Reading California, 2000      Reading California; Art, Image And Identity, 1900-2000 Stephanie Barron, Sheri Bernstein, Ilene Susan Fort, 2000      Welcome to Painterland Anastasia Aukeman, 2016-08-09 The Rat Bastard Protective Association was an inflammatory close knit community of artists who lived and worked in a building they dubbed Painterland in the Fillmore neighborhood of midcentury San Francisco The artists who counted themselves among the Rat Bastards which included Joan Brown Bruce Conner Jay DeFeo Wally Hedrick Michael McClure and Manuel Neri exhibited a unique fusion of radicalism provocation and community Geographically isolated from a viable art market and refusing to conform to institutional expectations they animated broader social and artistic discussions through their work and became a transformative part of American culture over time Anastasia Aukeman presents new and little known archival material in this authorized account of these artists and their circle a colorful cultural milieu that intersected with the broader Beat scene

Art and the City Sarah Schrank, 2011-01-01 Art and the City explores the contentious relationship between civic politics and visual culture in Los Angeles Struggles between civic leaders and modernist artists to define civic identity and control public space highlight the significance of the arts as a site of political contest in the twentieth century      Art in California (World of Art) Jenni Sorkin, 2021-10-05 A fully illustrated history of modern and contemporary art in California from the early twentieth century to the present day This introduction to the art of California focuses on the distinctive role the state played in the history of American art from early twentieth century photography and Chicana mural painting to the fiber art movement and beyond Shaped by a compelling network of geopolitical influences including waves of migration and exchange from the Pacific Rim and Mexico the influx of African Americans immediately after World War II and global immigration after quotas were lifted in the 1960s California is a center of artistic activity whose influence extends far beyond its physical boundaries Including work by artists Yun Gee Helen Lundberg Henry Taylor Richard Diebenkorn Albert Bierstadt Chiura Obata and Judith Baca among many others art historian Jenni Sorkin tells California's story as a place at the forefront of radical developments in artistic culture Organized chronologically and thematically with full color illustrations throughout this attractive study stands as an important chronicle of California's contribution to modern and contemporary art in the United States and globally In one stunning volume Art in California addresses the vast appetite for knowledge on contemporary art in California      The Spiritual Imagination of the Beats David Stephen Calonne, 2017-08-17 The first comprehensive study to explore the role of esoteric occult alchemical shamanistic mystical and magical traditions in the work of major Beat authors      Situation Aesthetics Kirsi Peltomäki, 2014-02-14 The first book length study of this influential artist's work focusing on the participatory role of the human subject rather than the art object Michael Asher doesn't make typical installations Instead he extracts his art from the institutions in which it is shown culling it from collections histories or museums own walls Since the late 1960s Asher has been creating situations that have not only taught us about the conditions and contexts of contemporary art but have worked to define it In Situation Aesthetics Kirsi Peltomäki examines Asher's practice by analyzing the social situations that the artist constructs in his work for viewers participants and institutional representatives including gallery directors curators and other museum staff members Drawing on art criticism the reports of viewers and participants in Asher's projects and the artist's own archives Peltomäki offers a comprehensive account of Asher's work over the past four decades Because of the intensely site specific nature of this work as well as the artist's refusal to reconstruct past works or mount retrospectives many of the projects Peltomäki discusses are described here for the first time By emphasizing the social and psychological sites of art rather than the production of autonomous art objects Peltomäki argues Asher constructs experientially complex situations that profoundly affect those who encounter them bringing about both personal and institutional transformation

A Companion to California History William Devereaux, David Igler, 2014-01-28 This volume of original essays by leading scholars is an innovative thorough introduction to the history and culture of California Includes 30 essays by leading scholars in the field Essays range widely across perspectives including political social economic and environmental history Essays with similar approaches are paired and grouped to work as individual pieces and as companions to each other throughout the text Produced in association with the Huntington-USC Institute on California and the West

