Reformation And The Culture Of Persuasion:

Reformation and the Culture of Persuasion Andrew Pettegree, 2005-06-23 A groundbreaking new history of the process of religious conversion during the European Reformation Monstrous Births and Visual Culture in Sixteenth-Century Germany Jennifer Spinks, 2015-10-06 Presents an examination of printed representations of monstrous births in German speaking Europe from the end of the fifteenth century and through the sixteenth century beginning with a seminal series of broadsheets from the late 1490s by humanist Sebastian Brant and including prints by Albrecht Durer and Hans Burgkmair African Literacies and Western Oralities? William A. Coppedge, 2021-11-03 How do twenty first century Christians communicate the Bible and their faith in today's mediascape Members of the International Orality Network ION believe that the answer to that paramount question is orality For too long they argue presentations of Christianity have operated on a printed literate register hindering many from receiving and growing in the Christian faith Instead they champion the spoken word and narrative presentations of the gospel message In light of the church's shift to the Global South how have such communication approaches been received by majority world Christians This book explores the responses and reactions of local Ugandan Christians to this oral renaissance The investigation grounded in ethnographic research uncovers the complex relationships between local and international culture brokers all of whom are seeking to establish particular modern identities The research conclusions challenge static Western categorizations and point towards an integrated understanding of communication that appreciates the role of materiality and embodiment in a broader religious socioeconomic discourse as well as taking into account societal anticipations of a flourishing modern African Church This book promises to stimulate dialogue for those concerned about the communication complexities that are facing the global church in the twenty first century The Dynamics of the Early Reformation in their Reformed Augustinian Context Robert Christman, 2025-10-01 On 1 July 1523 Johann van den Esschen and Hendrik Voes two Augustinian friars from Antwerp were burned on the Grand Plaza in Brussels thereby becoming the first victims of the Reformation Despite being well known the event barely registers in most Reformation histories By tracing its origins and examining the impact of the executions on Martin Luther on the Reformed Augustinian world and on the early Reformation in the Low Countries and the German speaking lands this study definitively demonstrates that the burnings were in fact the denouement of broader trends within Late Medieval Reformed Augustinianism as well as a watershed in the early Reformation In doing so it also reveals the central role played by the Augustinian friars of Lower Germany in shaping both the content and spread of the early Reformation as well as Wittenberg's influence on the events leading up to these first executions Winner of the Gerald Strauss Book Prize awarded by the Sixteenth Century Society Conference for the best book in the field of German Reformation history From Rome to Zurich, between Ignatius and Vermigli, 2017-02-20 From Rome to Zurich, between Ignatius and Vermigli brings notable scholars from the fields of Reformation and Early Modern studies to honor their friend mentor and colleague John Patrick Donnelly with essays commensurate with his own broad interests and scholarship Touching Protestant scholasticism Reformation era life writing Reformation polemics both Protestant and Catholic and with several on theology proper inter alia the essays collected here by a group of international scholars break new ground in Reformation history thought and theology providing fresh insights into current scholarship in both Reformation and Catholic Reformation