tells his own story who decides what s true For centuries the Rose and Raven Society has tracked and hunted the supernatural beings that lurk in shadows Now they ve acquired the personal journal of Sabastian Wolfram a vampire who claims to have walked among humans for hundreds of years without ever taking a life His eloquent accounts paint the picture of a reluctant immortal feeding only on what he needs to survive while navigating vampire hierarchies ancient covens and the eternal dance between predator and prey Wolfram chronicles encounters with historical figures feuds with legendary vampire hunters and the burden of watching civilizations rise and fall through undying eyes But between Wolfram s entries lie contradicting accounts from those who ve hunted him The Rose and Raven agents describe a far more sinister creature than the one who penned these pages As journal entries intertwine with hunter reports a deadly question emerges Is Wolfram truly the sympathetic monster he claims to be or is his journal an elaborate deception penned by a master predator
