 NA,2016-04-30 In Queering the Moderns Anne Herrmann revisits the narrative of literary modernism and the historical uses of the term queer to explore the emergence of identities specific to modernism Queer in the modernist period 1910 1945 means strange odd out of sorts and although it begins to refer to those who are queer sexually it does not yet police a hetero homosexual divide It means crossing boundaries in unexpected directions across the Atlantic across the color line across literary conventions that dictate autobiographies can't be written by someone else Six memoirs that rely on cross gender and cross racial identifications are discussed within their specific cultural contexts so that female aviators Amelia Earhart and Beryl Markham lesbian autobiographers Virginia Woolf and Gertrude Stein and male auto ethnographers James Weldon Johnson and Earl Lind Ralph Werther begin to queer the traditional spaces of modernism Re-visioning Feminism Around the World ,1995 Short essays by 85 feminist writers on the future of feminism Writers include Elizabeth Janeway Tillie Olsen Nell Painter Grace Paley Alix Kates Shelman Alice Walker and others Actresses and Whores Kirsten Pullen,2005-02-17 Publisher Description The Queer Sixties Patricia Juliana Smith,2013-12-16 The Queer Sixties assembles an impressive group of cultural critics to go against the grain of 1960s studies and proposes new and different ways of the last decade before the closet doors swung open Imbued with the zeitgeist of the 60s this playful and powerful collection rescues the persistence of the queer imaginary The Feminist Avant-Garde in American Poetry Elisabeth A. Walter Pater's European Imagination Lene Østermark-Johansen,2022-08-08 Walter Pater s European Imagination addresses Pater s literary cosmopolitanism as the first in depth study of his fiction in dialogue with European literature Pater s short pieces of fiction the so called imaginary portraits trace the development of the European self over a period of some two thousand years They include elements of travelogue and art criticism together with discourses on myth history and philosophy Examining Pater s methods of composition use of narrative voice and construction of character the book draws on all of Pater s oeuvre and includes discussions of a range of his unpublished manuscripts essays and reviews It engages with Pater s dialogue with the visual portrait and problematises the oscillation between type and individual the generic and the particular which characterises both the visual and the literary portrait Exploring Pater s involvement with nineteenth century historiography and collective memory the book positions Pater s fiction solidly within such nineteenth century genres as the historical novel and the Bildungsroman while also discussing the portraits as specimens of biographical writing As the Ur texts from which generations of modernist life writing developed Pater s imaginary portraits became pivotal for such modernist writers as Virginia Woolf and Harold Nicolson Walter Pater s European Imagination explores such twentieth century successors together with French contemporaries like Sainte Beuve and followers like Marcel Schwob At the Mercy of Their Clothes Celia Marshik,2016-11-29 In much of modern fiction it is the clothes that make the character Garments embody personal and national histories They convey wealth status aspiration and morality or a lack thereof They suggest where characters have been and where they might be headed as well as whether or not they are aware of their fate At the Mercy of Their Clothes explores the agency of fashion in modern literature its reflection of new relations between people and things and its embodiment of a rapidly changing society confronted by war and cultural and economic upheaval In some cases people need garments to realize themselves In other cases the clothes control the person who wears them Celia Marshik's study combines close readings of modernist and middlebrow works a history of Britain in the early twentieth century and the insights of thing theory She focuses on four distinct categories of modern clothing the evening gown the mackintosh the fancy dress costume and secondhand attire In their use of these clothes we see authors negotiate shifting gender roles weigh the value of individuality during national conflict work through mortality and depict changing class structures Marshik's dynamic comparisons put Ulysses in conversation with Rebecca Punch cartoons articles in Vogue and letters from consumers illuminating opinions about specific garments and a widespread anxiety that people were no more than what they wore Throughout her readings Marshik emphasizes the persistent animation of clothing and objectification of individuals in early twentieth century literature and society She argues that while artists and intellectuals celebrated the ability of modern individuals to remake themselves a range of literary works and popular publications points to a lingering anxiety about how political social and economic conditions continued to constrain the individual
