Reading Aboriginal Women's Life Stories Anne Brewster, 2016-01-07 A wave of life stories and autobiographical narratives by Aboriginal women began in the late 1970s and gained momentum a decade later with the publication of Sally Morgan s My Place 1987 which became a bestseller While some of the books of the first wave focused mainly if not exclusively on the author Aboriginal women s life stories widened over time to include transgenerational histories of the family Reading Aboriginal Women s Life Stories is an important discussion of books that have shaped our understanding of contemporary Indigenous Australian literature Anne Brewster provides an in depth textual analysis of three key titles and situates them in relation to concepts of history race gender family storytelling and Aboriginality in modern Australia Looking back we can recognise now what an extraordinary phenomenon these life stories are and how they have changed understandings of Aboriginality and writing The return of this classic book in a new edition is a welcome reminder that Anne Brewster s careful deeply respectful and informed approach to these writings is as necessary now as it ever was Professor Gillian Whitlock FAHA

Modern/Postmodern Silvio Gaggi,2015-08-10 Silvio Gaggi s survey of the vast terrain of twentieth century arts and ideas is unique not only for its scope but also for the clarity and cohesiveness it brings to wide ranging seemingly disparate works By identifying underlying epistemological aesthetic and ethical issues Gaggi draws connections among such modern and postmodern masterpieces as Pirandello s and Brecht s theater Fowles s and Barth s fiction Warhol s paintings Godard s and Bergman s films and Derrida s literary theory Modern Postmodern begins with a discussion of the profound skepticism about traditional beliefs and about our ability to know the self that lies at the heart of both modernism and postmodernism Gaggi identifies the modernist response to this doubt as the rejection of mimesis in favor of a purely formalistic or expressionistic art The postmodern response on the other hand is above all to create art that is self referential concerned with art itself the history of art or its processes Drawing from the work of Piranadello and Brecht paradigms that can be applied to many different art works Gaggi emphasizes how these works from diverse media relate to one another and what their relationships are to the contemporary artistic and philosophical climate He concentrates on the works themselves but examines theory as a parallel manifestation of the same obsessions that inform recent literature and art Gaggi asks finally if self referential art can also be politically and ethically engaged with the reality outside it He concludes that the postmodern obsession with language narrativity and artifice is not necessarily a decadent indulgence but is at its best an honest inquiry into the problems questions and paradoxes of language Modern Postmodern is a lively approach to postmodern art that will interest all students and scholars of contemporary art and literature How to Heal After

Twikirize, Helmut Spitzer, 2019-01-10 The importance of integrating indigenous knowledge systems into mainstream social work and ensuring context specific culturally relevant practice has long been emphasised in Africa and the Global South This book based on empirical research presents a selection of indigenous and innovative models and approaches of problem solving that will inspire social work practice and education At the core of these models lies a conceptual understanding of the community as the overarching principle for effective social work and social development in African contexts The empirical part of the book has a focus on East Africa and highlights case examples from Rwanda Tanzania Uganda Burundi and Kenya The book is intended for use by those involved in social work and social development practice social work educators students as well as policy makers It is relevant not just for audiences in Africa but also the global social work community especially those interested in promoting culturally relevant social work Come Ride With Me Lorraine Dube, 2011-02-17 When Lorraine Dube went for her annual mammogram on September 4 1997 she asked the technician for compression films of her upper chest area right front shoulder and underarm areas She explained that for almost a year she had felt a pulling sensation in these areas Although her doctor had assured her many times that it was nothing probably just an after effect of the radiation treatment she had after her lumpectomy seven and a half years earlier she still had a nagging concern about that odd tight feeling in her chest When the technician took the films it was five times more painful than when she did the routine compression shots of the breast Tears were running down Lorraine's face but she not dare move Four days later her doctor called Lorraine this is Dr V How long have you had that mass in your chest You have to see a surgeon immediately Lorraine asked herself why Dr V had ignored her concerns all those times She reprimanded herself for not seeking a second opinion when she first experienced that pulling sensation and did not feel comfortable with his lack of response to her concern So many things went through her mind yet memories of her own lumpectomy were just the tip of the iceberg She relived the horror of more than thirty years earlier when as a mother of three small children at age 22 she heard those terrible words from Dr DeVillers about her 26 year old husband's cancer condition four to six weeks the doctor had said All of this flashed through her mind at speed warp ten literally in just a few seconds Her life path had taken her through quite a few coaster rides throughout her 57 years but all those were kiddy rides compared to this one And so the mother of all roller coaster rides of life began with that fateful phone call from Dr V Lorraine Dube beat the odds She beat that aggressive Stage 3 sarcoma lodged in her chest wall But the battle was not without many many scars In the process she lost five ribs all her lymph nodes in the right arm area a piece of her clavicle most of the use of her right arm and hand and nearly her life After seven surgeries chemotherapy treatments experimental brachytherapy and countless battles with infection including a flesh eating bacteria inside her chest wall Lorraine Dube was cancer free but left suffering from chronic debilitating pain a souvenir from her ordeal that she would carry for the rest of her life Lorraine was a survivor always had been But this time it was different Why had God spared her from the terrible cancer and its aftermath of surgery infections and lost body parts only to leave her suffering from such unimaginable pain The cancer was gone but at what cost What the heck was she supposed to do with the rest of her life On her way to figuring it out her daughter suggested that she write a book about her life Don't worry about writing a best seller Mom Just write it from the heart Write it for your grandsons Five years later Ms Dube began writing this book the story of her life She tells the story of her life from the earliest recollections of childhood through the sometimes rough years of adulthood all with a few purposes in mind She wants to tell her grandsons about her history their history and to relate all her adult experiences some good some bad some easy some tough all with the purpose of showing them that they too are survivors like their Memere Her message Life may indeed be a roller coaster but nothing is impossible Somewhere along the line writing this book became Lorraine s therapy She began to make peace with and sense of the chronic pain that gripped her and kept her from leading the life she wanted the life she expected After all her golden years were supposed to be her happiest This b Pink Ribbon Journey Stories From the Heart , Finding Your Place Helen Jennings,2016-11-07 The purpose of my story is to leave a legacy that will point the next generation to the faithfulness of Gods love and to make them aware that with God all things are possible God can turn the worst situation into something wonderful like he did for me I believe that although everyone is created for greatness without motivation it could take a lifetime to discover the true talents he or she has hidden inside After missing out on numerous childhood dreams I was motivated to write my story Finding Your Place in the hope of encouraging others not to give up My story is a living testimony that Gods love is the source of ones strength Despite the many hurdles that life throws at us Gods love never fails Instead his love has guided me to discovering my true purpose I trust that my story Finding Your Place will inspire someone out of their struggles and lead many more souls to the kingdom of God Springboards to Inquiry Paige Jaeger,Mary Boyd Ratzer,2019-07-23 This collection of ideas for lessons provides school librarians with inspiration for meeting the tsunami of new standards dictating change for today s next generation learners Today s school librarian has less and less time to prepare for instruction This book delivers lesson plans for the librarian to implement immediately as is or with a little adaptation Using the new AASL standards and an Information Literacy scope and sequence carefully crafted for K 6 students the authors package lessons that are both engaging and challenging This book inspires librarians to go beyond their usual role in literacy promotion and instruction only and moves to preparing students to be inquiry learners by embracing inquiry based learning Lessons include the Essential Question begin with the end in mind pre and post assessment ideas technology integration ideas where applicable reading and research ideas and collaboration ideas when applicable AASL Standards and others are noted via an integrated standards checklist while new educational research demonstrates that standards can be met via engaging collaborative and interesting lessons modeled throughout the text