studies The essays take in the broad scope of the 16th century from Thomas More to Martin Bucer and from Thomas Stapleton to Peter Martyr Vermigli Contributors include Emidio Campi Maryanne Cline Horowitz A Lynn Martin Thomas McCoog SJ Joseph McLelland Richard A Muller Eric Parker Robert Scully SJ and Jason Zuidema Books in Early Modern Norway Gina Dahl, 2011-07-12 During recent decades much has been written about early modern book distribution but until now Norway has been absent from the discussion Drawing on book listings this study seeks to fill this lacuna by exploring the market for books in early modern Norway Its approach is multifaceted consideration of the types of books accessed by different elements of Norwegian society is set alongside developments within the book market itself such as the extended life of popular books the gradual replacement of Latin by the vernacular and the rise in the eighteenth century in the number of books available on the market The study demonstrates the internationality of the Norwegian book market while acknowledging specific patterns that determine its Norwegian character Antoine de Chandieu Theodore G. Van Raalte, 2018-08-01 Offering the first study in any language dedicated to the influential publications of the French Reformed theologian Antoine de Chandieu 1534 1591 Theodore Van Raalte begins by recalling Chandieu s reputation as it stood at the death of Theodore Beza in 1605 Poets in Geneva mourned the end of an era of star theologians reminiscing about Geneva s Reformed triumvirate of gold silver and bronze gold represented Calvin silver Chandieu and bronze Beza Van Raalte s work sets Chandieu within the context of Reformed theology in Geneva the wider history of scholastic method in the Swiss cantons and the gripping social and political milieux of this tumultuous time Chandieu was far from a mere ivory tower theologian as a member of French nobility in possession of many estates and castles in France he and his family acutely experienced the misery and triumph of the French Huguenots during the Wars of Religion Connected to royalty from the beginning of his career Chandieu later served the future Henry IV as personal military chaplain and cryptographer His writings run the gamut from religious poetry put to music by others in his lifetime to carefully crafted disputations which saw publication in his posthumous Opera Theologica in five editions between 1592 and 1620 Chandieu had developed a very elaborate form of the medieval quaestio disputata and made liberal use of hypothetical syllogisms Van Raalte argues that Chandieu utilized scholastic method in theology for the sake of clarity of argument rootedness in Scripture and certainty of faith Making Publics in Early Modern Europe Bronwen Wilson, Paul Yachnin, 2011-07-21 The book looks at how people things and new forms of knowledge created publics in early modern Europe and how publics changed the shape of early modern society The focus is on what the authors call making publics the active creation of new forms of association that allowed people to connect with others in ways not rooted in family rank or vocation but rather founded in voluntary groupings built on the shared interests tastes commitments and desires of individuals By creating new forms of association cultural producers and consumers challenged dominant ideas about just who could be a public person greatly expanded the resources of public life for ordinary people in their own time and developed ideas and practices that have helped create the political culture of modernity Coming from a number of disciplines including literary and cultural studies art history history of religion history of science and musicology the contributors develop analyses of a range of cases of early modern public making that together demonstrate the rich inventiveness and formative social power of artistic and intellectual publication in this period

