Shades Of Gray Old Age American Values And Federal Policies Since 19:

Services to the Aging and Aged Paul K. Kim, 2021-03-04 This series attempts to address the topic of aging from a wide variety of perspectives and to make available some of the best gerontological thought and writings to researchers professional practitioners and students in the field of aging as well as in other related areas This volume is an invaluable resource for those persons seeking a broad comprehensive coverage of current public policies and service programs for the elderly Besides dealing with present gerontological services it also explores the emerging challenges that these services must face in the future One of the outstanding features of the book is that its contributors include some of the most prominent authorities in the field of gerontology This is an exceptionally important and timely volume and is a much needed addition to the literature on aging

Growing Old in the Twentieth Century Margot Jefferys, 2005-09-23 Growing Old in the Twentieth Century investigates many aspects of the current debates raging regarding care and provision for the elderly and the very elderly It will be invaluable to gerontologists social policy makers official and unofficial carers and anyone involved in health care

America in the Twenties and Thirties Sean Dennis Cashman, 1989-01-01 In this the third volume of an interdisciplinary history of the United States since the Civil War Sean Dennis Cashman provides a comprehensive review of politics and economics from the tawdry affluence of the 1920s through the searing tragedy of the Great Depression to the achievements of the New Deal in providing millions with relief job opportunities and hope before America was poised for its ascent to globalism on the eve of World War II The book concludes with an account of the sliding path to war as Europe and Asia became prey to the ambitions of Hitler and military opportunists in Japan The book also surveys the creative achievements of America's lost generation of artists writers and intellectuals continuing innovations in transportation and communications wrought by automobiles and airplanes radio and motion pictures the experiences of black Americans labor and America's different classes and ethnic groups and the tragicomedy of national prohibition The cast of characters includes FDR the New Dealers Eleanor Roosevelt George W Norris William E Borah Huey Long Henry Ford Clarence Darrow Ernest Hemingway Scott Fitzgerald W E B DuBois A Philip Randolph Orson Welles Wendell Willkie and the stars of radio and the silver screen The first book in this series America in the Gilded Age is now accounted a classic for historiographical synthesis and stylistic polish America in the Age of the Titans covering the Progressive Era and World War I and America in the Twenties and Thirties reveal the author's unerring grasp of various primary and secondary sources and his emphasis upon structures individuals and anecdotes about them The book is lavishly illustrated with various prints photographs and reproductions from the Library of Congress the Museum of Modern Art and the Whitney Museum of American Art

Federal Social Policy Donald T. Critchlow, Ellis W. Hawley, 2010-11-01 The Aging Bennett M. Rich, Martha Baum, 2010-11-23 This book provides a comprehensive analysis of federal programs for the aging and their origins Landmark federal legislation affecting the aging was enacted in the 1930s and the intervening decades have witnessed a dramatic increase in the number and scope of programs But far from constituting a cohesive national policy for the elderly the many programs reflect the particular political and social conditions surrounding their origin and implementation The multiplicity and complexity of resources and services available make achieving even a reasonable grasp of this field extremely difficult This study offers a coherent and readable summary of this important area of federal legislation Magic Lands John M. Findlay,1993-09-22 The American West conjures up images of pastoral tranquility and wide open spaces but by 1970 the Far West was the most urbanized section of the country Exploring four intriguing cityscapes Disneyland Stanford Industrial Park Sun City and the 1962 Seattle World s Fair John Findlay shows how each created a sense of cohesion and sustained people s belief in their superior urban environment This first book length study of the urban West after 1940 argues that Westerners deliberately tried to build cities that differed radically from their eastern counterparts In 1954 Walt Disney began building the world s first theme park using Hollywood s movie making techniques The creators of Stanford Industrial Park were more hesitant in their approach to a conceptually organized environment but by the mid 1960s the Park was the nation s prototypical research park and the intellectual downtown for the high technology region that became Silicon Valley In 1960 on the outskirts of Phoenix Del E Webb built Sun City the largest most influential retirement community in the United States Another innovative cityscape arose from the 1962 Seattle World s Fair and provided a futuristic somewhat fanciful vision of modern life These four became magic lands that provided an antidote to the apparent chaos of their respective urban milieus Exemplars of a new lifestyle they are landmarks on the changing cultural landscape of postwar America Disciplining Old Age Stephen Katz,1996 The conference was organized cooperatively with the Surface Engineering Division of the ASM and as part of Materials Week and so was attended by a wider range of scientists from academia and engineers from industry than usual Funding cuts affecting travel budgets in many institutions however reduced the overall number those who were not able to attend can begin saving for the proceedings The 43 papers cover ultrahard coatings surface treatment and alternative processes corrosion resistant coatings characterizing coatings the surface engineering of powders laser processing vapor deposition and plasma methods and thermal spray coating and coatings for composites Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Shades of Gray W. Andrew Achenbaum,1983 Politics and Old Age: Older Citizens and Political Processes in Britain John A. Vincent,Guy Patterson,Karen Wale,2024-11-01 This title was first published in 2001 Older people have been characterized by two mutually contradictory stereotypes One the one hand they have been portrayed as a powerful lobby growing demographically and able to demand large redistributions of the nation s income in their direction On the other hand they have been typified as a marginalized group at high risk of poverty and exclusion and in a political context largely powerless This book examines using original research conducted by the Older People and Politics Project OPPOL within Exeter University s Sociology Department the reality of the impact of the increasing number of older people on the British political process The project had three main investigative concerns how effective are pressure groups and lobbyists for older people how is the power and influence of older people perceived by older people themselves and the general public and how are politicians responding to older people and their needs American Social Welfare Policy David Rochefort, 2019-03-06 Social welfare activities stand at the heart of the modern democratic state as they absorb ever increasing budget allocations and stimulate debate over the proper role of government This study analyzes the development of social welfare policy in modern America beginning with a critical assessment of the dominant progressive and social control t

The President and American Capitalism since 1945 Mark H. Rose, Roger Biles, 2017-11-14 The book examines the development of the U S presidency since 1945 and describes the many ways some of which are unknown or greatly underappreciated in which the president s actions affect the daily lives of the American people Governing America Julian E. Zelizer, 2014-08-21 This book examines the study of American political history Setting Limits Daniel Callahan, 1995-03-01 A provocative call to rethink America s values in health care Encyclopedia of American Social Movements Immanuel Ness, 2015-07-17 This four volume set examines every social movement in American history from the great struggles for abolition civil rights and women s equality to the more specific quests for prohibition consumer safety unemployment insurance and global justice Nancy Hanks Center United States. President (1981-1989 : Reagan), 1983 Retirement Income, Employment and Senior Citizen Service United States. Congress. House. Select Committee on Aging. Subcommittee on Retirement Income and Employment, 1992 Landmark Legislation Stephen W. Howard P. Chudacoff,2020-11-10 Most Americans take it for granted that a thirteen year old in the fifth grade is behind schedule that teenagers who marry too early are in for trouble and that a seventy five year old will be pleased at being told You look young for your age Did an awareness of age always dominate American life Howard Chudacoff reveals that our intense age consciousness has developed only gradually since the late nineteenth century In so doing he explores a wide range of topics including demographic change the development of pediatrics and psychological testing and popular music from the early 1800s until now Throughout our lifetimes American society has been age conscious But this has not always been the case Until the mid nineteenth century Americans showed little concern with age The one room schoolhouse was filled with students of varied ages and children worked alongside adults This is a lively picture of the development of age consciousness in urban middle class culture Robert H Binstock The New York Times Book Review A fresh perspective on a century of social and cultural development Michael R Dahlin American Historical Review
