Onukaogu, 2005 The first in a two volume set of selected papers presented at the 3rd Pan African Conference on Reading for All in Kampala Uganda This volume considers literacy within the formal education system in Africa bringing international perspectives to the topic It documents programs that are working to improve practices and the teaching of reading in schools and literacy in more than one language presenting case studies from Tanzania Uganda Zambia and Nigeria It addresses the subject of developing culturally appropriate educational and literacy materials particularly in African languages The final section considers more esoteric debates about cultural barriers to reading and the development of a reading culture and the cultural differences in reading and interpretation of literary texts Rural Community Libraries in Africa: Challenges and Impacts Dent, Valeda F., Goodman, Geoff, Kevane, Michael, 2014-01-31 This book investigates the relationship between local libraries and community development from the historical roots of rural libraries to their influence on the literacy economy and culture of the surrounding region Provided by publisher The Languages of Africa and the Diaspora Jo Anne Kleifgen, George C. Bond, 2009 This book takes a fresh look at subordinated vernacular languages in the context of African Caribbean and US educational landscapes highlighting the social cost of linguistic exceptionalism for speakers of these languages Chapters describe contravening movements toward various forms of linguistic diversity and offer a comprehensive approach to language awareness in educative settings Language, Literature and Style in Africa Taiwo Abioye, Arua E. Arua, Kehinde Ayoola, 2014-11-24 This book brings together the seminal contributions of scholars interested in the study of language literature and style in Africa It marks a response to the longstanding neglect of stylistic analysis of canonical and emergent fictional and non fictional African prose and discourse As a reaction to this neglect of African literary artefacts the book provides a welcome and timely deviation from the norm The contributions to this volume include discussions that are both analytical and theoretical analyses of style at the levels of lexis and semantics newer and more innovative analyses that highlight the relationship between style pedagogy and technology mediated discourse and a final discussion that provides an appropriate background against which issues related to language literature and style can be understood In terms of the volumes representation of diverse geographical contexts the papers included here bridge the North South divide in Africa and there are contributions from Libya Nigeria South Africa and Zimbabwe As such the book is an interesting collection of papers that illuminate the study of literary style in Africa and highlight the need for a greater revival of it on a larger scale Grammatical Change in English World-Wide Peter Collins, 2015-02-24 The contributions to this volume apply and extend the techniques of corpus linguistics and diachronic linguistics to the challenge of describing and explaining grammatical change in varieties of English world wide The book is divided into two parts with ten chapters on Inner Circle varieties such as Australian Canadian and Irish English and eight on Outer Circle varieties such as Philippine Indian and Nigerian English

Contributors examine a range of topics including the progressive aspect modal auxiliaries do support verb morphology and quotatives using a wide variety of corpus resources Overarching research questions addressed include the following Do diachronic tendencies observed in a particular variety converge with diverge from or run in parallel with those in the parent variety What are the possible causes of changes observed e g English teaching traditions Americanisation internal changes in registers This book will appeal to linguists particularly those interested in grammatical description corpus linguistics and World Englishes