Looking for Bruce Conner Kevin Hatch, 2016-02-12 A new perspective on the enormously influential but insufficiently understood work of San Francisco based artist Bruce Conner 1933-2008 In a career that spanned five decades most of them spent in San Francisco Bruce Conner 1933-2008 produced a unique body of work that refused to be contained by medium or style Whether making found footage films hallucinatory ink blot graphics enigmatic collages or assemblages from castoffs Conner took up genres as quickly as he abandoned them In this first book length study of Conner's enormously influential but insufficiently understood career Kevin Hatch explores Conner's work as well as his position on the geographical cultural and critical margins Generously illustrated with many color images of Conner's works Looking for Bruce Conner proceeds in roughly chronological fashion from Conner's notorious assemblages BLACK DAHLIA and RATBASTARD among them through his experimental films populated by images from what Conner called the tremendous fantastic movies going in my head from all the scenes I'd seen his little known graphic work and his collage and inkblot drawings

A Planetary Lens Audrey Goodman, 2021-10 Thomas J Lyon Book Award from the Western Literature Association A Planetary Lens delves into the history of the photo book the materiality of the photographic image on the page and the cultural significance of landscape to reassess the value of print to locate the sites where stories resonate and to listen to western women's voices From foundational California photographers Anne Brigman and Alma Lavenson to contemporary Native poets and writers Leslie Marmon Silko and Joy Harjo women artists have used photographs to generate stories and to map routes across time and place A Planetary Lens illuminates the richness and theoretical sophistication of such composite texts Looking beyond the ideologies of wilderness migration and progress that have shaped settler and popular conceptions of the region A Planetary Lens shows how many artists gather and assemble images and texts to reimagine landscape identity and history in the U S West Based on extensive research into the production publication and circulation of women s photo texts A Planetary Lens offers a fresh perspective on the entangled and gendered histories of western American photography and literature and new models for envisioning regional relations California Polyphony Mina Yang,2010-10-01 What does it mean to be Californian To find out Mina Yang delves into multicultural nature of musics in the state that has launched musical and cultural trends for decades In the early twentieth century an orientalist fascination with Asian music and culture dominated the popular imagination of white Californians and influenced their interactions with the Asian Other Several decades later tensions between the Los Angeles Police Department and the African American community made the thriving jazz and blues nightclub scene of 1940s Central Avenue a target for the LAPD s anti vice crusade The musical scores for Hollywood s noir films confirmed reactionary notions of the threat to white female sexuality in the face of black culture and urban corruption while Mexican Americans faced a conflicted assimilation into the white American mainstream Finally Korean Americans in the twenty first century turned to hip hop to express their cultural and national identities A compelling journey into the origins of musical identity California Polyphony explores the intersection of musicology cultural history and politics to define Californian Chicano and Chicana Art Jennifer A. Photo-Essays about Asian American Women in Life Magazine 1936 to 1965 Karen L. Ching Carter,2021-10-12 The

"Women, Workers, and Race in LIFE Magazine" Dolores Flamiano, 2017-07-05 The tension between social reform photography and photojournalism is examined through this study of the life and work of German gr ansel Mieth 1909 1998 who made an unlikely journey from migrant farm worker to Life photographer She was the second woman in that role after Margaret Bourke White Unlike her colleagues Mieth was a working class reformer with a deep disdain for Life s conservatism and commercialism In fact her work often subverted Life s typical representations of women workers and minorities Some of her most compelling photo essays used skillful visual storytelling to offer fresh views on controversial topics birth control vivisection labor unions and Japanese American internment during the Second World War Her dual role as reformer and photojournalist made her a desirable commodity at Life in the late 1930s and early 40s but this role became untenable in Cold War America when her career was cut short Today Mieth s life and photographs stand as compelling reminders of the vital yet overlooked role of immigrant women in twentieth century photojournalism Women Workers and Race in LIFE Magazine draws upon a rich array of primary sources including Mieth s unpublished memoir oral histories and labor archives The book seeks to unravel and understand the multi layered often contested stories of the photographer s life and work It will be of interest to scholars of photography history women s studies visual culture and media history

The Frontier of Leisure Lawrence Culver, 2012-06-07 Tracing the history of Southern California from the late 19th century through the late 20th century this book reveals how this region did much more than just create lavish resorts like Santa Catalina Island and Palm Springs it literally remade American attitudes towards leisure

