Red Women on the Silver Screen Lynne Attwood,1993

The Soviet Union was the first country in the world to declare women equal to men At the same time cinema was emerging as the newest and most accessible form of popular entertainment and as a powerful tool in propagandizing the Party line This book looks at the interaction between these two phenomena at the extent to which women s new status and roles were reflected and promoted on Soviet screens throughout the country s history Part I written by Lynne Attwood provides an essential framework for readers unfamiliar with Soviet studies It offers a lucid and lively account of the milestones in Soviet history the importance of film within this history and the changing images and experiences of Soviet women within both cinema and society In Parts II and III women from the former Soviet Union film critics directors camera operators and script writers relate their own experiences in the film industry and their responses to the images of women portrayed on screen This crisply written book illustrated with evocative photographs from Soviet films will provide readers with a real insight into the relationship between women and film in the Soviet Union

Women in Russia and Ukraine Rosalind J.

Marsh,1996-03-14 In this book leading western specialists and Russian and Ukrainian feminists examine how gender has shaped Russian and Ukrainian history from the twelfth century to the present In particular they analyse the current backlash against women s emancipation Using new archival materials and the insights of feminist theory the contributors explore the relevance of gender equality and difference in Russian history They find that women have not merely submitted to the patriarchal system but instead have found creative ways of resisting it Chapters focusing on contemporary Russia discuss abortion pornography sexual minorities young women s lifestyles the impact of economic reform on women and the development of the women s movement This book will be of interest to students and specialists in Russian Ukrainian and women s studies as well as to historians political scientists sociologists and economists

Women in Soviet Film Marina

Rojavin,Tim Harte,2017-09-22 This book illuminates and explores the representation of women in Soviet cinema from the late

1950s through the 1960s and into the 1970s a period when Soviet culture shifted away to varying degrees from the well established conventions of socialist realism Covering films about working class women rural and urban women and women from the intelligentsia it probes various cinematic genres and approaches to film aesthetics while it also highlights how Soviet cinema depicted the ambiguity of emerging gender roles pressing social issues and evolving relationships between men and women It thereby casts a penetrating light on society and culture in this crucial period of the Soviet Union's development

Sexuality, Nudity and the Body in Soviet Cinema Birgit Beumers, Catherine G  ry, Eug  nie Zvonkine, 2025-07-18 This book explores evocations of and allusions to sexual desire in Soviet cinema 1919 1991 By deploying several lines of investigation from the cult of the masculine strong body in Stalinist cinema to the shifting signification of the naked body male and female in post war cinema and to the display of a sexualised body in the late Soviet era this book establishes the extent to which Soviet cinema actually did reveal sexuality It also explores how external political and social factors impacted representation Overall the contributions challenge the narrative of Soviet cinema as an art form where the representation of sexuality was taboo and outline shifts in the concepts of the naked and sexualised body of sexuality and sexual relationships This book will be of interest to scholars and researchers in the field of film studies Slavic and Soviet studies cultural studies politics and gender studies

Beyond the Color Line and the Iron Curtain Kate A. Baldwin, Katherine Anne Baldwin, 2002-10-17 Re-examines the relations between African Americans and the Soviet Union from a more transnational perspective and shows how these relations were crucial in the formation of Black modernism

Esfir Shub Ilana Shub Sharp, 2021-12-30 Esfir Shub was the only prominent female director of nonfiction film present at the dawning of the Soviet film industry She was in fact the first woman both to write critical texts on cinema and then practically apply these theorisations in her own films As such her syncretism of cinema theory and praxis inspired her to ask questions regarding both the nature of nonfiction film such as the problem of authenticity and reality and the function of the artist in society issues which are still relevant in contemporary discussions about the documentary Accordingly this book demonstrates Shub's position not only as a significant filmmaker and recognised member of the early Soviet avant garde but also as a key figure in global cinema history Shub deserves recognition both as the founder and ardent promoter of the compilation film genre and as a pioneer of the theory and practice of documentary filmmaking

Women in the Stalin Era Melanie Ilic, 2001-10-30 This book brings together for the first time a collection of essays by western scholars about women in the Stalin era 1928 53 It explores both the realities of women's lived experience in the 1930s and 1940s and the various forms in which womanhood and femininity were represented and constructed in these decades Women in the Stalin Era challenges the scholarly neglect women's history has suffered at the hands and pens of Russian and western historians of the Stalin period

