Reading Between the Lines

An inference is a conclusion you come to based on reasoning and evidence within a text. Read each paragraph below and answer the inference question that follows.

Harold grunted as he walked into the house. He carried four paper bags in his arms, each one filled to the brim. Suddenly, he tripped and one of the bags fell, spilling oranges, a loaf of bread, and two sticks of butter onto the floor. "At least I didn't drop the eggs!" he exclaimed.	Where was Harold before he got home? How do you know?
Each day, before Renee goes to work, she puts on her brown uniform and sturdy work boots. She has to get to work early because a lot of creatures, big and small, are counting on her for their breakfast. Later in the day, she will make sure their habitats are clean. Sometimes she gets dirty at work, but she enjoys seeing all the people who come to visit, peering through fences and windows as she works.	Where does Renee work? How do you know?
Patrick arrived home from school with a grin. He burst through the front door and ran into the living room where he saw boxes wrapped in shiny paper and balloons tied to a chair. On the counter sat a chocolate cake with eleven candles. He reached for a taste of the frosting, but his mother scolded, "We have to sing to you before eating the cake!"	What is Patrick celebrating? How do you know?
Lucy sighed happily as she curled into a ball and basked her fur. After a long afternoon of laying in the sun, she was happy to be snuggled up on her soft bed. She gazed contentedly as she closed her eyes, ready for a nap. Suddenly, she heard a buzzing noise. Her eyes snapped open and her ears twitched. She spotted a fly landing nearby. Lucy watched it carefully for a moment and then, POUNCE! She caught it!	Who is Lucy? How do you know?

Reading Between the Lines Gene Edward Veith Jr., 2013-01-31 Here is a guidebook for those who want to learn how to recognize books that are spiritually and aesthetically good to cultivate good literary taste Gene Edward Veith presents basic information to help book lovers understand what they read from the classics to the bestsellers He explains how the major genres of literature communicate He explores ways comedy tragedy realism and fantasy can portray the Christian worldview These discussions lead to a host of related topics the value of fairy tales for children the tragic and the comic sense of life the interplay between Greek and Biblical concepts in the imagination and the new post modernism a subject of vital importance to Christians In the pages of this book readers will meet writers past and present who carry on a great literary tradition By supporting worthy authors Christians can exert a powerful influence on their culture Reading Between the Lines Annabel M. Patterson, 1993 For those exhausted by the highly charged debates and polarized climate of literary studies today Annabel Patterson's Reading Between the Lines offers a strategic compromise a moderate stance between the radical opponents and the zealous protectors of the traditional Western canon She reconsiders the value of reading the white male canonical writers of antiquity and of early modern England finding in them a set of values different from those supposed by both sides in the Great Books quarrel Rather than being the unthinking or deliberate promoters of political or cultural uniformity these writers subjected such conventional notions to critical scrutiny and even promoted alternatives The key to this revisionary argument is reading between the lines a strategy usually associated with the eccentric conservatism of Leo Strauss but which Patterson shows is not only implicit in all acts of interpretation but played a particularly important role in an age when writing between the lines was often essential for the writer's survival Patterson argues that if we learn how to read those old and seemingly alien texts which themselves responded to rapid and unsettling change in the arenas of religion politics and education they have much that is liberating to tell us about our own expanding culture including the importance of republican constitutionalism freedom of speech and civic and religious toleration This salutary redefinition of humanism arises from Patterson's essays on Plato Spenser Shakespeare Donne and Milton but the book also deals with the gendered topics of rape and divorce and with popular culture in the sixteenth century and today These interests are not on opposite sides of some theoretical boundary but as Patterson demonstrates from contemporary novels by Joseph Heller and Nancy Price interdependent
