the rise of popular Asian cinema and provides an understanding of the aesthetic elements that mark these films as Asian cinema Incorporating examples of contemporary films from China Japan Hong Kong Korea Singapore Malaysia and India Peter C Pugsley gives readers a fresh insight into the rapidly developing discourse on popular Asian media The book s chapters focus on the aesthetic features of national cinemas and the intersections of local global encountered in the production distribution and consumption of contemporary Asian films By tracking across some of the most influential countries in Asia the book is able to offer new perspectives into the visual and aural features that create greater understanding between East and West As distribution and technological advances make Asian films more readily available an understanding of the different aesthetics at play will enable readers of this book to recognise key cultural motifs found in cinematic texts from Asia
