Regards Sur Les Litteratures Coloniales Vol II:

Travel in Twentieth-Century French and Francophone Cultures Charles Forsdick, 2005-05-19 This book is one of the first studies of twentieth century travel literature in French tracking the form from the colonial past to the postcolonial present Whereas most recent explorations of travel literature have addressed English language material Forsdick's study complements these by presenting a body of material that has previously attracted little attention ranging from conventional travel writing to other cultural phenomena such as the Colonial Exposition of 1931 in which changing attitudes to travel are apparent Travel in Twentieth Century French and Francophone Cultures explores the evolution of attitudes to cultural diversity explaining how each generation seems simultaneously to foretell the collapse and reinvention of elsewhere It also follows the progressive renegotiation of understandings of travel and travel literature across the twentieth century focusing in particular on the emergence of travel narratives from France's former colonies The book suggests that an exclusive colonial understanding of travel as a practice defined along the lines of class gender and ethnicity has slowly been transformed so that travel has become an enabling figure encapsulated in notions such as James Clifford's traveling cultures central to analyses of contemporary global culture Engaging initially with Victor Segalen's early twentieth century reflection on travel and exoticism and Albert Kahn's Archives de la Plan te Forsdick goes on to examine a series of interrelated texts and phenomena early African travel narratives inter war ethnography post war accounts of Citro n 2CV journeys the travel stories of immigrant workers the work of Nicholas Bouvier and the Pour une litt rature voyageuse movement narratives of recent walking journeys and contemporary Polynesian literature In delineating a francophone space stretching far beyond metropolitan France itself the book contributes to new understandings of French and Francophone Studies and will also be of interest to those interested in issues of comparatism as well as colonial and postcolonial culture and identity Black African Literature in English, 1997-1999 Bernth Lindfors, 2003 This volume lists the work produced on anglophone black African literature between 1997 and 1999 This bibliographic work is a continuation of the highly acclaimed earlier volumes compiled by Bernth Lindfors Containing about 10 000 entries some of which are annotated to identify the authors discussed it covers books periodical articles papers in edited collections and selective coverage of other relevant sources

French Decadence in a Global Context Julia Hartley, Wanrug Suwanwattana, Jennifer Yee, 2022-07-12 Decadence is seldom looked at in the context of colonialism and yet its heyday in the 1880s and 1890s is directly contemporary with the expansion of France's modern colonial empire Ever a slippery signifier Decadence figures alternately as pro colonial anticolonial and apolitical This edited volume gives a sense of the sheer range and diversity of intersections between colonialism and Decadence from anticolonial anarchist writers to colonial discourse from nineteenth century women writers to our contemporary Michel Houellebecq Different chapters explore these intersections in the cultural imagination of dance the novel travel writing historiographical theory and literary networks Decadence is often seen as an essentially metropolitan urban movement but this study identifies key spaces elsewhere from fin de siècle Saigon to India in the heyday of French colonialism from Byzantium to ancient Persia Although the colonies were held up by some as an antidote to the threat of French decline other writings reveal anxiety that the antidote might itself be a form of poison Colonial contact might exacerbate degeneration whether through cultural mixing or through the violence of colonial aggression itself A profound anxiety about French identity and France's so called mission civilisatrice is played out through the imagery the style and the pose of Decadence