Sublime Spaces and Visionary Worlds Leslie Umberger, 2007-10-04 The need to personalize our surroundings is a defining human characteristic For some this need becomes a compulsion to transform their personal surroundings into works of art The John Michael Kohler Arts Center in Sheboygan Wisconsin has undertaken the mission to preserve these environments which are presented for the first time in Sublime Spaces and Visionary Worlds This colorful and inspiring book features the work of twenty two vernacular artists whose locales personal histories and reasons for art making vary widely but who all share a powerful connection to the home as art Featured projects range from art environments that remain intact such as Simon Rodia s Watts Towers in California to sites lost over the years such as Emery Blagdon s six hundred elaborate Healing Machines made of copper aluminum tin foil magnets ribbons farm machinery parts painted light bulbs beads coffee can lids and more Sublime Spaces and Visionary Worlds is the first book to explore these spectacularly offbeat spaces in detail From Original Rhinestone Cowboy Loy Bowlin s wall to wall glitter and foil living room to the concrete bestiary of witch of Fox Point Mary Nohl each artist and project is described in detail through a wealth of visuals and text Sublime Spaces and Visionary Worlds reminds us that our decorative choices tell the world not just what we like but who we are

Camera Constructs Andrew Higgott, Timothy Wray, 2016-12-05 Photography and architecture have a uniquely powerful resonance architectural form provides the camera with the subject for some of its most compelling imagery while photography profoundly influences how architecture is represented imagined and produced Camera Constructs is the first book to reflect critically on the varied interactions of the different practices by which photographers artists architects theorists and historians engage with the relationship of the camera to architecture the city and the evolution of Modernism The title thus on the one hand opposes the medium of photography and the materiality of construction but on the other can be read as saying that the camera invariably constructs what it depicts the photograph is not a simple representation of an external reality but constructs its own meanings and reconstructs its subjects Twenty three essays by a wide range of historians and theorists are grouped under the themes of Modernism and the Published Photograph Architecture and the City Re imagined Interpretative Constructs and Photography in Design Practices They are preceded by an Introduction that comprehensively outlines the subject and elaborates on the diverse historical and theoretical contexts of the authors approaches Camera Constructs provides a rich and highly original analysis of the relationship of photography to built form from the early modern period to the present day

New York and Los Angeles David Halle, 2003-08-15 This volume presents advanced studies that consider the fundamental difference of urban center versus decentralization that operates in the cities of New York and Los Angeles while comparing politics and culture in each area

J. R. Davidson Lilian Pfaff, 2019-09-02 Julius Ralph Davidson is widely known as the architect of Thomas Mann s house Born 1889 in Berlin Davidson left Germany in 1923 and emigrated to the USA In Los Angeles he designed some 150 projects among them three houses for the experimental Case Study House Program This long overdue publication is a comprehensive documentation of Davidson s life and work highlighting J R s contribution to modernism in California in the 1930s and 1940s

Group f.64 Mary Street Alinder, 2014-11-04 An engaging illuminating group biography of the photographers of the seminal West Coast movement the first in depth book on Group f 64 Group f 64 is perhaps the most famous movement in the history of photography counting among its members Ansel Adams Imogen Cunningham Dorothea Lange Willard Van Dyke and Edward

Weston Revolutionary in their day Group f 64 was one of the first modern art movements equally defined by women From the San Francisco Bay Area its influence extended internationally contributing significantly to the recognition of photography as a fine art The group first identified as such in a 1932 exhibition was comprised of strongly individualist artists brought together by a common philosophy and held together in a tangle of dynamic relationships They shared a conviction that photography must emphasize its unique capabilities those that distinguished it from other arts in order to establish the medium's identity Their name f 64 they took from a very small lens aperture used with their large format cameras a pinprick that allowed them to capture the greatest possible depth of field in their lustrous sharply detailed prints In today's digital world these straight photography champions are increasingly revered Mary Alinder is uniquely positioned to write this first group biography A former assistant to Ansel Adams she knew most of the artists featured Just as importantly she understands the art Featuring fifty photographs by and of its members Group f 64 details a transformative period in art with narrative flair
