The Shadow of Sea Wolf Minmin Wu, 2025-04-03 For those living at the southern tip of the Korean Peninsula 1946 was an unfortunate year A year earlier Japan had surrendered and Korea gained independence People returned from the battlefields to their hometowns searching for loved ones reuniting families and once again enjoying domestic bliss It should have been a year of discarding the old embracing the new rekindling spirits and starting anew But no one expected that at the very beginning of that year right wing organizations in South Korea would stir up trouble in Seoul They convened an Extraordinary National Assembly held large scale demonstrations and called for strikes and shutdowns This urgent state prompted the U S and Soviet forces stationed in North and South Korea to intensify their actions On February 6th they established a Joint Commission in Seoul to discuss how to divide the Korean Peninsula Seizing this opportunity Syngman Rhee and Kim Il sung hurriedly set up their own People's Committees and Democratic Councils in Seoul and Pyongyang respectively From that moment they actively moved toward national division and territorial independence What followed was ideological confrontation and purges of political dissidents Before long the U S military government in South Korea openly took action bloodily suppressing Korea's independent national liberation even implementing a scorched earth policy There seemed to be no end the tragedies of that year were relentless Situations that once might have been understood became utterly impossible Suspicion murder violence and plunder replaced everything The resulting irreconcilable feuds and ensuing punishments were enough to make anyone realize that life itself could be the most terrifying ordeal As long as despotic regimes that scorn human rights and disregard life exist for even a single day as long as power politics tyrannical acts poverty and hunger plunder and war continue then the development manufacture and use of biochemical weapons worldwide and the related acts of terror will persist indefinitely It is precisely because of this that the characters events and the ensuing story of The Shadow of Sea Wolf as well as works of a similar nature will not lose their impact The Eon Series Grea Bear, 2017-05-16 This saga of parallel universes from a Hugo and Nebula Award winning author may be the best constructed hard SF epic yet The Washington Post One of the world's preeminent New York Times bestselling authors of hard science fiction mesmerizes readers with a mind expanding three volume masterwork about the creation of an alternate universe that breaks down all barriers of time and space and its consequences for future and past generations Legacy In the stunning preguel to Eon and Eternity an agent of the masters of the Way a man made tunnel through countless dimensions follows a renegade fanatic and his four thousand acolytes to a remarkable world of flora fauna hybrids where he is plunged into the terrible chaos of a raging civil war Eon As nuclear tensions rapidly reach a breaking point in a volatile twenty first century a hollowed out asteroid appears mysteriously hovering above the Earth's surface The asteroid contains the remains of Thistledown an abandoned city that was once home to survivors of a nuclear holocaust Scientists must race to unravel its secrets before the human race is annihilated in the impending apocalypse Eternity A devastating war has left Earth a nuclear wasteland Orbiting the planet is an asteroid starship containing the civilization of Thistledown humanity s future descendants For decades they have worked to heal their world and its survivors but their resources are finite They need to reopen the Way a gate that would not only benefit Earth but also help the asteroid's residents return home Greg Bear's classic Eon trilogy is an astonishing feat of the imagination that combines humanism cutting edge science and brilliant extrapolation This masterful science fiction saga has no equal in contemporary speculative fiction From the Rising of the Sun James M. Phillips, 2011-06-17 Here at last we have in Professor Phillips book an indispensable road map to guide us in our understanding of Christianity in postwar Japan His research is impressive prodigious and carefully conceived His findings are illuminating disturbing and hopeful I predict that this book will remain definitive in its field for many years to come Robert Lee San Francisco Theological Seminary author of Stranger in the Land The Church in Japan A helpful survey and source book for the understanding of the historical development of Christianity in Japan since 1945 Masao Takenaka Doshisha University Kyoto Japan This is an illuminating and scholarly study of the churches in Japan since 1945 churches of special interest because they have faced momentous changes and in some cases have been in continuous ferment This book has significance also because it is about churches in which there has been intensive theological and social activity as they have gained more and more independence of the west they have become a relatively new and very distinctive arena of Christian life John C Bennett former president Union Theological Seminary New York James M Phillips served for seventeen years as a church fraternal worker in Japan teaching church history at Tokyo Union Theological Seminary He also served as Visiting Professor of Church History at San Francisco Theological Seminary and the Graduate Theological Union Child of War Curtis Whitfield Tong, 2010-09-30 Hours after attacking Pearl Harbor on December 7 1941 Japanese bombers stormed across the Philippine city of Baguio where seven year old Curt Tong the son of American missionaries hid with his classmates in the woods near his school Three weeks later Curt his mother and two sisters were among the nearly five hundred Americans who surrendered to the Japanese army in Baguio Child of War is Tong's touching story of the next three years of his childhood as he endured fear starvation sickness and separation from his father while interned in three different Japanese prison camps on the island of Luzon Written by the adult Tong looking back on his wartime ordeal it offers a rich trove of memories about internment life and camp experiences Relegated first to the men's barracks at Camp John Hay Curt is taken under the wing of a close family friend who is also the camp's civilian leader From this vantage point he is able to observe the running of the camp firsthand as the war continues and increasing numbers of Americans are imprisoned Curt's days are occupied with work detail baseball and childhood adventures Along with his mother and sisters he experiences daily life under a series of camp commandants some ruling with intimidation and cruelty but one memorably with compassion In the last months of the war the entire family is finally reunited and their ordeal ends when they are liberated from Manila's Bilibid Prison by American troops Child of War is an engaging and thoughtful memoir that presents an unusual view of life as a World War II