Interpreting Early Modern Europe C. Scott Dixon, Beat Kumin, 2019-09-11 Interpreting Early Modern Europe is a comprehensive collection of essays on the historiography of the early modern period circa 1450 1800 Concerned with the principles priorities theories and narratives behind the writing of early modern history the book places particular emphasis on developments in recent scholarship Each chapter written by a prominent historian caught up in the debates is devoted to the varieties of interpretation relating to a specific theme or field considered integral to understanding the age providing readers with a behind the scenes look at how historians have worked and still work within these fields At one level the emphasis is historiographical with the essays engaged in a direct dialogue with the influential theories methods assumptions and conclusions in each of the fields At another level the contributions emphasise the historical dimensions of interpretation providing readers with surveys of the component parts that make up the modern narratives Supported by extensive bibliographies primary materials and appendices with extracts from key secondary debates Interpreting Early Modern Europe provides a systematic exploration of how historians have shaped the study of the early modern past It is essential reading for students of early modern history For a comprehensive overview of the history of early modern Europe see the partnering volume The European World 3ed Edited by Beat Kumin <https://www.routledge.com/The-European-World-1500-1800-An-Introduction-to-Early-Modern-History/Kuminah2/p/book/9781138119154> Art and Communication in the Reign of Henry VIII Tatiana C. String, 2017-07-05 Exploring the intersection between art and political ideology this innovative study of art in Henrician England sheds new light on the ways in which Henry VIII and his advisers exploited visual images in order to communicate ideas to his subjects The works analyzed include water triumphs coronation pageants and funeral processions printed title pages of vernacular Bibles coins portrait miniatures and murals as well as panel paintings With her analysis of these categories of objects and using communication theory as a starting point String presents a new model of communication based on the concepts of magnificence topicality persuasiveness and propaganda Through this model she shows how medium location display and viewership were all considered in the transmission of royal messages Using the art of Henry VIII's reign as a case study String enriches our understanding of the fundamental contribution of imagery to communication and also provides a model for the study of the dissemination of ideas and the patron artist relationship in other royal courts and historical periods Writing on the Wall Tom Standage,2013-10-10 Today we are endlessly connected constantly tweeting texting or e mailing This may seem unprecedented yet it is not Throughout history information has been spread through social networks with far reaching social and political effects Writing on the Wall reveals how an elaborate network of letter exchanges forewarned of power shifts in Cicero s Rome while the torrent of tracts circulating in sixteenth century Germany triggered the Reformation Standage traces the story of the rise fall and rebirth of social media over the past 2 000 years offering an illuminating perspective on the history of media and revealing that social networks do not merely connect us today they also link us to the past Christian History Alister E. McGrath,2013-03-04 A major new introduction to the global history of Christianity written by one of the world s leading theologians and author of numerous bestselling textbooks Provides a truly global review by exploring the development of Christianity and related issues in Asia Latin America and Africa and not just focusing on Western concerns Spanning more than two millennia and combining elements of theology history and culture it traces the development of all three branches of Christianity Catholic Protestant and Orthodox providing context to Christianity s origins and its links to Judaism Looks beyond denominational history at Christianity s impact on individuals society politics and intellectual thought as well as on art architecture and the natural sciences Combines McGrath s acute historical sensibility with formidable organizational skill breaking the material down into accessible self contained historical periods Offers an accessible and student oriented text assuming little or no advance theological or historical knowledge on the part of the reader Religion and the Book in Early Modern England Elizabeth Evenden,Thomas S. Freeman,2011-07-14 Explores the production of John Foxe s Book of Martyrs a milestone in the history of the English book How the Light Gets In Graham Ward,2016 How the Light Gets In Ethical Life I presents a systematic account of the teachings of the Christian faith to offer a vision from a human created and limited perspective of the ways all things might be understood from the divine perspective It explores how Christian doctrine is lived and the way in which beliefs are not simply cognitive sets of ideas but embodied cultural practices Christians learn how to understand the contents of their faith learn the language of the faith through engagements that are simultaneously somatic affective imaginative and intellectual In the first of four volumes Graham Ward examines the complex levels of these engagements through three historical developments in the systematic organization of doctrine the Creeds the Summa and Protestant dogmatics He outlines a methodology for exploring and practicing systematic theology that captures how the faith is lived in cultural social and embodied engagements Ward then unpicks several fundamental theological concepts and how they are to be understood from the point of view of an engaged systematics truth revelation judgement discernment proclamation faith seeking understanding and believing as it relates to and grounds the possibilities for faith This groundbreaking work offers an interdisciplinary investigation through poetry art film the Bible and theological discourse analysing the human condition and theology as the deep dream for salvation The final part relates theology as a lived and ongoing pedagogy concerned with individual and corporate formation to biological life social life and life in Christ Here an approach to living theologically is sketched that is the primary focus for all four volumes ethical life Poets, Players, and Preachers Anne James,2016-08-12

