The Field of Chinese Language Education in the U.S. Vivian Ling, 2018-02-13 This book will be the first account of the development of Chinese as a foreign language in the U S as it interacts with the relevant entities in China and beyond There are virtually no systematic retrospective reflections on the field outside of the greater China region and yet over the past decades the field has grown by leaps and bounds and it is critical now that we pause to reflect on what has happened and what we can learn from the past The contributors are among some of the most influential pioneers in the field whose entire academic lives have been dedicated to its development The Field of Chinese Language Education in the U S A Retrospective of the 20th Century is aimed at those who are currently engaged in Chinese language education as teachers or as students

Reading Chinese Transnationalisms Maria N. Ng, Philip Holden, 2006-07-01 Reading Chinese Transnationalisms responds to the growing interest in transnational cultural studies by examining Chinese transnationalism from a variety of perspectives In interrogating social practices and literary and filmic texts which frequently cross national borders in imagining Chineseness the contributors to this volume also challenge received notions of Chinese transnationalism opening up new perspectives on the topic The structure of the book is clearly subdivided into sections on society literature and films for quick reference and each essay is written in accessible language without sacrificing intellectual rigor and critical relevance The international list of contributors and the wide ranging subjects they address make Reading Chinese Transnationalisms a unique work in its field This volume will appeal to all with an interest in Chinese transnationalism and in particular those who come from a variety of disciplinary backgrounds in the humanities and social science

The Poetics of Reading Eitel Friedrich Timm, Kenneth Mendoza, 1993 Situates the act of critical reading in the context of poetic aesthetics This volume situates the act of critical reading in the context of poetic aesthetics Running alongside recent post structuralist theories the textuality of such matters as literary discourse history media philosophy and religion has emerged as a focal point of debate in the humanities The essays here examine how questions of the canon genres and transformation of texts challenge the present epistemological situation taking an interdisciplinary approach to textual readings their methodology is drawn from a range of literary figures and critics including Lessing Kafka Walter Benjamin and Derrida The study also addresses the controversial predicament of subjectivity as one of the key terms in current literary and historical scholarship

Cultural History of Reading Sara E. Quay, Gabrielle R. Reading China Against the Grain Carlos Rojas, Mei-hwa Sung, 2020-10-28 Through an analysis of a wide array of contemporary Chinese literature from inside and outside of China this volume considers some of the ways in which China and Chineseness are understood and imagined Using the central theme of the way in which literature has the potential to both reinforce and to undermine a national imaginary the volume contains chapters offering new perspectives on well known authors from Jin Yucheng to Nobel Prize winning Mo Yan as well as chapters focusing on authors rarely included in discussions of contemporary Chinese literature such as the expatriate authors Larissa Lai and Xiaolu Guo The volume is complemented by chapters covering more marginalized literary figures throughout history such as Macau born poet Yiling the Malaysian born novelist Zhang Guixing and the ethnically Korean author Kim Hak ch l Invested in issues ranging from identity and representation to translation and grammar it is one of the few publications of its kind devoting comparable attention to authors from Mainland China authors from Manchuria Macau and Taiwan and throughout the global Chinese diaspora Reading China Against the Grain Imagining Communities is a rich resource of literary criticism for students and scholars of Chinese studies sinophone studies and comparative literature

China Learns from the Soviet Union, 1949-Present Hua-Yu Li, 2010-01-05 It is well known that the Soviet Union strongly influenced China in the early 1950s since China committed itself both to the Sino Soviet alliance and to the Soviet model of building socialism What is less well known is that Chinese proved receptive not only to the Soviet economic model but also to the emulation of the Soviet Union in realms such as those of ideology education science and culture In this book an international group of scholars examines China s acceptance and ultimate rejection of Soviet models and practices in economic cultural social and other realms The chapters vividly illustrate the wide ranging and multi dimensional nature of Soviet influence which to this day continues to manifest itself in one critical aspect namely in China s rejection of liberal political reform

Hybrid Modernity Mary Padua, 2020-07-26 This book provides a detailed historical and design analysis of the development of parks and modern landscape architecture in late 20th century China It questions whether the fusion of international influences with the local Chinese design vocabulary in late 20th century China has created a distinctive and novel approach to the design of public parks Hybrid Modernity proposes a new theory for examining the design of public parks built in post Mao China since the reforms and sets the various processes for China s late 20th century socio cultural context Drawing on modernization theory research on China s modernity local and global cultural trends it illustrates through a range of case studies ways hybrid modernity defines a new design genre and language for the spatial forms of parks that emerged in China s secondary cities Featured case studies include the Living Water Park in Chengdu Sichuan province Zhongshan Shipyard Park in Guangdong Province Jinji Lake Landscape Master Plan in Suzhou Jiangsu province and the West Lake Southern Scenic Area Master Plan in Hangzhou Zhejiang province This book argues that these forms represent a new stage in China s history of landscape architecture The work reveals that as a new profession landscape architecture has greatly contributed to China s massive urban experiment This book is an ideal read for students enrolled in landscape architecture architecture fine arts and urban planning programs who are engaged in learning the arts and international design education Biographical Dictionary of Chinese Women Lily Xiao Hong Lee, A. D. Stefanowska, Sue Wiles, Clara Wing-chung Ho, 1998 The first biographical dictionary in any Western language devoted solely to Chinese women Biographical Dictionary of Chinese Women is the product of years of research translation and writing by scores of China scholars from around the world Volume II Twentieth Century includes a far greater range of women than would have been previously possible because of the enormous amount of historical material and scholarly research that has become available recently They include scientists businesswomen sportswomen military officers writers scholars revolutionary heroines politicians musicians opera stars film stars artists educators nuns and more Reading the Right Text Xiaomei Chen, 2003-07-31 Reading the Right Text introduces six new plays from contemporary China five of which are translated here into English for the first time Chosen from a wide variety of well received dramas of the period each play represents the traditions and changes in a particular subgenre regional theater proletarian theater women's theater history plays and experimental theater Xiaomei Chen's wide ranging and perceptive introduction locates the plays in the political and cultural history of modern China to demonstrate the interrelationship between theater history society and everyday experience She highlights the origin and development of the different sub genres and outlines critical approaches from numerous fields including gender studies performance studies subaltern studies and comparative cultural studies Quite apart from their importance as theater these plays are crucial for a fully rounded understanding of the cultural dynamics involved in the transition from Maoist to post Mao China from socialist realist drama to the post socialist response to a market economy and a society in flux Political Science Reading Lists and Course Outlines, 1981 Negative Exposures Margaret Hillenbrand, 2020-03-06 When nations decide to disown their troubled pasts how does this strategic disavowal harden into social fact In Negative Exposures Margaret Hillenbrand investigates the erasure of key aspects of such momentous events as the Nanjing Massacre the Cultural Revolution and the Tiananmen Square protests from the Chinese historical consciousness not due to amnesia or censorship but through the operations of public secrecy Knowing what not to know she argues has many stakeholders willing and otherwise who keep quiet to protect themselves or their families out of shame pragmatism or the palliative effects of silence Hillenbrand shows how secrecy works as a powerful structuring force in Chinese society one hiding in plain sight and identifies aesthetic artifacts that serve as modes of reckoning against this phenomenon She analyses the proliferation of photo forms remediations of well known photographs of troubling historical events rendered in such media as paint celluloid fabric digital imagery and tattoos as imaginative spaces in which the shadows of secrecy are provocatively outlined
