

Some actions make people happy, such as:

- being kind
- following class rules
- sharing

The consequence to this may be that you get a friend or a reward.

When we make unkind choices, like not sharing, this has a consequence to the other person. You don't make you (but what someone won't share with you).

Self-reflection in Literature , 2019-12-16 Self reflection is fundamental for human thinking on many levels Philosophy has described the mind's capacity to observe itself as a core element of human existence. Political and social sciences have shown how modern democracies depend on society's ability to critically reflect on their own values and practices. And literature of all ages has proven self-reflexivity to be a crucial trait of cultural production. This volume provides the first diachronic panorama of genres, forms and functions of literary self-reflection and their connections with social, political and philosophical discourses from the 17th century to the present. Far beyond the usual focus on postmodernist opacity, these contributions present a rich tradition of critical transparency. Literary texts that show us what is behind and beyond them.

Reflections on the principles and evidences of Christianity, etc Thomas PINE, 1830 Productive Reflection at Work David Boud, Peter Cressey, Peter Docherty, 2006-05-17. This book is an accessible entry point into the theory and practice of work reflection for students and practitioners. Taking a cross-disciplinary approach, it covers management education, organizational psychology and sociology, drawing on examples from Europe, the Middle East, North America and Australia. It traces reflection at work from an emphasis on training through a focus on how organizations learn to a concern with the necessary learning groups to operate effectively. It emphasizes productivity combined with satisfying lived experience of work life and points the way to a new collective focus on learning at work. Principles of European Family Law Regarding Divorce and Maintenance Between Former Spouses Katharina Boele-Woelki, 2004. A book series dedicated to the harmonisation and unification of family and succession law in Europe. The European Family Law series includes comparative legal studies and materials as well as studies on the effects of international and European Law making within the national legal systems in Europe. The books are published in English, French or German under the auspices of the Organising Committee of the Commission on European Family Law (CEFL). Three years after its establishment, the CEFL presents its first Principles of European Family Law in the field of divorce and maintenance between former spouses. The Principles aim to bestow the most suitable means for the harmonisation of family laws in Europe. In this respect, they may serve as a frame of reference for national, European and international legislatures alike. The Principles could considerably facilitate their task, not only by virtue of the fact that the CEFL's in-depth and comprehensive comparative research is easily accessible, but also because most of the rules have been drafted in a way which legislatures normally consider to be appropriate.