On the night of November 4th 1605 the English authorities uncovered an alleged plot by a group of discontented Catholics to blow up the Houses of Parliament with the lords princes queen and king in attendance The failure of the plot is celebrated to this day and is known as Guy Fawkes Day In Poets Players and Preachers Anne James explores the literary responses to the discovery of the Gunpowder Plot in poetry drama and sermons This book is the first full length study of the literary repercussions of the conspiracy By analyzing the genres of poems plays and sermons produced between 1605 and 1688 the author argues that not only did the continuous reinterpretation of the conspiracy serve religious and political purposes but that such literary reinterpretations produced generic changes Illustrated Religious Texts in the North of Europe, 1500-1800 Feike Dietz,Adam Morton,Lien Roggen,2016-12-05

In recent years many historians have argued that the Reformation did not as previously thought hamper the development of Northern European visual culture but rather gave new impetus to the production diffusion and reception of visual materials in both Catholic and Protestant milieus This book investigates the crosscurrents of exchange in the realm of illustrated religious literature within and beyond confessional and national borders and against the background of recent insights into the importance of on the one hand material as well as on the other hand sensual and emotional aspects of early modern culture Each chapter in the volume helps illuminate early modern religious culture from the perspective of the production of illustrated religious texts to see the book as object a point at which various vectors of early modern society met Case studies together with theoretical contributions shed light on the ways in which illustrated religious books functioned in evolving societies by analysing the use re use and sharing of illustrated religious texts in England France the Low Countries the German States and Switzerland Interpretations based on points of material interaction show us how the most basic binaries of the early modern world Catholic and Protestant word and image public and private were disrupted and negotiated in the realm of the illustrated religious book Through this approach the volume expands the historical appreciation of the place of imagery in post Reformation Europe Music and Religious Education in Early Modern Europe ,2023-03-13

Exploring the nexus of music and religious education involves fundamental questions regarding music itself its nature its interpretation and its importance in relation to both education and the religious practices into which it is integrated This cross disciplinary volume of essays offers the first comprehensive set of studies to examine the role of music in educational and religious reform and the underlying notions of music in early modern Europe It elucidates the context and manner in which music served as a means of religious teaching and learning during that time thereby identifying the religio cultural and intellectual foundations of early modern European musical phenomena and their significance for exploring the interplay of music and religious education today Protestantism, Poetry and Protest S.K. Barker,2016-04-15

French Protestant Church Of all its indigenous leaders he was perhaps closest to Calvin and took a leading role in all the major debates about resistance church order and doctrine of the Church He was also a prodigious writer of political religious and poetical works whose output corresponds to a period of great turmoil in the progress of the French Church Chandieu was uniquely placed not merely to engage and contribute to the great debates of the day but also to record ongoing events By illuminating his career which meshed almost exactly with the French Wars of Religion this book not only demonstrates the key role Chandieu s played in the development of French Protestantism but also highlights the vital role of literature in shaping the religious experience of the wars Offering the first systematic evaluation of Chandieu s vernacular works this study questions many of the assumptions made about his motivations and aims and how these developed over a thirty year period His writings were contemporaneous with progress in the worlds of politics theology and poetry worlds in which he played a notable if not well documented role As a corpus these works show the development of one man s understanding of his ideology over a lifetime actively spent in the pursuit of making that ideology a reality Chandieu the young political hothead became Chandieu the defender of Calvinist theology who in turn matured into Chandieu the elder statesman The interest lies in where these changes occurred how they were reflected in Chandieu s writing and what they demonstrate about being Calvinist and a representative of one s faith in a time of disorder As such this book provides not only a reappraisal of the man and his publications but presents an intriguing perspective on the development of French Protestantism during this turbulent time

Edinburgh's Unruly Women Claire McNulty, 2025-03-10 Edinburgh s Unruly Women examines experiences of church discipline across parish communities through Edinburgh and its environs The book argues that experiences of discipline were not universal varying according to any number of factors such as age gender marital status and social rank Adopting a case study approach the book illuminates the voices of ordinary women as they appeared before their local kirk session church court where they navigated the church court system to settle neighbourly disputes negotiate marriage contracts or free their husbands from allegations of adultery Edinburgh s Unruly Women argues that in the context of a deeply patriarchal society experiences of discipline could not have been universal but that in creating this strict culture of self monitoring the Church created opportunities for women to express power over one another and indeed over their male contemporaries By placing female parishioners at the heart of the book filled with individual case studies Edinburgh s Unruly Women appeals to students and scholars of early modern women religion and gender more broadly and to those with more specialist interest in both ecclesiastical discipline and the history of early modern Scotland in the localities

Preaching a Dual Identity Nicholas Must, 2017-08-21 In Preaching a Dual Identity Nicholas Must examines seventeenth century Huguenot sermons to study the development of French Reformed confessional identity under the Edict of Nantes Of key concern is how a Huguenot hybrid identity was formulated by balancing a strong sense of religious particularism with an enthusiastic political loyalism Must argues that sermons were an integral part of asserting this unique confessional position in both their preached and printed forms To demonstrate this Must explores a variety of sermon themes to access the range of images and arguments that preachers employed to articulate a particular vision of their community as a religious minority in France
