Reader's Companion to the Twentieth Century Novel Peter Parker, 1994

The Reader's Companion to the Twentieth-century Novel Peter Parker, Frank Kermode, 1994 Can you remember who marries the narrator of A Dance to the Music of Time Or what happens at the end of Nineteen Eighty Four Of which English classic did the author remark How unexpected how odd that people can read that difficult grinding stuff Which American classic left unfinished at its author's death was put together by editors Which novel did Evelyn Waugh inaccurately describe as an obscene book about domestic servants How many times has the Booker Prize been awarded to non British writers Who won the National Book Award in 1960 John Updike Flannery O'Connor John Barth Harper Lee What novels were people reading when the TLS was first published When Madame Butterfly was first performed When Matisse painted The Dance When Wall Street crashed When the Titanic sank When Einstein formulated his General Theory of Relativity When bobbed hair was all the rage And which year was that The answer to all these questions and many more will be found in The Reader's Companion to the Twentieth Century Novel An informative and invaluable guide to modern fiction it contains detailed accounts of some 750 novels from Britain Ireland the United States Australia New Zealand Canada Africa India and the Caribbean All the century's major novelists are represented alongside less celebrated writers whose work has been unjustly neglected or fallen victim to the vagaries of literary fashion Orwell to the Present John Brannigan, 2002-11-25 This essential introductory guide provides a comprehensive critical survey of the diverse and rich body of literary writing produced in England in the postwar period John Brannigan explores the relationship between literature and history and analyses how poets playwrights and novelists have revisited notions of Englishness represented Englands of the past and sought to make new maps of English culture and society Orwell to the Present Literature in England 1945-2000 combines original readings of familiar texts with wide ranging explorations of the principal themes and historical and cultural contexts of literature since the end of the Second World War Writers considered in detail include Martin Amis Simon Armitage Pat Barker John Betjeman Edward Bond Angela Carter Margaret Drabble Sarah Kane Mark Ravenhill Jean Rhys Salman Rushdie Sam Selvon Graham Swift and Evelyn Waugh

Reader's Guide to Literature in English Mark Hawkins-Dady, 2012-12-06 Reader's Guide Literature in English provides expert guidance to and critical analysis of the vast number of books available within the subject of English literature from Anglo Saxon times to the current American British and Commonwealth scene It is designed to help students teachers and librarians choose the most appropriate books for research and study

Domestic Modernism, the Interwar Novel, and E.H. Young Chiara Briganti, Kathy Mezei, 2016-12-05 Domestic Modernism the Interwar Novel and E H Young provides a valuable analytical model for reading a large body of modernist works by women who have suffered not only from a lack of critical attention but from the assumption that experimental modernist techniques are the only expression of the modern In the process of documenting the publication and reception history of E H Young's novels the authors suggest a paradigm for analyzing the situation of women writers during the interwar years Their discussion of Young in the context of both canonical and noncanonical writers challenges the generic label and literary status of the domestic novel as well as facile assumptions about popular and middlebrow fiction canon formation aesthetic value and modernity The authors also make a significant contribution to discussions of the everyday and to the burgeoning field of homeculture as they show that the fictional embodiment and inscription of home by writers such as Young Virginia Woolf Elizabeth Bowen Ivy Compton Burnett Lettice Cooper E M Delafield Stella Gibbons Storm Jameson and E Arnot Robertson epitomize the long standing symbiosis between architecture and literature or more specifically between the house and the novel

Vikram Seth's Poetics of Pastiche Mélanie Heydari, 2024-09-21 Vikram Seth is a critical enigma He is recognized as one of the most important Indian Anglophone authors of his generation his individual works have been widely reviewed yet his work has rarely been approached as a whole and remains surprisingly understudied Perhaps the chief reason for the paucity of critical response to the full compass of Seth's work is his disregard for intellectual fashion Indeed Seth is at once very popular and deliberately unfashionable His literary affiliations are conservative seemingly uninterested in any revisionary narrative he is equally unconcerned by the interpenetration of cultures in our globalized world representing assimilation rather than cultural difference He defies the expectations of both postcolonial and world literature therefore to discuss his critical neglect is to shed light on the limitations of these labels As the most thorough attempt to map a general poetics in Seth's work this study the first of its kind on this writer develops a new critical methodology to capture the nuances of Seth's literary strategies It provides scholars and students insight into the key features of Seth's work and uncovers a consistent authorial strategy running through his seemingly disconnected body of work namely a systematic use of intertextual practices
