Journal of Small Business and Entrepreneurship, 1986 The Making of Women Entrepreneurs in Hong Kong Priscilla Pue Ho Chu, 2003-12-01 This book provides a detailed account of Chinese industrial entrepreneurs and describes and explains the phenomena of women entrepreneurship in Hong Kong. It addresses two main issues: first, the characteristics of Chinese entrepreneurship and women entrepreneurs; second, the factors that constitute the making of Chinese women entrepreneurs in Hong Kong. From in-depth personal interviews, Priscilla Chu examines the entrepreneur as a person and as a member of family organization and society. Having thus established the characteristic features of Chinese entrepreneurship in general and female entrepreneurship in particular, the author builds a model to summarize the making of female entrepreneurs in Hong Kong, a model which is significantly different from that for male and Western counterparts. The study analyses the distinct Chinese entrepreneurship in relation to familism, Chinese work ethics, family and organizational conditions, and societal and cultural contexts.
