Doran,2021-01-18 The Dublin suburbs situated between the Grand Canal and the River Dodder consist of distinct neighbourhoods each with their own character and style It is an area that was and continues to be home to poets writers artists politicians and academics all of whom in their own way contributed to Irish life Those featured include Jack B Yeats artist Mother Mary Aikenhead Founder of the Religious Order Brendan Behan writer and dramatist Mary Lady Heath aviator and international athlete Sophie Bryant mathematician educationist and suffragette James Franklin Fuller architect and Seamus Heaney poet In this book Dr Beatrice M Doran tells of the lives of some of the most fascinating people who once lived on the leafy roads and avenues of this interesting area of the city Renegades:

Irish Republican Women 1900-1922 Ann Matthews,2010-08-01 The history of the Irish republican movement is dominated by the story of the men who took up arms in Ireland s fight for freedom against the British The names of men like Pearse Connolly Collins and Barry still resonate today as heroes who won independence for Ireland However the critical role of women in this fight for freedom has often been overlooked Renegades examines the part played by women in the major political and social revolutions that took place from 1900 1922 It explores the growing separation of republican women into two distinct groups those active on the military side in Cumann na mBan and those involved on the political side particularly with Sinn F in It also looks at the often ignored war on women which manifested itself in the form of physical and sexual assaults by both sides during the War of Independence and the fury of female republicans as the political establishment accepted the Anglo Irish Treaty In this evocative account Renegades restores the women of the republican movement to the prominent place they deserve in Irish history The Waters and the Wild Gwen Wilkinson,2023-04-06 In 2019 Gwen Wilkinson set herself the challenge of building a canoe and paddling it the length of Ireland along a network of inland waterways She set out from the shores of Lough Erne and navigated a 400 km journey to the tidal waters of the River Barrow in Ireland More than just a travelogue The Waters and the Wild explores the interwoven histories of the people and wildlife that shaped Gwen's journey As the adventure unfolds she also shines a light on pioneering women who have left their mark on Ireland's landscape both natural and cultural From wild camping on deserted islands to drifting on lakes in the company of restless lapwings this book invites the reader to share an intense engagement with the natural world The charming text is accompanied by the author's own striking lino and woodcut prints beautiful and though provoking interpretations of the flora and fauna she observed on her travels