Russian War Films Denise Jeanne Youngblood, 2007 A panoramic survey of nearly a century of Russian films on wars and wartime from World War I to more recent conflicts in Afghanistan and Chechnya with heavy emphasis on films pertaining to World War II World Socialist Cinema Masha Salazkina, 2023-06-13 World Socialist Cinema Alliances Affinities and Solidarities reconstructs the trajectories of international film circulation between the Soviet Bloc and the countries of the Global South in the mid to late Twentieth Century The book takes as its focal point the Tashkent International Festival of Cinemas of Asia Africa and Latin America that took place in Uzbekistan USSR throughout the 1970s and 1980s Centering on the vast body of cinematic work from the three continents screened at the festival and paying particular attention to the internal tensions and gender dynamics within it the book proposes world socialist cinema as a distinct formation providing an alternative to Euro centric and or national and regional narratives of film history an international socialist cinema as seen from the vantage point of the Global South Women in the Khrushchev Era M. Ilic, S. Reid, L. Attwood, 2004-02-27 This collection of essays examines women in the Khrushchev era using both newly accessible archival material and a re reading of published sources Exploring diverse subjects including housing space flight women workers cinema religion and consumption the volume places the analysis of specific events or issues within a broader discussion of economic political ideological and international developments to provide a full analysis of the era A Short History of Film, Third Edition Wheeler Winston Dixon, Gwendolyn Audrey Foster, 2018-03-30 With more than 250 images new information on international cinema especially Polish Chinese Russian Canadian and Iranian filmmakers an expanded section on African American filmmakers updated discussions of new works by major American directors and a new section on the rise of comic book movies and computer generated special effects this is the most up to date resource for film history courses in the twenty first century Reader's Guide to Women's Studies Eleanor Amico, 1998-03-20 The Reader's Guide to Women's Studies is a searching and analytical description of the most prominent and influential works written in the now universal field of women's studies Some 200 scholars have contributed to the project which adopts a multi layered approach allowing for comprehensive treatment of its subject matter Entries range from very broad themes such as Health General Works to entries on specific individuals or more focused topics such as Doctors The Oxford Handbook of the History of Communism S. A. Smith, 2014-01-09 The impact of Communism on the twentieth century was massive equal to that of the two world wars Until the fall of the Soviet Union in 1991 historians knew relatively little about the secretive world of communist states and parties Since then the opening of state party and diplomatic archives of the former Eastern Bloc has released a flood of new documentation The thirty five essays in this Handbook written by an international team of scholars draw on this new material to offer a global history of communism in the twentieth century In contrast to many histories that concentrate on the Soviet Union The Oxford Handbook of the History of Communism is genuinely global in its coverage paying particular attention to the Chinese Revolution It is global too in the sense that the essays seek to integrate history from above and from below to trace the complex mediations between state and society and to explore the social and cultural as well as the political and economic realities that shaped the lives of citizens fated to live under communist rule The essays reflect on the similarities and differences between communist states in order to situate them in their socio political and cultural contexts and to capture their changing nature over time Where appropriate they also reflect on how the fortunes of international communism were shaped by the wider economic political and cultural forces of the capitalist world The Handbook provides an informative introduction for those new to the field and a comprehensive overview of the current state of scholarship for those seeking to deepen their understanding

Post-Soviet Women Mary Buckley,1997-07-13 This volume is the first to take a systematic look at the position of women in the post Soviet states of the former USSR

A Short History of Film, Fourth Edition Wheeler Winston Dixon,Gwendolyn Audrey Foster,2025-10-14 This updated and expanded edition of A Short History of Film provides an accessible overview of the major movements directors studios and genres from the 1880s to the present Succinct yet comprehensive with more than 250 rare stills and illustrations it brings readers face to face with many of the key players and films that have shaped the industry Beginning with the precursors of moving pictures Wheeler Winston Dixon and Gwendolyn Audrey Foster lead a fast paced tour through the invention of the kinetoscope the introduction of sound and color between the two world wars and ultimately the computer generated imagery of the present day They detail significant periods in world cinema including the creation of early major industries in Europe the dominance of the Hollywood studio system in the 1930s and 1940s and the French New Wave of the 1960s They also highlight independent efforts in developing nations and the corresponding more personal independent film movement that briefly flourished in the United States Along the way the authors incorporate the stories of women and other minority filmmakers who have often been overlooked in other texts Compact and easily readable this is a vital history of international cinema is a one stop resource for students teachers and general readers alike

The BFI Companion to Eastern European and Russian Cinema Richard Taylor,Nancy Wood,Julian Graffy,Dina Iordanova,2019-07-25 This work maps the rich varied cinema of Eastern Europe Russia and the former USSR Over 200 entries cover a variety of topics spanning a century of endeavour and turbulent history from Czech animation to Soviet montage from the silent cinemas dating back to World War I through to the varied responses to the conflicts in the former Yugoslavia It includes entries on actors and actresses film festivals studios genres directors film movements critics producers and technicians taking the coverage up to the late 1990s In addition to the historical material of key figures like Eisenstein and Wadja the editors provide separate accounts of the trajectory of the cinemas of Eastern Europe and of Russia in the wake of the collapse of communism

Insiders and Outsiders in Russian Cinema Stephen M. Norris,Zara M. Torlone,2008-05-14 Examines in a remarkably rich and varied way the construction of otherness and foreignness within this complexly national cinema tradition John MacKay Yale University Identifying who was inside and who was outside the Soviet Russian body politic has been a matter of intense and violent urgency especially in the high Stalinist and post Soviet periods It is a theme encountered prominently in film Employing a range of interpretive methods practiced in Russian Soviet film studies Insiders and Outsiders in Russian Cinema highlights the varied ways that Russian and Soviet cinema constructed otherness and foreignness While the essays explore the us versus them binary well known to students of Russian culture and the ways in which Russian films depicted these distinctions the book demonstrates just how impossible maintaining this binary proved to be Contributors are Anthony Anemone Julian Graffy Peter Kenez Joan Neuberger Stephen M Norris Oleg Sulkin Yuri Tsivian Emma Widdis and Josephine Woll An anthology that is the best I have ever had the pleasure of reading Lucidly written well researched persuasively argued lavishly illustrated Insiders and Outsiders in Russian Cinema can be read with pleasure and profit by anyone from the general reader interested in Russian culture to the most seasoned Russian film specialist Denise J Youngblood University of Vermont Russian Review In a word the theoretical richness and sophistication of this collection parallel the complexity of its topics and serve as an excellent cross section of how the theme of foreigners and outsiders is examined in contemporary studies in film Slavonic East European Journal

The Girl from God's Country Kay Armatage, 2003-01-01 Armatage reintroduces film studies scholars to Nell Shipman a pioneer in both Canadian and American film and one of proportionately numerous women from Hollywood's silent era who wrote directed produced and acted in motion pictures
