Supporting International Students in US Higher Education Darbi L. Roberts,Ravichandran Ammigan,2024-03-20 This book explores the integral role that student affairs professionals play in the success of international students at higher education institutions in the US International student support has often been thought of as the principal responsibility of international student services offices but research suggests that international student engagement in the broader university community and support for them by all student affairs and services offices on campus is closely tied to persistence and retention The authors explore a student development theory based approach to supporting the experience and success of international students from all facets of student affairs and services The book explores practical and strategic implications of a more integrative approach to international student support both inside and outside of the classroom while also utilizing a critical lens in applying models that were originally built for predominantly white institutions and US citizens The North American Muslim Resource Guide Mohamed Nimer,2014-01-21 This useful resource provides basic information about Islamic life in the United States Coverage includes population statistics and analysis as well as immigration information that tracks the settlement of Islamic people in the America The guide contains contact information for mosques community organizations schools women s groups media and student groups Recent Islamic American events over the past five years are also reviewed To see the Introduction the table of contents a generous selection of sample pages and more visit the The North American Muslim Resource Guide website HIV/AIDS Funding Resource Guide ,1995 Gale's Guide to Nonprofits ,2000
