Sexual Dissidence Richard Dellamora,2019-04-08 Recent critical and historical work on the late Victorian period has furnished a vocabulary for discussing gender and sexuality These popular terms include categories such as homo hetero patriarchal feminist and masculine effeminate This collection exploits this framework while refining and resisting it in places to show how certain Victorians imagined difference in ways that continue to challenge us today One essay for example traces the remarkable feminist appropriation of male identified fields of study such as Classical philology Others address the validation of male bodies as objects of desire in writing painting and emergent modernist choreography The writings shed light on the diverse interests served by a range of cultural practitioners and on the complex ways in which the late Victorians invented themselves as modern subjects This volume will be essential reading for students of British literary and cultural history as well as for those interested in feminist gay and lesbian studies Contributors are Oliver Buckton Richard Dellamora Dennis Denisoff Regenia Gagnier Eric Haralson Andrew Hewitt Christopher Lane Tha s Morgan Yopie Prins Kathy Alexis Psomiades Julia Saville Robert Sulzer Jr Martha Vicinus Sexual Dissidence Jonathan Dollimore,1991 Returning to the early modern period this study questions and develops issues of post modernity It shows how literature histories and sub cultures of sexual and gender dissidence may be relevant to current debates and discusses topics ranging from homophobia to transgression and its containment Literature and The Contemporary Roger Luckhurst,Peter Marks,2014-07-22 At the end of the century much criticism has become devoted to last things the end of history the end of the subject the end of the novel the end even of the end Literature and the Contemporary in contrast aims to provide through twelve essays evidence of the way in which the literature of the 1990s is constantly engaging in questions of memory and history and the representation of time in the present day The essays in the book survey theories of temporality from various cultural and philosophical standpoints and represent critics writing from feminist postcolonial and queer perspectives discussing literature in our time The collection addresses such central issues as the politics of memory colonial legacies women s time racial and sexual identities in the 1990s and covers a wide range of contemporary authors works and issues some of which are treated for the first time Among the contemporary works discussed are the prize winning books Graham Swift s Last Orders Anne Michaels Fugitive Pieces and Jane Smiley s A Thousand Acres While discussing some of the most significant novels of the 1990s this collection also offers a diverse yet cohesive critique of the millennial leanings of much postmodernist criticism which it argues should be replaced by more variously nuanced engagements with literature and the contemporary

Sex, Society, and the Making of Pornography Jeffrey Escoffier,2021-02-12 Hardcore pornographic films combine fantasy and real sex to create a unique genre of entertainment Pornographic films are also historical documents that give us access to the sexual behavior and eroticism of different historical periods This book shows how the making of pornographic films is a social process that draws on the fantasies sexual scripts and sexual identities of performers writers directors and editors to produce sexually exciting videos and movies Yet hardcore pornographic films have also created a body of knowledge that constitutes in this digital age an enormous archive of sexual fantasies that serve as both a form of sex education and self help guides Sex Society and the Making of Pornography focuses on sex and what can be learned about it from pornographic representations The Ashgate Research Companion to Contemporary Religion and Sexuality Andrew K.T. Yip,2016-04-01

The Ashgate Research Companion to Contemporary Religion and Sexuality provides academics and students with a comprehensive and authoritative state of the art review of current research in the area of sexuality and religion broadly defined This collection of expert essays offers an inter disciplinary study of the important aspects of sexuality and religion calling upon sociological cultural historical and theological contributions to an under researched subject The Companion focuses on the exploration of diverse religious faiths spiritualities and sexualities with contributions that embrace many contrasting approaches related to the contemporary context By adopting a truly inter disciplinary and multi dimensional perspective the Companion embraces the complexities of both sexuality and religion Aimed primarily at a readership with specialist interest in both The Ashgate Research Companion to Contemporary Religion and Sexuality offers an innovative and refreshing analysis of key theoretical and empirical issues in an increasingly relevant and expanding area of academic interest The Companion comprises five main thematic sections each with chapters ranging across a variety of crucial topics traversing various faith traditions The principal themes are epistemological and methodological issues the significance of religious text institutional religious settings stability transformation and change contesting hegemonic structures and discourses Each section includes four chapters contributed by leading international experts in their respective fields and who are at the cutting edge of current research Collectively they offer an inter disciplinary and comprehensive survey of sexuality and religion Gender Protest and Same-Sex Desire in Antebellum American Literature David Greven,2016-04-22

Expanding our understanding of the possibilities and challenges inherent in the expression of same sex desire before the Civil War David Greven identifies a pattern of what he calls gender protest and sexual possibility recurring in antebellum works He suggests that major authors such as Margaret Fuller Edgar Allan Poe Herman Melville and Nathaniel Hawthorne consciously sought to represent same sex desire in their writings Focusing especially on conceptions of the melancholia of gender identification and shame Greven argues that same sex desire was inextricably enmeshed in scenes of gender role strain as exemplified in the extent to which The Narrative of Arthur Gordon Pym depicts masculine identity adrift and in disarray Greven finds similarly compelling representations of gender protest in Fuller s exploration of the crisis of gendered identity in Summer on the Lakes in Melville s representation of Redburn s experience of gender nonconformity and in

