Women Intellectuals, Modernism, and Difference Alice Gambrell,1997-07-03 How do gender and race become objects of intellectual inquiry What happens to marginal discourses when they participate in the academic processes of scrutiny and evaluation In Women Intellectuals Modernism and Difference Alice Gambrell examines the careers of a group of women intellectuals Leonora Carrington Ella Deloria H D Zora Neale Hurston and Frida Kahlo whose scholarly rediscovery coincided with the rise of feminist and minority discourse studies in the academy She examines the exhibitions memoirs poems ethnographies and personal correspondences these women produced combining concrete local observation with contemporary theoretical perspectives on race and gender Through a mixture of empirical detail and theoretical speculation Gambrell explores the role these women played in expanding the conception of American literature by their involvement in the Harlem Renaissance She offers new ways of thinking about the relationships between cultural studies feminism and minority discourse within the ongoing reassessment of modernism

Sex, Sin, and Our Selves Anna Fisk,2014-03-17 Sex Sin and Our Selves brings together readings in feminist theological thought and the literature of the acclaimed contemporary writers Michele Roberts and Sara Maitland Through placing theology in conversation with Roberts s and Maitland s literary engagement with issues of religion and gender this book explores themes of selfhood connection sex sin and self sacrifice In doing so it challenges a tendency of feminist theology to seek simple and idealized answers rather than honor complexity and the need to continue to ask questions In the encounters in feminist theology and contemporary women s writing Anna Fisk employs autobiographical narrative critically understood as reading these stories beside my own Subjectivity Nick Mansfield,2020-07-25 What am I referring to when I say I This little word is so easy to use in daily life yet it has become the focus of intense theoretical debate Where does my sense of self come from Does it arise spontaneously or is it created by the media or society Do I really know myself This concern with the self with our subjectivity is now our main point of reference in Western societies How has it come to be so important What are the different ways in which we can approach subjectivity Nick Mansfield explores how our understanding of our subjectivity has developed over the past century He looks at the work of key modern and postmodern theorists including Freud Foucault Nietzsche Lacan Kristeva Deleuze and Guattari and he shows how subjectivity is central to debates in contemporary culture including gender sexuality ethnicity postmodernism and technology I am who No topic is more crucial to contemporary cultural theory than subjectivity and Nick Mansfield has written what has long been lacking a lucid smart introduction to work in the field Professor Simon During University of Melbourne Effortlessly and with humour passion and panache Mansfield offers the reader a telling trenchantly articulate d account of the complex enigma of the self without resorting to reductively simple critical cliches This book in its graceful movements between disciplines ideas and areas of interest deserves to become a benchmark for all such student introductions for some time to come Julian Wolfreys University of Florida Nick Mansfield is Senior Lecturer in the Department of Critical and Cultural Studies at Macquarie University He is co author of Cultural Studies and the New Humanities Oxford 1997 and author of Masochism The art of power Praeger 1997

Murphy,2004-02-24 Global Media Studies explores the theoretical and methodological threats that are defining global media studies as a discipline Emphasizing the connection of globalisation to local culture this collection considers the diversity of modes of reception reception contexts uses of media content and the performative and creative relationships that audiences develop with and through the media Through ethnographic case studies from Brazil Denmark the UK Japan Lebanon Mexico South Africa Turkey and the United States the contributors address such questions as what links media consumption to a lived global culture what role cultural tradition plays globally in confronting transnational power how global elements of mediated messages acquire class and regional and local characteristics The Digital Health Self Rachael Kent,2023-06-08 This is a detailed analysis of how understanding of health management past present and future has transformed in the digital age Since the mid 20th century we have witnessed healthy lifestyles being pushed as part of health promotion strategies both via the state and through health tracking tools and narratives of wellness online This marks a seismic shift from a public welfare state responsibility for health towards individualised practices of digital self care Today health has become representative of lifestyle correction which is performed on social media Putting the spotlight on neoliberalism and digital technology as pervasive tools that dictate wellness as a moral obligation Rachael Kent critically analyses how users navigate relationships between self tracking technologies social media and everyday health management

