Robert Godfrey, 2004 W Robert Godfrey has written this personal story of how he came to Reformed Christianity to show the value and vitality of Calvinism in an individual s life Godfrey s journey started when as a teenager he first heard of Calvinism Sharing his heart and his sense of humor he describes his first experience with a Reformed congregation his introduction to God s inspired Word and his discovery of biblical worship Along his journey Godfrey learned that God is always present with me Whether I go to the highest heavens or the deepest sea or travel to a distant point on the earth God is as fully present there as anywhere else For too many Calvinism has seemed either an intellectual exercise in theology or an inherited religious commitment Godfrey writes I believe that Reformed Christianity is the best fullest form of biblical religion And with that provocative claim I hope that you will read and reflect on what follows Book jacket God's Pattern for Creation W. Robert Godfrey, 2003 Beginnings Are Important If we want to understand the Bible as a whole it is vital to understand what it teaches about creation W Robert Godfrey has written this study with thoughtful Christians in mind He carefully examines the text knowing that the Bible is a covenantal record that is always focused on God and his relationship to his people Book jacket Sin and Confession on the Eve of the Reformation Thomas N. Tentler, 2015-03-08 Although John Calvin often likened sacramental confession to butchery the Council of Trent declared that for those who approached it worthily it was made easy by its great benefits and consolations Thomas Tentler describes and evaluates the effectiveness of sacramental confession as a functioning institution designed to cause guilt as well as cure guilt seeing it in its proper place as a part of the social fabric of the Middle Ages The author examines the institution of confession in practice as well as in theory providing an analysis of a practical literature whose authors wanted to explain as clearly as they safely could what confessors and penitents had to believe do feel say and intend if sacramental confession were to forgive sins In so doing he recreates the mentality and experience that the Reformers attacked and the Counter Reformers defended Central to his thesis is the contention that Luther Calvin and the Fathers of Trent regarded religious institutions as the solution to certain social and psychological problems and that an awareness of this attitude is important for an assessment of the significance of confession in late medieval and Reformation Europe Originally published in 1977 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Tracts Relating to the Reformation Jean Calvin, 1849