Hawthorne's complicated delineation of desire in The Scarlet Letter As Greven shows antebellum authors not only took up the taboo subjects of same sex desire and female sexuality but were adept in their use of a variety of rhetorical means for expressing the inexpressible

Ladlad J. Neil C. Chaucer's Pardoner

and Gender Theory NA NA,2016-04-30 Chaucer's Pardoner and Gender Theory the first book length treatment of the character examines the Pardoner in Chaucer's Canterbury Tales from the perspective of both medieval and twentieth century theories of sex gender and erotic practice Sturges argues for a discontinuous fragmentary reading of this character and his tale that is genuinely both premodern and postmodern Drawing on theorists ranging from St Augustine and Alain de Lille to Judith Butler and Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick Sturges approaches the Pardoner as a representative of the construction of historical and sexual identities in a variety of historically specific discourses and argues that medieval understandings of gender remain sedimented in postmodern discourse

Enclosure Acts Richard Burt,John Archer,2019-06-07 Enclosure the conversion of peasants commonly held lands to privately owned pasture has long been considered a critical stage in the transition from feudalism to capitalism This book is the first however to treat in detail the literary and cultural implications of enclosure in early modern England Bringing together the work of both senior and younger scholars who represent a wide range of critical orientations Enclosure Acts focuses not only on the historical fact of land enclosure but also on the symbolic containment of sexuality in Elizabethan and Jacobean literary works The first type of enclosure frequently has been treated by materialists and new historicists feminists and theorists concerned with issues of gender have tended to concentrate on the second The fourteen essays collected here explore the relationships between these two ways of perceiving enclosure in the context of cultural studies Individual chapters examine the creation of territorial and social boundaries as well as the consequences of enclosure acts

Privileging Difference Antony Easthope,2017-03-14 Difference the key term in deconstruction has broken free of its rigorous philosophical context in the work of Jacques Derrida and turned into an excuse for doing theory the easy way Celebrating variety for its own sake Antony Easthope argues cultural criticism too readily ignores the role of the text itself in addressing the desire of the reader With characteristic directness he takes to task the foremost theorists of the current generation one by one including Edward Said and Homi Bhabha Dona Haraway Rosi Braidotti and Judith Butler In a final tour de force he contrasts what he calls the two Jakes Jacques Lacan and Jacques Derrida to bring out the way their respective theories need each other The book is vintage Easthope wide ranging fearless witty and a radical challenge to complacency wherever it is to be found

Brown on Brown Frederick Luis Aldama,2009-07-21 Common conceptions permeating U S ethnic queer theory tend to confuse aesthetics with real world acts and politics Often Chicano a representations of gay and lesbian experiences in literature and film are analyzed simply as propaganda The cognitive emotional and narrational ingredients that is the subject matter and the formal traits of those representations are frequently reduced to a priori agendas that emphasize a politics of difference In this book Frederick Luis Aldama follows an entirely different approach He investigates the ways in which race and gay lesbian sexuality intersect and operate in Chicano a literature and film while taking into full account their imaginative nature and therefore the specific kind of work invested in them Also Aldama frames his analyses within today's larger globalized context of postcolonial literary and filmic canons that seek to normalize heterosexual identity and experience Throughout the book Aldama applies his innovative approach to throw new light on the work of authors Arturo Islas Richard Rodriguez John Rechy Ana Castillo and Sheila Ortiz Taylor as well as that of film director Edward James Olmos In doing so Aldama aims to integrate and deepen Chicano literary and filmic studies within a comparative perspective Aldama s unusual juxtapositions of narrative materials and cultural personae and his premise that literature and film produce fictional examples of a social and historical reality concerned with ethnic and sexual issues largely unresolved make this book relevant to a wide range of readers

Another Country

Josep-Anton Fernàndez,2000 This book studies the emergence in the late 1960s and 1970s of a sophisticated body of gay fiction in Catalan and examines the relation between the representation of homosexuality and the discourses on national identity that legitimate modern Catalan literature Gay fiction argues the author reveals a tension between the nation and the body in Catalan literature Catalonia is a nation different from Spain a cultural and political minority within Europe but the existence of sexual minorities within its boundaries reveals its inner complexity which resists homogenization Catalonia is another country in more ways than one Drawing on a variety of critical discourses gay theory psychoanalysis and authors such as Foucault Deleuze and Guattari and Bourdieu Another Country explores the intertwinings of identity cultural politics and desire in the work of Terenci Moix Lluís Fernández Biel Mesquida and Lluís Maria Todo The book analyses how gay writers renegotiate identity discourses in Catalan literature in order to introduce homosexuality into them often with destabilising effects The role of gay authors in the process of canon construction a crucial aspect of contemporary cultural nationalism in Catalonia is also considered focusing on postmodernism and the divide between high and mass culture Finally Another Country addresses the interplay of homosexual desire within the frame of a distinction between perversion and transgression and proposes an alliance between queer and nationalist discourses