Repossessing the World Helen M. Buss,2006-01-01 Why does it seem as if everyone is writing memoirs and particularly women The current popularity of memoir verifies the common belief that we each have a story to tell And we do especially women Memoirs are not only representations of women s personal lives but also of their desire to repossess important parts of our culture in which women s stories have not mattered Beginning with her own motivations for writing memoirs Helen M Buss examines the many kinds of memoir written by contemporary women memoirs about growing up memoirs about traumatic events about relationships about work In writing memoirs these women publicly assert that their lives have mattered They reshape the memoir a form as old as the middle ages and as young as today into a social discourse that blends the personal with the political the self with the significant other literature with history and fiction with autobiography and essay Buss urges readers to use their reading experience to help themselves understand and write the significance of their own lives Repossessing the World is the first book length critical inquiry into women s use of a form that has often been dismissed as less important than autobiography less professional than the novel and less intellectual than the formal essay Buss demonstrates that the memoir makes its own art not only through selective borrowing from these genres but also through the unique way that the tripartite narrative voice of the memoir constructs the personal and public experience of the memoirist as significant to our cultural moment Education, Aspiration and Upward Social Mobility Aqsa

Saeed,2022-02-28 This book explores the career aspirations achievements and consequent social mobility of a group of British Pakistani women It uses Bourdieu s concept of cultural capital to analyse how these women living in a segregated Pakistani community located in a deprived northern town in the UK with poor employment opportunities acquired the resources to pursue further and higher education obtain qualifications and enter professional careers The author discusses and analyses how cultural capital features in homes schools and workplaces as well as how the women navigate and modify intersecting gender ethnic and class identities in order to create specific career trajectories Illuminating the rich intersections of biography history and society the author captures important qualitative data which acts as a microcosm for contemporary discussions on social mobility multiculturalism Muslim communities race and gender in Britain Body Landscape Journals Margaret Somerville, 1999 Annotation Reading this book is like falling through a faultline as we respond to poesis both as poetry and as thought creation Margaret Somerville attended the 1984 Pine Gap Women's Peace Camp where urban women and Aboriginal women demonstrated against military bases As she moved through the landscape of this and other very different places she recorded her interactions with Aboriginal women in the desert in the mountains and at home and with white women in the tropics and at home It is a thoughtful challenge of all that we think She concludes with reflections on the architecture of love

Sexing The Self Gendered Positions In Cultural Studies Introduction

In the digital age, access to information has become easier than ever before. The ability to download Sexing The Self Gendered Positions In Cultural Studies has revolutionized the way we consume written content. Whether you are a student looking for course material, an avid reader searching for your next favorite book, or a professional seeking research papers, the option to download Sexing The Self Gendered Positions In Cultural Studies has opened up a world of possibilities. Downloading Sexing The Self Gendered Positions In Cultural Studies provides numerous advantages over physical copies of books and documents. Firstly, it is incredibly convenient. Gone are the days of carrying around heavy textbooks or bulky folders filled with papers. With the click of a button, you can gain immediate access to valuable resources on any device. This convenience allows for efficient studying, researching, and reading on the go. Moreover, the cost-effective nature of downloading Sexing The Self Gendered Positions In Cultural Studies has democratized knowledge. Traditional books and academic journals can be expensive, making it difficult for individuals with limited financial resources to access information. By offering free PDF downloads, publishers and authors are enabling a wider audience to benefit from their work. This inclusivity promotes equal opportunities for learning and personal growth. There are numerous websites and platforms where individuals can download Sexing The Self Gendered Positions In Cultural Studies. These websites range from academic databases offering research papers and journals to online libraries with an expansive collection of books from various genres. Many authors and publishers also upload their work to specific websites, granting readers access to their content without any charge. These platforms not only provide access to existing literature but also serve as an excellent platform for undiscovered authors to share their work with the world. However, it is essential to be cautious while downloading Sexing The Self Gendered Positions In Cultural Studies. Some websites may offer pirated or illegally obtained copies of copyrighted material. Engaging in such activities not only violates copyright laws but also undermines the efforts of authors, publishers, and researchers. To ensure ethical downloading, it is advisable to utilize reputable websites that prioritize the legal distribution of content. When downloading Sexing The Self Gendered Positions In Cultural Studies, users should also consider the potential security risks associated with online platforms.
