Wood, 2001-05-04 Browning both denied and affirmed the value of biography for an understanding of literature This book narrates the development of his controversial creative life through responses to his work by five key nineteenth century figures John Stuart Mill William Charles Macready Thomas Carlyle John Ruskin and Matthew Arnold It also relates Browning's sense of literary vocation to Victorian publishing Browning emerges as a writer vividly engaged with contemporary assumptions yet deeply aware of the unaccountability of writing A Companion to Victorian Poetry Ciaran Cronin, 2008-04-15 This Companion brings together specially commissioned essays by distinguished international scholars that reflect both the diversity of Victorian poetry and the variety of critical approaches that illuminate it Approaches Victorian poetry by way of genre production and cultural context rather than through individual poets or poems Demonstrates how a particular poet or poem emerges from a number of overlapping cultural contexts Explores the relationships between work by different poets Recalls attention to a

Romantic Legacy Dr Britta Martens, 2013-05-28 Taking an original approach to Robert Browning's poetics Britta Martens focuses on a corpus of relatively neglected poems in Browning's own voice in which he reflects on his poetry his self conceptualization and his place in the poetic tradition She analyzes his work in relation to Romanticism Victorian reactions to the Romantic legacy and wider nineteenth century changes in poetic taste to argue that in these poems as in his more frequently studied dramatic monologues Browning deploys varied dramatic methods of self representation often critically and ironically exposing the biases and limitations of the seemingly authoritative speaker Browning The poems thus become devices for Browning's detached evaluation of his own and of others poetics an evaluation never fully explicit but presented with elusive economy for the astute reader to interpret The confrontation between the personal authorial voice and the dramatic voice in these poems provides revealing insights into the poet's highly self conscious conflicted and sustained engagement with the Romantic tradition and the diversely challenging reader expectations that he faces in a post Romantic age As the Victorian most rigorous in his rejection of Romantic self expression Browning is a key transitional figure between the sharply antagonistic periods of Romanticism and Modernism He is also as Martens persuasively demonstrates a poet of complex contradictions and an illuminating case study for addressing the perennial issues of voice authorial authority and self reference
